THE EXPLORER

(Dedicated to all Thursday Afternoon Adventurers)

Lester, Columbus, Magellan Odee Came out of the East with the wind "Seeking the laurels of knowledge," sez he, But keeping joy's Bluebird in mind.

Lester Explorer Columbus Odee Dates Divinity up for a call; He can't find the number three thirty and three, There's never a house there at all.

I'll pitch me a tent, said Columbus Odee And watch Thanksgiving day through, Inspecting the place where the house ought to be I might find the Bluebird there too.

Vain is thy vigil, Columbus Odee! Birdless thy traps and thy lures, Nothing is stirring, Magellan, for thee A lone walk to College for yours.

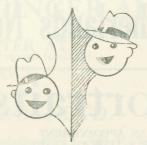

-Crawley Moses.
