A Savings Bank Pass Book of the Provincial Bank of Canada kept up to date by regular deposits

The Provincial Bank of Canada urges you to avoid speculation, to avoid frittering money on foolish pleasures and expenditures. Rather, place this money in a Savings Account with the bank. Build it up until it represents a worth while sum, and then either make a wise investment or buy some worth while thing you need and can use.

SAVINGS AND INVESTMENTS

Saving is not only "putting money in the Bank."
This is not true thrift. Saving is just as much wise spending as it is trying to hoard cash.

A Good Balance to your Credit in

The Provincial Bank of Canada

Gives a "Sense of Security"
