PIERRE S'AMUSE

Peter, a prince of the pious
Voyaged here to dwell with us Saints
To dot the I, to cross the T, to mind the P and Q
And sport a little on the side, the same as me and you.

Now Peter and me and Mulvaney Got eleven-thirty leave one fine night, Came to town with a sock full of money To dally with movies, the dance and a bite.

Mulvaney and me met the home going auto
On the dot of the time as agreed,
Peter never turned up like he ought to,
O! was that a kind Christian deed?

Some say that Peter blew not in Till well toward the morn. His story of missed taxi has all the marks of sin The time he had was gorgeous, but now he sits forlorn.

His story and you're stuck with it.
