

The Graduates

Russell Arbing

"From a good beginning cometh a good end."

Russell came to St. Dunstan's in 1943 from his home in Bedford and his generosity and pleasant disposition soon won a host of friends. Russ is known to all as a zealous worker and graduates with a high academic standing. During the past year the student body have shown their confidence in Russ by electing him to the position of secretary-treasurer of the Students' Union where he has proven his ability for leadership and executive work. In bidding you adieu, Russ, we hope that every success will be yours in future.

---

Leo F. Atkins

"The force of his own merit makes his way."

"Loey" is a native of Mt. Stewart, from where he entered St. Dunstan's as a high school student. He is a member of the C.O.T.C. and will be commissioned next summer. "Loey" was cadet instructor during the year '46-'47. He has also taken part in all activities of his class, of which he is a highly esteemed member. We wish him success in whatever field he chooses to enter.

---

Luc Bertrand

"There is more happiness in giving than in receiving."

Luc was born at Trois-Riviers on January 27, 1925. After a seven year course at the Seminaire des Trois-Riviere he came to S. D. U. in the fall of 1948 to complete his Senior year. Luc spoke English before he came here and was thus able to act as an interpreter for the other French boys. He is an avid sports fan and an excellent skier and swimmer. Next year Luc plans to study Medicine at Laval University.

Jean-Pierre Boivin

"Sans peur et sans reproche."

This French Canadian member of the graduating class was born on the 3rd of July 1927 at Shawinigan Falls. Jean-Pierre received his primary education in his home town and then entered the Seminaire de Trois-Rivieres. He came to St. Dunstan's last fall to complete his Bachelor of Arts course. During his short stay here he was a member of the choir, and played hockey for both his class-team and the Varsity team. Jean Pierre intends to enter La val University next fall. Best of luck, "Bois."

---

John A. Bradley

"There is no vice so simple but assumes
Some mark of virtue in his outward parts."

John was born at Peake's on October 28, 1927. He received his primary education in the village school, and in the autumn of 1943 entered St. Dunstan's. During his sojourn here he has taken an active part in sports, being particularly prominent in football and basketball. He has won the D award in these two sports and has been the recipient of the coveted bronze pin. John's love of literature and poetry is very pronounced. He has not as yet decided upon a career, but we wish him much success and happiness in whatever field he chooses.

James Justin Emmet Braham

"Honour and shame from no condition rise;
Act well your part, there all the honour lies."

Emmet hails from Kensington, P. E. I. On completion of his studies at Kensington School, he enrolled at St. Dunstan's, in the autumn of 1943. During his years at St. Dunstan's he was noted for that consistent application to study which is so necessary for success. As Emmet leaves us now with his B.A. degree, he bears those characteristics which we are wont to associate with a Catholic gentleman. Animated with ideals such as these, we feel that his success is a foregone conclusion.

Joseph Cairns

"A man of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows."

Joe comes from Greenfield, P. E. I. after attending Prince of Wales College for two years, he spent several years teaching in the public schools. In 1945 he entered St. Dunstan's where he has shown himself to be an outstanding student. We will remember Joe not only as an excellent student but also as a good friend. Possessor of a contagious smile, a deep sense of humour, and a readiness to lend a helping hand to all, he has made many friends at St. Dunstan's. We feel certain that in whatever sphere of life Joe finds himself, he can be relied upon to give his best to it.

---

John Dalziel

"An honest man; a gentleman."

Jack, the only married student on the campus, hails from Borden, P. E. I. Having finished his high-school course, he joined the navy and after the war returned to work for his B.Sc. Jack is a conscientious worker endowed with a true sense of values and has proved his worth both in academic and extracurricular activities. He was appointed high-school representative '42-'43; A.A.A. '42-'43; class president and students' union representative '45-'46, '46-'47, '47-'48; life president of the class of '49. Jack also played on the first football team for three years. Best of luck in your future endeavours, Jack,

---

Joseph Gregory Gavin

"Rich in saving common sense
And, as the greatest only are,
In his simplicity sublime."

Dalton School, Tignish, is accredited with the distinction of being the place where Gregory first partook of scholastic knowledge. After this, he spent two years at Tignish Convent where he completed the Grade XI Maritime Matriculation course. Gregory entered Grade XII at St. Dunstan's in the fall of '44. During his stay at S. D. U., he was a member of the college choir and engaged in intramural sports. The best of luck Greg in your future field of studies.

Justin Howard Gavin

"Who mixed Reason, with Pleasure and Wisdom with Mirth;
If he had any faults, he has left us doubt."

Any man who was born on St. Valentine's Day would have to be everybody's friend. And so it was that the 'Valentine boy'—little Justin Gavin, grew up to become well known and well liked. After graduating from Dalton School, Tignish, he entered St. Dunstan's in 1943 and became one of the outstanding campus personalities. The Glee Club and College choir have boasted of his membership; the Thursday afternoon socials could not have been the same without his guiding hand. This year he was elected president of the Senior Debating Society. To you, we extend our good wishes in whatever you may undertake.

J. Ernest Goulet

"He makes no noise but we know he is there."

Ernest Goulet was born on February 29, 1928. He studied at the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres and came to St. Dunstan's for his Senior year. He has a great love for social life and this fact has proved a great help to him in learning English. He likes summer sports but would rather spend his winters in Monte-Carlo. Laval will be Ernest's next stop where he will study law.

Allan Raymond Grant

"He cometh slow, but he comes."

Raymond was born in Montague in 1927 and received his primary education there prior to entering St. Francis Xavier where he continued his studies for two years. In the fall of 1945 he enrolled at S. D. U. as a sophomore and soon captured the respect and friendship of all who knew him. This year Ray leaves St. Dunstan's with a Bachelor of Science degree and the best wishes of all for good luck and success in whatever he may undertake.

Mary Evelyn Hessian

"Those about her
From her shall read the perfect ways of honor."

Evelyn, the class valedictorian, came to us in the Fall of 1947. Since then she has maintained the enviable record which began when she won the Provincial Scholarship for entrance to Prince of Wales College. Evelyn has been prominent in many fields of activity, particularly in debating for which she won a Debating 'D'. she was president of the Sigma Delta Upsilon Sorority, and has made many contributions to the Red and White. May the be of everything be yours, Evelyn, in your chosen work.

Phyllis Therese Hessian

"She was—but words would fail to tell thee what.
Think what a woman should be—she was that."

After spending a year in P. W. C. Phyllis enrolled at St. Dunstan's as a Freshman in the fall of 1945. Since then she has applied herself so diligently to her studies that she has always been ranked with the best in her class. This year Phyllis graduates with a B.Sc. degree. Our best wishes go with her wherever she may go, and while we cannot promise to remember her accomplishments as a student, we shall never forget her as a lady.

Pierre Houle

"Fortune helps those that help themselves."

Pierre was born in Shawinigan Falls on the 10th of May 1929. After attending the College Immaculee Conception and the Seminaire de Trois Rivieres, he entered St. Dunstan's last fall. The favorite sports of this happy-go-lucky bonhomme are hockey, baseball and softball. He graduates with his B.A. degree and next year plans to enter Laval University for the study of Medicine. Bon Succes, Pierre.

Kevin Fabian Howlett

"Wise to resolve, and patient to perform."

Kevin, familiarly known as "Deacon", was born at Gowan Brae, P. E. I., on August 27, 1927, entering St. Dunstan's in 1943. In the field of extracurricular activities he has been very active, being secretary-treasurer of the M.I.D.L. for the past two years. He is a third year cadet in the C.O.T.C., and has managed the students' canteen during this, one of its most successful years. Kevin has not decided on a future, but we know he has the qualifications which guarantee success.

---

Kathleen Theresa Keefe

"A Mind at Peace with all Below."

Kathleen attended school in Kinkora and in 1945 graduated from the High School there. A student at St. Dunstan's for the past four years, she receives her Bachelor of Science degree this year, majoring in chemistry. Kathleen's plans for the future are indefinite but whatever her chosen field may be, she will bring to it that same good-natured and friendly interest which characterized her student days at St. Dunstan's. Au Revoir, Kitty. Good Luck.

---

Paul Louis Landrigan

"A workman that needeth not to be ashamed."

Paul was born on August 25, 1925 in Everette, Mass., but moved to the Island at the age of two. After studying a year at P. W. C., he entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1942. After an absence of three years, he resumed his studies and this year graduates with a B.A. degree. Paul's extracurricular activities include: member of senior football team, '43-'44, Athletic Editor of Red and White '47-'49, executive of M.I.D.L. '47-'48, president of M.I.D.L. '48-'49, and prefect of the boys' dorm '48-'49. His future lies in the field of Medicine. Best of luck, Paul, and continued success.

Remi Larochelle

"Work is the key of success."

Remi was born on the 2nd of March 1923 in Ste Marie de Bauce. He entered St. Dunstan's last fall after attending the College de Levis and the Seminaire de Trois Rivieres. Although our friend works a great deal he finds time to practice his favorite sports, tennis and skiing. Next fall we will miss Remi's friendship as he intends to study Dentistry at the University of Montreal. We wish him every success in his chosen profession.

William Ledwell

"He's a good man, I'll say that for him, and a true Christian every inch of him."

Bill came to S.D.U. from St. Peter's Bay in 1943. While here Bill stood out particularly in the field of sport, playing the past four years on the Senior hockey team and the past five seasons on the second football team. This year Bill is also president of his class. Bill has an infallible memory especially concerning games the Saints have played in years past. He is a friendly chap, always willing to help, and these qualities have won him many friends at S.D.U. We are speaking for all when we say, "The best of everything to you, Bill."

---

Margaret Alice McCloskey

"From every blush that kindles in thy cheek,
Ten thousand little loves and graces spring."

The youngest member of the class, Alice graduates this year with a Bachelor of Arts degree. She entered St. Dunstan's in 1945 after graduating from Kinkora High School. Alice's special outside interests have been dramatics and music. On the Red and White staff 1948-'49, Alice has made many contributions to the magazine and this year receives her Literary 'D'. Her plans for the future are not definite, but whatever she does we may be sure that she will do it in her own gentle and charming way. Good luck, Alice.

Aeneas Charles MacDonald

"His wit and humour so flashed,
That gayety thrived in his presence."

Charlie, one of the younger members of this year's graduating class, was born on July 19, 1928, at Launching where he received his elementary education. Six years ago he entered our High School, followed on to College study, and this year graduates a Bachelor of Arts. During his stay here, he has proved himself a worthy student, deeply interested in all college activities and always willing to lend a helping hand. With our Au Revoir we say, "Good Luck Charlie!"

---

John Stephens MacDonald

"He is every inch a man."

John S. was born 22 years ago in Cardigan. Since entering St. Dunstan's in 1943 he has earned a Bachelor of Science degree and has found time to play a leading role in student activities. He was with the Red and White for three years: Contributing Editor '45-'46, Assistant Business Manager '46-'47, and Business Manager '47-'48. For his contributions to the magazine he was awarded a Literary "D" last year. This year he has capably filled the highest executive office, that of President of the Students' Union. One of John's well known expressions is: "I have never lost a bet," and with his sincerity and high sense of duty we can bet that John S. will be a very worthy graduate of St. Dunstan's.

Derrill Ignatius MacGuigan.

"From his arts sprung forth music."

Derrill, although born in 1925 in Boston, Massachusetts, attended and later taught at St. Patrick's School, Hunter River. Then entering P. W. C. on a Scholarship he continued his studies for two years. His four years at St. Dunstan's were not spent idly, he being Vice-President of the Glee Club '46-'47, President of the same society '47-'48, and President of the C.C.S.M.C. '48-'49. Music activities, which held the spotlight in Derrill's campus life, could not compete, however, with his academic endeavors. Whatever your future, Derrill, we wish you the best!

---

Frank MacKinnon

"Whatever sceptics could inquire for,
For every why he had a wherefore."

"Shorty", as he is familiarly known, was born in Charlottetown in 1926. During his four years' stay here, he has displayed the qualities of a good student as well as those of an athlete. "Shorty" guarded the nets for the St. Dunstan's hockey team when it captured the Maritime Intercollegiate title in 1947. His keen sense of humor and gentlemanly qualities have won for him many friends, and we are sure, promise him a bright future.

Helen Lorraine McNeely

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint,
And those who know thee, know all words are faint."

Lorraine was born in Charlottetown in 1928. She won the Governor-General's medal on her graduation from St. Joseph's Convent. The recipient of a provincial scholarship, she entered P. W. C. in 1944 and the following year enrolled at S. D. U. Lorraine has been a member of the Dramatic Club for the past four years and often has appeared in the dramatis personae. Her jovial personality and academic record have gained for her the esteem of all. On the future Lorraine has no comment, but her friends at S. D. U. wish her the best of everything.

Joseph Antonie Magnan

"Gentle in manner, but resolute in action."

"Tony" was born April 20, 1926, at Ste. Thecle, Quebec. After receiving his primary education in his home town, Tony entered St. Joseph's Seminary at Three Rivers, and came to St. Dunstan's in 1948. Tony's extracurricular interests include the choir, the Glee Club, and intramural hockey. Next year his friends will miss Tony's smiling face and pleasing personality as he plans to enter the school of Medicine at Laval University. "Bonne chance", Tony.

Owen Francis Mullin

"Mens aequa in arduis."

Owen was born at St. Peter's Bay on October 22, 1929. He graduated from St. Peter's High School in 1943 and enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of that year. During his second year here, Owen became a member of two Senior teams, Basketball and Football; and for the last five years has been an outstanding player on both. His other extra-curricular activities included: High School representative on the A.A.A. '44-'45; and track manager, '45-'46. Owen also has achieved a high standing in the academic field, and graduates this year with a Bachelor of Science degree. Best of luck, Owen.

---

Elmer Stephen Murnaghan

"Wise to resolve and patient to perform."

Steve was born in Tarantum, P. E. I. on Christmas day in 1926. He entered St. Dunstan's in 1943 as a Grade XI student, and has proved himself a true friend and gentleman. Steve has very capably fulfilled the positions of manager of basketball during the year 1947-48 and of President of the Amateur Athletic Association in 1948-49. He has been a member of the Canadian Officers Training Corps (C.O.T.C.) since 1946. We say good bye to a worthy representative of old St. Dunstan's. Good luck Steve.

---

Jean-Charles Patry

"To a valiant nothing is impossible."

Charlie was born on the 6th of December 1929 in Victoriaville Que. and received his primary education there. Later he attended the College de Montreal and the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres. During his short stay at St. Dunstan's Jean-Charles was an active member of the choir, a player in the intramural football and basketball leagues, and also a contributing editor to the Red and White. Charlie intends to Medecine at Laval. Best of luck Jean-Charles.

---

Robert Reid

"A man of sovereign parts he is esteemed."

Robert, more familiarly known to us as "Bush", entered St. Dunstan's in 1942. Possessed of a quiet and unassuming nature, he has always proved to be a reliable and worthwhile friend. He mixed work with play, being a keen participator in all intramural sports and was also a member of the second football team in 1946 "Bush" receives his B.A. degree this year. To him go all our best wishes in everything.

---

Clarence Gerald Roche

"Men of a few words are the best men."

Clarence was born 21 years ago in the good community of Iona. After passing through the local school he entered St. Dunstan's in 1943, and this year receives his Bachelor of Arts degree. During his stay here his sincerity and integrity have become known to all. He played a full role in athletic activities and has been a valued member of the Senior Basketball team during all his college years. He was a member of the A.A.A. executive in '47-'48; C.C.S.M.C. '47-'48; and the C.F.C.C.S. '48-'49. Clarence's high ideals and his forthright conviction will stand him in good stead in whatever work he engages.

Joseph Cyril Sinnott

"Frank and sincere; yet something of an enigma."

Cyril, the Life Secretary of the Senior class, was born at Bristol, P. E. I., on May 7th. 1922. In September 1938 he entered P.W.C. as the King's County Scholarship winner; his two years there were followed by two years teaching school and four years in the R.C.A.F. Since coming to S. D. U. "Doc", as Cyril is commonly known, has been one of the most outstanding students in his class; but he has not limited his activities to the purely academic. For four years he has been on the staff of Red and White, being Athletic Editor '45-'46, '46-'47, Assistant Editor '47-'48, and this year Editor-in-Chief. In Sophomore he received his Literary D, and this year he is the recipient of the highly coveted Gold Pin, awarded for outstanding contributions to the magazine. He has served as Secretary '46-'47, and President '47-'48, of our unit of the M.I.D.L., and has participated in three intercollegiate debates. Last year he won his Debating D. Doc leaves us an honour graduate in science, and when queried on his future he replied: "That's a good question, but from here it looks like medicine." Judging by his brilliant record at S. D. U., we confidently predict success for him in this field. Our best wishes go with you, Doc.

Edwin Bernard Steele

"He's calm and reserved—that's as far as he goes;
He seems to be quiet—yet one never knows."

Ed was born in Charlottetown on October 20, 1926. His early education was received at Queen Square School. After a year at Prince of Wales College, Ed enrolled at S. D. U. and this year finds him a member of the graduating class. During his years here he has proved himself to be an apt student and a popular friend to all. Ed's future is undecided, but the graduating class along with a host of friends, wish his success in whatever he undertakes.

Ethel Theresa Trainor

"Small and pretty, Dark and Witty."

Ethel came to St. Dunstan's from Prince of Wales College in 1945 and graduates this year with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Ethel was a member of M.I.D.L. '47-'48, '48-'49, Secretary of the Dramatic Society '48-'49, member of the recently organized S.D.U. Sorority. Ethel also played an active part in college dramatics. Her plans for the future are undecided but we wish her success in whatever field she chooses. Best of Luck, Ethel.

James Edmund Trainor

"From the top of his head to the sole of his foot, he is all mirth."

Graduating with his Bachelor of Arts degree is twenty-one year old James Trainor, a native of Charlottetown. A gift for entertaining placed this jolly fellow on the executive of the Glee Club and Dramatic Society soon after his entry to Saint Dunstan's in 1946. Jim will be awarded his Literary 'D' this year and in 1947-48 he won the prize for the best poetic contribution of the year. He has proved executive ability as business manager of Red and White; in dramatics he has shown his talent for acting and distinguished himself this year as a playwright; in numerous activities he has well deserved to be known among us as a good organizer, a good leader, and a truly good fellow.

Joseph Lorne Trainor

"Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Lorne comes from Kinkora and received his early education at Thistle and Shamrock school. He entered P. W. C. in 1938 where he continued his studies for the next two years. For the scholastic year of '40-'41 he enrolled at St. Dunstan's as a Freshman student. For the next two years Lorne taught school. In 1943 he enlisted in the Air Force where he served for three years. At S. D. U. Lorne proved himself an assiduous student. This year he is a member of the A.A.A. We wish him the best of success in whatever field of study he chooses.

Roger Villemure

"Fortiter in re"

On the 4th of February, Grand'Mere Que. heralded the birth of Roger. Before coming to St. Dunstan's he attended the College Sacre-Cœur and the Séminaire de Trois Rivières. Roger participates in all sports but prefers baseball, hockey and swimming. Roger graduates with his B.A. this year, and plans to enter the school of Dentistry at the University of Montreal. Best of luck Roger.
