

The Graduates

James Wilfred Arnold Allen — Arts

"Put himself upon his good behavior"

On the morning of February 15, 1928, the Dunk River flowed peacefully by the village of Emerald; the whistles of trains coming from three directions echoed in the morning air; yet that morning the population was increased with the birth of the above personage. Having received his primary education at the local school, Arnold entered St. Dunstan's in 1945. Since then he has so participated in the spiritual, academic, athletic and social spheres of college life that the result spells for him S-U-C-C-E-S-S. His jovial disposition and mild manner accumulated many friends for him and they all wish him the best for the future.

Peter James Beaton — Arts

"There's nothing so becomes a man,
As modest stillness, and humility."

Peter was born at East Point on June 22, 1925. Having received his early education in East Point School, he later attended P. W. C. before entering St. Dunstan's in 1943. In 1945 he took up the teaching profession, and five years later returned to St. Dunstan's. Peter took an active part in college activities and this year is chronicle editor of Red and White. His Christian character and genial nature make him a true gentleman. Pete, you have our best wishes for a happy and successful future.

Joseph Antoine Theodoric Blacquiere

"Rien ne sert de partir a point, it suffit de courir. . ."

On November 25, 1930, the Blacquiere family of La Verniere, Iles-de-la-Madeliene received a Saint Catherine present in the person of a bright-eyed infant whom they called Joseph Antoine Theodoric. He came to St. Dunstan's in September 1949. Endowed with a sufficient scattering of wit, Ted has been a pleasing comrade to all with whom he came in contact during his three-year stay here. Next year he intends to enter Montreal University as a student in the Law School. We wish him every success.

George Ignatius Cameron — Commerce

"The real leaders do not always march at the head of the procession"

The life-president of the Graduating Class was born in Wellington, P.E.I., on July 31, 1928, and entered St. Dunstan's in 1945. Although very reserved and possessing a quiet disposition, George has been a popular student and natural leader. He has been class president, vice-president and president of the Students' Union successively during the past three years. In athletics, "Pluto" has been a valuable member of the football team for four years and team captain in his senior year. We wish George the best of everything in the future.

Gerald Denning Clinton — Science

"Whose armour is his honest thought"

Gerry was born in Bridgeport, Connecticut, December 16, 1928. His early education was obtained at Warren Harding High School. He entered St. Dunstan's in 1948. After spending two years here, Gerry spent a year in Western Canada, and then returned for his Junior and Seniors years. Jerry will be remembered for his active interest in college activities. He played first team football and starred in the presentation of "Deep are the Roots". He will, however, be best remembered for his philosophical streak. We wish Gerry the best of luck.

Alice Noreen Connolly — Science

"She joys thy joys, and weeps thy tears"

Christmas carols heralded Noreen's entry into the world on December 23, 1930. She received her early education at St. Joseph's Convent, Charlottetown, and on graduation from P. W. C. in 1950, came to St. Dunstan's. During her short stay with us, her quiet, conscientious and unassuming conduct has won the admiration of her many friends. This year she was President of the Sigma Delta Sorority. Whatever road she may take, we know her cheery disposition and keen sense of duty will mean her success.

Raymond Marie Gaspard Cote — Arts

"High though his wit, yet humble in his mind"

Born at Riviere du Loup in 1931, Gaspard has brightened up many dark days, and during his stay here the Senior Class found in him a loyal friend. Although he spent only one year here, his quiet nature, his sparkling personality, and his outstanding reputation have not failed to leave their mark on us. With Gaspard, St. Dunstan's is sending forth into the world another clear thinker with sound convictions. Au revoir, Gaspard, your success is assured.

Jacques Coulombe — Commerce

"Business dispatched is business well done,
Business hurried is business ill done."

Born at Matane, P. Q., on February 8, 1931. After finishing High School in the Seminaire de Rimouski, he entered Freshman Commerce here in 1948. Jack was a very laborious worker and as a proof of confidence, his class elected him a member of the class committee. After two summers in training with the COTC, Jack is now Second Lieutenant. He was always looking forward to making friends and no doubt he succeeded very well around the campus as well as outside. In September, Jack will take up advanced studies in business to acquire a C.G.A. license. Bonne chance, Jack, from all your friends.

Frederick Thomas Coyle — Arts

"A good sport, a true friend,
What else counts in the end?"

Fred was born in Charlottetown, on June 8, 1930. He began his education at Queen Square School and six years ago came to St. Dunstan's. Besides being a capable student, Fred has been a member of the basketball team for three years, and last year, when he was captain, received his Athletic "D". He has also served for three years on the staff of the Red and White, and this year has won his Literary "D". We wish Fred the best for his future which is sure to be a happy one.

James Leland Curley — Arts

"Idem est qui semper fuit, homo generosus"

Lee enrolled at St. Dunstan's in 1949 as a Sophomore and graduates this year with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Before coming to St. Dunstan's Lee attended Summerside High School. On completion of his studies there he taught school for several years. He took an active part in many campus activities and this year he was President of the C.C.S.M.C. Whatever his future plans may be, we realize that he has the qualifications which guarantee success.

Robert Desrosiers — Arts

"Aux ames bien nees la valeur n'attend pas le nombre des annees."

Robert was born at Lyster, Quebec, May 3, 1932. He attended the primary school there and on his completion of Grade VII, he entered Le Seminaire de Quebec to follow an Arts course. As Robert loved and understood the usefulness of the English language, he entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of '51. He will be remembered by us because of his fine manner and jovial personality. He plans to attend Laval next year and we are sure he will be welcomed there because of his qualities as a hard worker and an earnest student. Bonne chance, Robert!

Jean Marie Donahue — Arts

"Despite the dreary April showers,
A ray of sunshine touched the flowers."

Ever since that event which took place at Roseville on April 20, 1927, Jean has been smiling on those around her. After completing her elementary education, Jean entered P. W. C. in 1941 where she studied for three years. She then entered the teaching profession for one year after which she resumed her studies at S. D. U. Having completed Junior Year, Jean re-entered the teaching profession. Last fall she returned to St. Dunstan's and upon her graduation she plans to further pursue her career of teaching. All the best, Jean.

Beverley Patricia FitzGerald — Arts

"She is pretty to walk with
And witty to talk with,
And pleasant too, to think on."

"Bev" was born in Charlottetown on St. Patrick's Day, 1931. She obtained her early education at St. Joseph's Convent, meriting the Governor General's Medal on graduation. In the following three years she completed the four year's course at P. W. C., and entered S. D. U. in the fall of 1950. Since coming here Beverley has been a popular figure on the campus, as well as a good student. This year she was a staff member of Red and White, and received her Literary "D". We wish her a future of happiness.

Augustine Leo Flynn — Science

"He always has the courage to say what he thinks."

Gus was born in Charlottetown on February 19, 1930. He received his elementary education at Queen Square School and then attended Prince of Wales College for three years before coming to St. Dunstan's in the fall of '49. In the dramatic productions of "The Rosary", "Deep Are The Roots", etc., Gus was the indispensable "man behind the scenes" with his artistic ability. Regarding his future, Gus intends to study for his M.Sc., at the University of Manitoba. From S. D. U.—our best to you.

Paul Fradette — Arts

"Un de perdu, deux de retrouver"

"Matanian" from birth and also from pride, Paul was born the 20th of December, 1928. Having completed his Sophomore Year at College St. Laurent in Montreal, Paul came to S. D. U. in 1949. He was a member of the Laval Choristers and he soon became popular on the campus. He did not graduate last year, but came back to us after Christmas this year, this time bringing with him a charming wife. Paul's special hobby is playing golf. He intends to study medicine next year. We wish him success and happiness.

Guy Germain — Arts

"Il parle avec une abondance qui n'est plus celle du coeur mais celle des glandes salivaires . . ."

Guy was born at St. Tite, P.Q., on January 4, 1931. In 1949, having finished Freshman at the College de L'Assomption, he came to S. D. U. During his three years with us, he proved himself to be a student of good ability. A lover of music and a good singer, he has been a valued member of our choir and was President of the Glee Club for 1951-52. His many friends at S. D. U. wish him every success as he enters a new phase of his career at the Law School of the U. of M. Good luck, Guy!

Joseph Leonidas Maurice Guenette — Arts

"Wise to resolve and patient to perform"

Maurice was born in Montreal on July 8, 1929, and it was there that he received his fundamentals. In 1951 he entered Senior Year at St. Dunstan's and has shown himself to be a conscientious student. Maurice's favorite sports are skiing and swimming and his favorite hobby, piano playing. Being a very intelligent person with a quiet, easy manner, we feel confident of his success in his chosen field, medicine. Bonne chance!

Emile Lucien Juneau — Arts

"Celui de qui la tete au ciel etait voisine, Et dont les pieds touchaient a l'Empire des Morts"

Born at Shawinigan Falls, P. Q., on October 29, 1929, Emile was educated at the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres. To broaden his education and know more English he came to St. Dunstan's in September 1951. His ready wit and friendly disposition have won him a lot of friends. He takes part in many sports; but he is particularly a hockey enthusiast, being one of our first team's outstanding players. We feel sure that Emile's natural perseverance will lead him to success in Medicine at Laval University. Best of luck, Emile.

David Walsh Kennedy — Arts

"On the stage he was natural, simple, affecting,
'Twas only that when he was off, he was acting."

Dave, who hails from Saint John, N. B., was born May 29, 1931. His early education was received at St. Peter's Boys' School and St. Vincent's Boys' High School whence he graduated in 1948. He entered S.D.U. that year and while here he has been a member of the basketball team for three years. He was President of the Dramatic Society in '50-'51 and '51-'52. His leading roles in dramatics were in "The Rosary", "Deep Are The Roots" and "Similin' Through". He plans to study law at U. N. B. for the next three years. Dave, may you find as many loyal friends as you had at St. Dunstan's.

Joseph Luc Roger Lamy — Arts

"Strong mind, great heart, true faith."

Roger was born at Louiseville in 1930. He entered Le Seminaire de Joliette before coming to St. Dunstan's in the fall of '51. Roger's desire was to acquire the English tongue. His never ceasing determination to work bears witness of a fine scholar. His pleasant personality and his cheerful vivacity has won him many friends. He plans to take up Commerce next year. The best to you in the future, Roger.

Pierre Andre Lapointe — Arts

"I have more understanding than all my teachers,
For thy testimonies are my meditations."

Andre was born at Quebec City on Sept. 14, 1930. After completing his Junior Year at the Seminaire de Quebec he had the good impulse to come to acquire a B.A. degree. Andre proved himself to be a good student. He was a member of the Red and White staff and also contributed greatly to its success. A cultured man he was; his interest in literature has been proved by his perpetual correspondence . . . Concerning his future, he intends to enter the Law School at Laval University, and there is no doubt that he will succeed.

Gilles Lebel — Arts

"Primum vivere, deinde philosophari."

Trois-Pistoles P. Q., became famous on January 26, 1931. Gilles was born. Blond haired and rosy-cheeked, he left for le College St. Laurent in Montreal. St. Dunstan's greeted him three years ago. Being a nice fellow, he knew how to make a number of friends around the campus . . . and outside. As a member of the C.O.T.C. contingent, he was a hard worker. That's why he chose the Dental school where he is going next year, and no doubt he will be a great tooth-drawer. From all of us Gilles, the best of luck.

Pauline Mary LeClair — Science

"Ye little stars! Hide your diminished rays!"

Born in Charlottetown on 26th June, 1931, Pauline's formal education began at St. Joseph's Convent in 1937. She entered P. W. C. in 1947, completed Third year in 1949, and entered St. Dunstan's as a Sophomore. Since then Pauline, with her friendly manner and cheerful smile, has won for herself many friends and our admiration. The good wishes of all go with her in her chosen career. Good luck, Pauline!

Amedee Paul Emile Lefebvre — Arts

"To scorn philosophy is truly to philosophize"

Born on July 25, 1932 at East Broughton, P.Q., Paul also completed most of his classical studies in his native province. His education has included six years at the College d'Amos at Amos, P. Q., and his Junior year at the Petit Seminaire de Quebec. As a member of this year's graduating class, Paul has impressed us by his easy friendly manner and his gentlemanly qualities. Next year he begins the study of medicine at Laval. All our best, Paul.

Aiden Francis MacDonald — Arts

"One eye of the master sees more than four of the servants."

Aiden came to St. Dunstan's in autumn, 1946 from Clear Springs where he was born on April 16, 1930. Before coming to St. Dunstan's Aiden received his primary education at Clear Springs and St. Peter's schools. During the six years with us, he has shown himself a capable student. His service in the C.O.T.C. has qualified him as a commissioned officer in the Reserve Army. Whatever future course he steers we wish him bon voyage and best wishes for success.

Mary Ellen Bethany MacDonald — Arts

"The rarest diamond has many facets"

Bethany was born in Charlottetown on November 8, 1930. She received her early education at St. Joseph's Convent and spent two years at P. W. C. before entering St. Dunstan's in 1948. Besides being a class leader, a music teacher, and a charming person, this very resourceful lady has won the highest esteem of audiences and adjudicators as an accomplished pianist. She now has her A.R.C.T. from the Toronto Conservatory and hopes to continue both her teaching and her studies after graduation. Good luck, Bethany, and may your future be as sparkling as your past.

David Clare MacDonald — Arts

"Of Manners gentle, of Affections mild,
In Wit a man; Simplicity a child."

Clare was born on February 11, 1930 in the teaming metropolis of Cardigan. After attending High School there he entered St. Dunstan's in 1946. Clare has always been a conscientious student and a fine sport. A member of the U.N.T.D. for two years, he is now eligible for a commission. His quiet, unassuming manner has won him the respect and admiration of others, and whatever his future may be, he will always carry our prayers and good wishes with him.

Dominic Francis MacDonald — Arts

"Here goes a man who meant well, tried a little, and failed much"

That I was born in Charlottetown on September 15, 1927, seems absolutely certain. I came to St. Dunstan's from Queen Square School in 1944 and have been here off and on ever since. My nickname "Sport" was justified only this year when I was invited to help teach basketball to the co-eds. Envy and vanity were my most besetting vices. As for virtues, if love for all the elements that make up St. Dunstan's is a virtue, then I have one. My most exciting days and nights were spent in the dormitory in my Senior Year. And although I have never given any indication of it, I have an ambition. I should like to be a saint.

Edwin Rupert MacDonald — Arts

"Justice, sir, is the greatest interest of man on earth."

Anything "Ed" might have said on November 3, 1928 has gone unrecorded. However, all the residents of Panmure Island claim that he caused quite a confusion in the MacDonald household. "Ed" was first introduced to the process of formal education in his home school district, and in the fall of '46 he entered St. Dunstan's. He took a very active interest in all student activities, and served on such committees as the I.S.S., the A.A.A. and the C.F.C.C.S. His personality, industry and talent assure him every success in all his future endeavors.

Everett St. Clair MacKinnon—Commerce

"Perseverance is the crown of life"

Born in Charlottetown July 25, 1921, "Teedy" received his early education at Queen Square School and then entered P. W. C. After completing first year he enlisted in the Army and served overseas until 1945. On his return, he worked for two years before continuing his education first at P. W. C. and then St. Dunstan's in 1949. He has been a capable student, but "Teedy" is first and foremost a family man with three lively little youngsters who take up his spare time. His many friends wish him success and happiness for the future.

Martin Augustine MacMillan — Arts

"Rightly to be great is not to stir without great argument"

"Quam", as we knew him best, was born at St. Peter's Bay November 11, 1930. After receiving his primary education at his local school he enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of '45. While at St. Dunstan's he took advantage of every opportunity to improve himself spiritually, academically, and athletically. His plans for the future are indefinite as yet, but whatever may be his chosen field, we wish him the best of everything.

William Murray McNeely — Arts

"A knightly man with lokkes crulle
He loveth truth and curteisye."

Since Bill came to our campus six years ago from Queen Square School, he has always been an asset to our College and for what it stands. Being an ardent worker for the I. S. S., he has served on the Committee, as vice-president and this year as President. The excellent management shown in this position, as well as that shown in his efforts as Football Manager and Canteen Manager, portrays a keen business mind and a willing worker. With his buoyant personality and zeal we know Bill will attain the success in life that we wish for him.

Mark McQuaid — Arts

"A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the wisest men."

Mark McQuaid, or "Pal", as he is familiarly known, was born in Alberton on January 25, 1928. Having received his primary education at Alberton and Kensington, he entered Grade X at St. Dunstan's in the fall of '45. Since then he has taken an active part in college activities, meriting an Athletic "D" in hockey and at various times he has held executive positions on the campus. He knows how to give and take a joke and as he leaves us we realize that our loss will be someone else's gain.

Warren Wallace MacRae — Science

"Anything worth having is worth working for."

Born in Charlottetown, "Warney" received his early education at W. K. S. and P. W. C. before coming to St. Dunstan's in 1950. He was a good student, and for the past two years has been a member of the senior hockey team. In addition to his student activities, he is a well known member of "Don Messer's Islanders", and last fall he became the third member of his class to join the ranks of the married men. We all take pride in wishing him every success in his future undertakings.

Claude Robert Marchand — Arts

"Work and worry have killed many a good man,
So why should I take a chance?"

Claude was born at La Tuque, P. Q., on June 17, 1932. He attended College de l'Assomption before he came to St. Dunstan's last fall to get his B. A. degree and also to further his knowledge of the English language. Though he has been here for one year only, Claude has proved himself to be a student endowed with more than average ability and his quiet good humor has won the friendship of all who know him. He leaves behind a host of friends who look ahead with confidence to his future achievements. Au revoir, Claude.

Jacques Raymond Marchand — Arts

"Le style, c'est l'homme."

Jacques was born at La Tuque, P. Q., in February, 1930. He was educated at Trois-Rivieres and Assomption Colleges. He came to S. D. U. to complete the Arts course and increase his knowledge of the Shakespearian language. Behind his friendly and quiet exterior, Jacques is a smart fellow and he has made many friends while here. He leaves with the best wishes of all, for success in his chosen field, Pharmacy, at Montreal University. Bonne chance, Jacques!

Yvon Michel Melancon — Arts

"Heureux qui, comme Ulysse, a fait un beau voyage . . ."

Yvon was born in Shawinigan Falls, P.Q., on December 18, 1929. He attended College de l'Assomption before he came to St. Dunstan's for his B. A. degree and to develop his English vocabulary. Yvon has been a worthy member of our college choir. His personality and keen sense of humor have won for him a host of friends who wish him the best of luck in his Industrial Relations Course he intends to take up at Montreal next year. Good luck, Yvon!

Stanislaus John Joseph Mooney — Arts

"Never elated when one man's oppress'd
Never dejected while another's bless'd."

As the sun kissed the crests of the hills in Iona on the morning of November 13, 1929, it danced an Irish jig to announce the joyful news of Stan's arrival. After completing his early education at Iona, he entered St. Dunstan's in September 1946. Since then he has amassed many loyal friends by his stirring qualities and natural wit. Stan has played a prominent part in many phases of college activity, as Secretary of the A. A. A. '50-'51, and as catcher and goaler for his class softball and hockey teams. We all join in asking God's blessings upon his promising future.

Philip Henry Murphy — Science

"The crown and glory of man is character,
It is the noblest possession of man."

Philip was born in Charlottetown on April 15, 1930. After graduating from Queen Square School he attended P. W. C. for two years before enrolling at St. Dunstan's in 1948. The greatest tribute we can pay Philip is to say that he is a true Christian gentleman. He was class president in his Senior Year and life vice-president of his class. Phil also played first team hockey for two years. To this fine student and sterling friend we wish God's choicest blessings.

Joseph Cody Myers — Arts

"May you live all the days of your life!"

Cody was born at New Glasgow, N. S., but came to P. E. I. a year later. Before coming to St. Dunstan's in '46 as a Grade XI student, he received his elementary education at St. Patrick's School. He has held several prominent positions here: Secretary, Glee Club, '48-'49; President, Dramatic Society, '50-'51; Secretary, Students' Union, '51-'52. His two years service with the C.O.T.C. has given him his commission in the Reserve Army. In Cody, St. Dunstan's loses a man with a quiet nature, a ready smile and many capabilities.

Joseph Nelson Perry — Arts

"Large was his bounty, and his soul sincere."

Nelson was born 19 years ago in St. Louis, P. E. I. He attended the local school there and finished High School at Tignish before entering St. Dunstan's in the fall of '47. His pleasant smile, his bilingual ability, and his earnestness in helping others won him a host of friends. On leaving St. Dunstan's to take up law, we all join in extending him the best of luck. Bon succes, Nelson.

John Henry Power — Arts

"A man of cheerful yesterdays and confident tomorrows"

John was born September 22, 1929 at Newton Cross, P. E. I. He there received his elementary education and aspiring to higher intellectual standards entered St. Dunstan's in 1945. His friendly manner and genial ways soon won for him the admiration and respect of all his classmates. He participated in all college and class activities and this year was president of his class Debating Society. As John leaves us, he possesses the characteristics and ideals of a Christian gentleman, and to him we say farewell and the best of luck.

Walter Basil Reid — Arts

"There is no true orator who is not a hero."

January 20, 1931 certainly holds a prominent place in the colorful history of Hope River, for it was on that day that the residents were awakened by the discordant howling of our friend, Wally. After obtaining his primary education at Stanley Bridge, Wally entered St. Dunstan's. He held the positions of vice-president of the A. A. A. in 1950-51, and President of the A.A.A. in 1951-52, and has been elected valedictorian by his class. However, the real triumph of his college career was his participation in the debate which won the Dominion Debating Championship for our Alma Mater. All the best, Wally.

James Leo Saunders — Science

"He was not merely a chip of the old block, but the old block himself."

Born in Kensington on September 14, 1929, Jim's debut on the stage of life was a howling success. He received his fundamentals at Kensington High School and in 1946 entered St. Dunstan's. While here Jim has been a Cadet Instructor for four years, Vice-president of the Dramatic Society, in '51, Assistant Business Manager of Red and White the same year, and Business Manager in '52. Along with these duties he has still found time for sports, dramatics, Glee Club activities, choral singing, and has a decided capacity for winning friends. Jim plans to study Medicine at McGill next year and we know that he will be as successful there as he has been among us.

Jean Luc Trudel — Arts

"Born for success, he seemed,
With a grace to win, with heart to hold,
With shining gifts that look all eyes."

Luc was born at Shawinigan Falls in the year 1931. He left the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres last year to become a worthy member of the St. Dunstan's Senior class. His intentions were to increase his knowledge of the English language and obtain a B. A. degree. His manners and his friendship were greatly appreciated by his class-mates who saw in him the example of the chosen few. Next year Luc intends to join the medical school at Laval University. All your friends wish you the best of luck in the world which is waiting for you.

Louis Thomas Andre Villeneuve — Arts

"The exterior reflects the interior"

Andre was born in Quebec City in 1932. His early years were spent at Saint Louis de Gonzague school. Then in 1944 he entered the Seminaire de Quebec and studied for seven years there before he came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of '51. Andre always puts in practice the famous Latin motto: Mens sana in corpore sano. His systematic way of living will certainly help him in Commercial Law, his future career. Ce n'est qu'un au revoir, oui, nous nous reverons.

BOOK REVIEWS

FABIOLA

by

Cardinal Wiseman retold by Eddie Doherty

New York P. J. Kenedy & Sons 1951 (311 pp.)

History has revealed and all realize that Persecution is a sign of advance of the Faith. Fabiola is the story of such advance during the reign of the Roman Emperor Diocletian—advance which was dearly bought with the lives of Christian martyrs, many of whom like St. Agnes and St. Sebastian we honor on our altars today but most of whom we know only by the result of their efforts.

Interwoven in the story of this persecution is another story, that of a young Roman debutante who, though not a Christian, does not succumb to the immorality and cor-
