

The Funny Man

Senator—"Most political candidates stand upon their records because they wish to keep them from coming to the surface."

McI - - c (in his maiden speech)—"The most formidable dreadnoughts Canada will ever butt up against will be the suffragettes."

C . . . y—(in Rhetoric)—I never heard shoes called boots till I came down here!

Prof.—well, that shows the benefit of travel.

Prof.—What part of speech is "egg?"

Cl - - e—A noun.

Prof.—What is its case?

Cl - - e—The shell.

Prof.—What is its gender?

Cl - - e—I can't tell till it's hatched.

B - - t—I think I shall have to get glasses.

D - c—It would be advisable. Get the largest possible, mine e.g. are 35 by 23 Kilometers.

B - - t—My, but you have an open countenance!

Emmet (his first smoke)—"I don't see why so many folks feel so pale from the effects of nicotine."

(An hour later, curled up on his cot) "O Gee, poor me, never no more for in my head I feel a pain I never felt before!"

Dan (holding up a lifeless object,) Freddy, look here!
Fred—What is it?

Dan—O just another of the Senator's supporters.

Prof. (in Chemistry)—Austin, give us an explanation of the atomic theory.

Austin—F - - - I's breakfast.

Tom—What will you have, Fatty? tea, coffee or cocoa; mince or washington; strawberry, plum or cherry?

Fatty—O, thank you, that will do for now.

DEFINITIONS.

Coozy—A bundle of singularly attractive qualities wrapped in the colors of the "Rainbow."

Politeness—Something not practised at table 4 (vide B - - - r.)

Orals—The last surviving relic of the Inquisition.

Students from the dormitory will please note that the restaurant is on the second floor and is open only on Sundays at 4 30 p. m.

The manager of the Morgue is requested to look after all dead bodies found in the back yard.

Poler is billed to meet Kid Millionaire Jan Ford, room No. 6. Kelly has consented to act as referee.

Prof.—Mr. F - - - l, what is your impression when you see the flag of your country waving proudly above you?

F - - - l—My impression is that its blowin'.

F - - - r—You say "kissing" is a Conjunction. Why so?

Ch - - - e—Why, because it joins two persons!

F - - - r—Hem!—suppose you know.

Fitz—Don says that the Lee-enfield is better than the Ross.

L - e—Why?

Fitz—O one of the Ross's threw him down the other day.

The Hon. membret from Moncton favors Reciprocity in everything but tinware.

Tom H.—used to say the dormitory was cold, he apparently finds it warmer now.

L - l—"Cuss the black eye, it's three weeks since I was on Pownal Street!"

B - - d—What position has Sammy got anyway?

F - - d—He's manager of the Steel Company, is'nt he?

Prof.—Now Ivan, Indian women are sometimes called squaws; what are indian babies sometimes called?

Ivan—Squawkers!

J - - n F (soliciting ads)—Where are we going next?

F - - r—To Notre Dame.

Newcomer—What is a football coach?

Fred—An ambulance.

(Special to Red and White.)

Sherwood, Dec. 22. — At the opening of the December session of the Court of the Kings Bench here this morning J - - n C - - - - - s B - - - - - e G - - - - n appeared charged with tampering with the water tanks of the Fire Department of St. Dunstan's College with the result that the Chief of the Fire Brigade narrowly escaped drowning. Mr. McNeill is acting for the prosecution and Mr. Hessian, K. C. for the defendant.