

Crawley Moses Tries To Fix It.

Sing we a song of the lad who came from the South,
Easy was he to look at and with eloquent words in his mouth
Came he to old St. Dunstan's with the College lads to mix it, Never a problem arose but he was the man to fix it.

High tea they served at the Convent one day,
Charlottetown's fairest were there in merriest array;
With a Baby Austin under his arm, our hero came to town,
He looked about and decided no color could equal brown.

A rival to FIXIT there was, with a grand old Irish name,
But an army of rivals served only to liven the game,
Faded the hopes of the rival, for who could conquer the fates,
Or the beauty and line of the youth who came from the States.

—Crawley Moses

P.S.—Mr. Moses also adds that if any Saint's man needs a new suit, hat or overcoat, he is invited to call on George or Leddy and they will gladly FIX IT.
