
The Funny Man

Give a little, live a little, try a little mirth;
Sing a little, bring a little happiness to earth.
Pray a little, play a little, be a little glad;
Rest a little, jest a little if the heart is sad.
Spend a little, send a little to another's door;
Give a little, live a little, laugh a little more.

Windy—"Do you use toothpaste?"

Butler—"Gracious no! none of my teeth are loose."

Football Coach—"Mr. C-ss, why don't you get down lower in the scrim?"

Freddy—"Donahoe's arm is in my way."

Football Coach—"Now, now Mr. Donahoe don't be so naughty on the field."

E-l-n—"I know what your name is now. It's Lawrence."

Polly—"How did you find out?"

E-l-n—"Oh a little bird told me."

Polly—"Did I, really?"

Pie—"I feel like a Christmas tree."

Hagan—"In what way?"

Pie—"All lit up."

Tub—"Windy reminds me very much of a river flowing into the sea."

Huck—"How's that?"

Tub—"Always a constant flow at the mouth."

The Lesson

Lives of football stars remind us
We can reach a victor's place,
If we, too, will leave behind us
Footprints on our opponent's face.

Waitress (approaching Delaney, who had now been waiting some time)—"Something for you?"

Delaney—"Yes, give me some ice cream."

Waitress—"What kind?"

Delaney—"Strawberry."

Waitress—"Strawberry Sundae?"

Delaney—"No! I want it now."

Shreenan—"It's funny that you don't put the "mule" in the front line scrum."

Tiny McD.—"Why?"

Shreenan—"Well he should be good at heeling the ball out."

Prof. (in history class)—"Babylon fell, Ninevah was captured, and Tyre—Mr. Lawlor!"

Huck (asleep)—"Er-ah. Tyre was punctured."

Pussy—"I want to send my girl a present that will always remind her of me."

Gus—"Why don't you send her a kitten."

A Knowing Girl

"She knows her onions," has been said
Of pert and pretty Jen
But when Art tries to date her up,
She no's her lemons, then.

L.P.S.D.—"Get ready to die. I'm going to shoot you."

L. Doyle—"Why?"

L.P.S.D.—"I've always said I'd shoot anyone who looks like me."

L. Doyle—"Do I look like you?"

L.P.S.D.—"Yes."

L. Doyle—"Then shoot quick."

Connolly—"Where to to-night in such a rush Hughes?
Ray—"I'm going out to Winna-Peg."

Sparky—"Smelt, why is it that Mugsie, Bizz, and Pie all sing at once?"

Smelt—"Because one alone doesn't want to take all the blame."

Gus—"Because he has a Mil-dred he doesn't want anybody else to talk about."

She—"And do you really love me?"

R-y—"No, I'm only collecting data for a thesis."

The Bellhop's Farewell

A farewell reception was tendered to our retiring bellhop "Moses" Peters on the evening of Nov. 17 by the "Early Risers Club." After the opening of the presents, among which was a reliable alarm clock, the president of the club, Mr. Norbert Bradley also the Kellogg's Corn Flakes agent, assumed the duties of chairman for the following program:

Opening Chorus—"Six o'clock blues".....Early Risers

Opening Address—"My Thanksgiving Sacrifice".....
 F. Cass

Vocal Solo—"Too Tender for Words".....Huck Lawlor

Vocal Discord—"Wise Birds".....
 P. Connolly and C. Hughes

Lecture—"Profiteering".....

Who is She?

She doesn't like a shady joke.
 She doesn't hike, she doesn't smoke.
 She doesn't swear, she never flirts.
 She doesn't wear those shortened skirts.
 She doesn't dance, she doesn't sing.
 And goofs in pants don't mean a thing.
 She doesn't use the beauty salves;
 But won't refuse to show her calves.
 You ask her name? well, that's a wow—
 She's not a dame, she's just a Cow!

Murphy—"I wouldn't call your roommate a very loud dresser."

Shea—"Jumping Moses, you wouldn't, eh? You should be in the room with him when he can't find his collar button."
