

The Funny Man

DEFINITIONS.

Real Happiness is the pleasurable feeling experienced when you are pretty near certain that you are going to miss five o'clock study on Saturday and don't.

Slander is flattery turned wrong side out.

PLAIN FACTS.

Ever notice how narrow-minded most people are when they argue with you?

Somehow the majority of our good habits never get found out.

Mary had a little lamb regarding whose cuticular.
The fluff exterior was white and kinked in each particular,
On each occasion when the lass was seen perambulating,
The little quadruped likewise was there a gallavating.

Ray—Who is the most famous man on the alley?
MacA-d-m—Polyphemus.

And Steve says that Geo. Town is known all over the Island
Real Happiness is not preserved in family "jars".

Prof. (in chemistry)—Name a metal that will float on water
Walker—Cork.

Tivierge has invented what he calls a "plum" bed.

When MacIs-C was treated to a shower bath from an upper window, he only exclaimed "I thought I should have been overwhelmed by the extemporaneous conglomeration of the superficial ponderosity of that aqueous exuberance."

Prof.—(in Physiology) What is the office of the gastric juice?
Lal.—The Stomach.

Lady—Quid sit "ad valorem"?.
And Jo, he demonstrated.

Prof. (in physics)—Light is not reflected from black substances.

Centre—Then how do we see a nigger?

Some of the students of Corridor 3, state that St. Thomas appeared to them during the holidays, but we attribute these imaginings to the effect of over study.

Will the scientists of that corridor please explain.

Dick.—Hello Happy, Where are you going?

Happy.—I'm not goin'; I'm comin'

Couture.—Did you know John D? He was a big tall fellow.

Lachance—How many feet had he?

Prof. — (in Chem.) Emmet, can you name a transparent substance?

Emmet—yes sir, a keyhole.

"The vines produce threefold" when put in Latin by a second year student was made to read, "The vines produced trip-lets.

We always suspected that thirteen was an unlucky number, but we know it now.

Gerald.—(talking baseball) How much time is given to each inning?

Ray.—It occupies no definite period of time.

Gerald.—Something like an outing in that respect, eh?

Prof.—(in French) What is the feminine for old?

Lady.—There is no feminine for old.

Dolly.—What would you do if you were in my shoes?

Polly—(looking at feet) I'd get a pair about two sizes larger

"What is the nationality of the fireman?" asked Warrie, when there was a change in firemen, "I have'nt seen him" replied Hec but judging by the temperature I should say he is an Eskimo."

