

THE SONG OF THE SLY SENIOR

Sing a song of Seniors, so, canny, smooth and sly
 Their tracks are hard to trace
 For they wear a poker face
 But they cannot fool the old gang long however hard they try,

We were watching Senior Jiggs with his safety alibi
 He claims he ne'er steps out
 With any girl, oh yeah, no doubt!
 But how about that Thursday when the gasoline ran dry?

Oh Aggie's car's a dandy, with endless style and swank,
 They were rolling down the road
 When the engine coughed and slowed
 And it took the last of Jiggs' roll to fill the empty tank.

Some Seniors are philosophers and some are humorists,
 But philosophy is feeble stuff
 Nor is humor quite enough
 When we live on borrowed smokes, 'tis the absent coin that's missed.

—Crawley Moses.

P.S.—Crawley wishes you all a Merry Christmas.

Did You See That Swanky
 Silk Stripe Shirt? 2.50

Just in from the mills—woven stripe fabric, some of the stripes fairly close, others more widely separated.
 One soft collar and one stiff one; French cuff.

And there are so many others, collar attached or separate collar..... $1.00, $1.25 and up

Some Thursday, go down to the basement and see Henry's bargains. You'll be pleased.
