

Four Honored For Administrative Work

For the first time in history the Students' Union has awarded three gold "D's" and one silver "D" to four graduating seniors for their valuable contributions in administrative work to the students at S.D.U. during their undergraduate years.

Based on a points system graded according to the importance of executive positions, a gold D is awarded to male students who have accumulated 1,000 points or more, and a silver D to co-eds having from 600 to 800 points.

Recipients of gold awards are William A. Dolan, James MacAuley, and Daniel O'Hanley, while the silver award goes to Frances MacDougall.

Bill "Bronco" Dolan, from Brooklyn, N.Y., worked with RED and WHITE for two years, first as Business Manager and later as Editor-in-

Mike New N.F.C.U.S. Boss

Mr. Michael Lane, Junior Science, was recently elected Chairman of the NFCUS committee for 62-63 in succession to outgoing chairman Desmond Duffy.

According to Mike, the NF CUS committee is presently considering taking a mandate on discounts for College students. The group is also studying methods taken by other colleges in carrying out this program, and questionnaires for this purpose will soon be sent to them. Under consideration are the effects which the proposed student rates will have on students and local businessmen. Mike feels this project should create renewed interest in the activities of NF CUS.

his administrative ability, Bill also went out into the field, playing Varsity football this year (winning the cleanest player award), and winning an inter-Collegiate debate last year against St. F.X.

Bill plans to pursue medical studies next fall either at Dalhousie or at the University of Ottawa.

on, Prefect of the Sodality, life secretary of the Senior Class — all add up to service with a capital "S". These comprise some of the activities in which silver award winner Fran MacDougall participated during her four years at S.D.U.

Fran, who was born on the island maintains that the time spent in these extra-curricular activities was the most valuable part of her college years, satisfaction-wise.

Among the other activities in which she took part (secretary of the P.C. Club, secretary of the Junior Class Committee), Fran values her position as Prefect of the Sodality most. This has played an important part in her life, and she feels it is an invaluable asset in the life of all Catholic College women.

Fran's immediate plans for the future are for a teaching position in a High School on the Island.

Mr. James MacAuley

Jim "Squeaks" MacAuley, a native of St. Peter's Bay, P.E.I., earned his administrative "D" mainly in the realm of sports. Jim first became a member of the A.A.A. Council in 58-59 as manager of the Varsity hockey team. The following year, he managed the Varsity football team as well as the intramural. In 60-61, he was elected vice-president of the A.A.A. and retained his seat on the executive this year as A.A.A. president. During his undergraduate years, Jim has taken a very keen interest in promoting sports on campus, and in leaving, he encourages students to take a greater participation in sport activities, especially in the intra-murals. Jim plans to teach at Morell next fall.

Dear Editor

I wish to apologize sincerely for being a Senior. Everyone is down on me for it. But, I couldn't help it. It is the accident of four years in attendance at university (that is, under usual circumstances). I can't understand all the meaningless inversion of the proper order of things that denounces one for becoming what was expected of him. May I suggest a solution to this dilemma. Why not forgo the name Senior and call upper class Junior class No. 1 and Junior class No. 2 This would eradicate the embarrassment of being associated with an elite, especially when this draws the ire of proletarian elements who seek the academic utopia of a classless society.

Distraught Senior

GOOD BYE WITH TEARS

A last will and testament of the departed usually brings much anticipation on the part of the claimants and hopeful heirs.

The senior class, knowing fully well that their talents were envied by the deprived lower classes feel an obligation to better the lot of these uninitiated and bring an end to the anticipation.

In the field of music, Dan O'Hanley leaves his "Loveliest Night of the Year" to Father Cameron's High School Choir. Virginia McDougall leaves her singing ability and short hair to Peggy. Willie Dolan would like to give lessons on how to sing "One an-a-two an-a-three" to any admirer.

In sports, Mike Hawrylak leaves his dippy-doodle style to the would-be buzzers of the intramural. Hughes hopes that McLean might have got a few tips on how to play defense. To those who would need more arms rather than a stick, apply to Don McMillan.

Turning to science, Jack

Noonan bequeathes his lab book to Sudsie. On the science of love, Creighan would like to show Gerry McFarlane "how to go steady." DesRoches leaves his math book to his Junior classmates.

Guitar-pickers Gauthier, Duffy and Quinn leave their talents to the pea-pickin' sophomores.

Curran and car leave many broken hearts on the road by M.C.

Crash and Norm leave the bowling alleys and trophies to those who will take charge in the future.

Benson bequeathes his logical oratory to the new editor of Red and White.

Ambrose is unable to leave the Brace since he owns too large a share in it at present.

Gerry Giddings leaves city girls for the belles of Summerside.

Gavin will "donate" the little golden hoop to a neighbor of the roll-away.

Morrison leaves his laundry business to the highest bidder; only co-eds may apply!

Sexton leaves others a chance for telephone-romances.

Frenchie leaves the honor of possessing a genuine picture of the first president of the National State of Quebec to Paul Gelinas.

Brazel bequeathes his capacity for spirits to the dry Junior rabble.

Fisher departs from the city hospital and switches to the Victoria General in Halifax to give underlings a chance.

Stella leaves for Hamilton, Ontario, where another prominent Islander will form a "closed shop".

McMillan leaves Hudson's Bay Co., to the Eskimo co-operative society.

Sherry leaves "sherry" to the Foreign Missions.

Herewith exalted Seniors enrich the poor world.

Largest Graduation Class Ever

Fifty-six candidates will be eligible for degrees this year. If all are successful this will be the largest Graduation Class ever at S.D.U. Of this number, thirty are candidates for the Bachelor of Arts, nineteen for the Bachelor of Science, and seven for Bachelor of Commerce.

Once again the boys will outnumber the girls, this time by 7 to 1 (forty-nine boys to seven girls).

Thirteen of the candidates will also be eligible for honors. Provided they all maintain their averages in the finals, this number will also represent the highest number of "Honours" graduates in one year at S.D.U.
