"The Way, The Truth, and The Life"

We do not fear who go in certitude
Though trials press upon us night and day
And the vile whisperings of hell intrude —
We do not fear at all — He is the Way.

We do not doubt, though sometimes we are shaken
By scents and sounds that call the hearts of youth.
Tempests arise, but we are not forsaken
And never doubt at all — He is the Truth.

We hold the past; its triumphs and its bleeding
Have armed us for the centuries of strife.
Our standard lifts; we follow where He's leading
And have no fear of death — He is the Life.
