

Alumni

Of last year's 16 graduates, four are now preparing themselves for the Priesthood. Messrs Francis J. Hughes, James C. McGuigan, Francis L. Butler and Alphonse Arsenault in the Grand Seminary, Quebec. These four men will bring to the Sanctuary that nobility of character and those admirable traits which ever characterized their life and studies while in college and these shall be even more highly developed and made manifest for the benefit of their fellow-men as they proceed along their chosen walks of life.

Messrs Raymond C. McCarvell and Edward Tetrault have taken up the study of medicine, the former at McGill University, Montreal, the latter at Laval.

Messrs Douglas Hogan, Henry Fitzgerald and Basil Gorman are taking a course in typewriting and shorthand preparatory to trying the civil service examinations.

Mr. Francis McPhee has for the present undertaken the difficult task of training the minds of the young that they may achieve greater things in the years to come. He as principle of Cardigan school will no doubt impress upon his care much of the valuable training received at Old St. Dunstan's

Mr. Edwin McDonald has taken up the study of engineering at St. Francis Xavier College Antigonish.

Mr. John J. McIsaac is at present endeavoring to increase the productive capacity of the land in the eastern part of the Island.

Mr. Leo Patrick, of this gentleman very little is known with certainty but it has been reported from very good authority that he has entered the state of matrimony and has settled in his home town.

Mr. Mark McGuigan has begun the study of law in the office of McKinnon and McNeill.

Mr. John Sark '12 who has been working in Moncton, N. B. has enlisted for the front and will sail with the second contingent.

Mr. John N. Conroy '12 who has, for the past two years, been studying law in Western Canada has entered Dalhousie College to complete his studies.

Austin McInnis has been elevated to the Holy Priesthood and shall exercise his Priestly duties in Western Canada.

Mr. Chas. Barron has entered Mount St. Marys' Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio, to complete his philosophic studies preparatory to his study of theology. When Charlie has finished he intends laboring in the Western States in the interest of the Catholic Church Extension Society of U. S. A.

Mr. Thos. H. Green is another son of old St. Dunstan's who is pursuing the theological studies for the Holy Priesthood.

Mr. Chester McCarthy of '08 class is studying law in the office of Johnson & Enman, Charlottetown, P.E.I.

Mr. Austin Gillis, is studying Medicine at McGill University Montreal.

Mr. Bertrand Brennan '12 is running a mercantile business in North Sidney, N. S.

Russian War Song.

Hurrah, hurrah, we'll sing the jubilee
Hurrah, hurrah, the flag that sets us free,
So we'll sing the chorus from Zrcnkqvipf to the sea
Whilst we go marching through Skylopogwofnifzixmifphe.