MILTON'S TEA ROOMS have been closed for a period of six weeks, and now the management wish to announce to their many patrons the opening of their new establishment under the name of

"Milton's Old Spain"

No expense has been spared to make this already popular resort the most unique and charming place of its kind in Eastern Canada. The very latest in Fountain and Luncheon Menus have been imported in order that the people of Charlottetown and surrounding districts may partake of the advantages and services that are generally conceded to the larger centres.
