

The Funny Man

DEFINITIONS.

Scepticism—The doctrine of the Junior Philosophers who claim they know nothing with certainty.

Gravitation—That of which if there were none we should fly away.

Matchless Misery—Having a good cigar with no match to light it.

Algebra—The wife of Euclid.

---

The difference between a postage stamp and a donkey is this :—

You stick the former with a lick ; it stays.

You lick the latter with a stick ; it brays.

---

Bill—The most conspicuous thing about her is her naivete.

Vinc—Yes ! I wonder what made her get such a tight one.

---

EASY.

Yank—What is the latest thing in weddings ?

Dan—Generally the bride.

---

PROGRAMME.

College Assembly Hall April 1st.

1. Third dancing exercise.....Ivan Walsh
2. Wings sideways stretch .....Mr. Blue Jay
- 3 Cornet Solo..... Ed. Kelly

“We are all jolly good fellows.”

Mr. McCabe accompanist.

---

Wendell—What racket is that in the next room ?

Frank—Only McCabe taking his music lesson.

---

The Captain of the Prefects has now ready for publication his latest work “How to play hockey” with illustrations by Greene.

McAdam says he has located Silver on the second floor and Sammy claims he knows where he can lay his hands on Steel, so cheer up boys, the Association will come out all right.

---

Finol—(Last September) I saw a man pulling up the river.

Tom—Gee! I pulled up a shark once and worked darn hard to do it too.

---

Prof. of Physics (Jr) A dyne is a force which will move a gram-mass one centimetre in a second.

Bucler—Explain it in English now please.

---

Brad—I gave up smoking through fear of hurting my heart.

Fred—I gave up Florrie for the same reason.

---

Emmet doesn't have to play hockey to find the "net"

---

Recently Mr. Finol hung his overcoat in Mack's room and went out doors. During his absence one of the dozen students there drew on the coat a picture of a donkey. On his return Finol asked: "Which of you fellows wiped his face on my coat?"

---

Prof. (in Greek)—Give principal parts of "Bino."

Heck—"Bino," "Ebisa," "A bicycle."

---

Heck—(Feb., 22.) What are the Americans wearing these hatchets for?

Austy—Why! they are the descendants of the Algonquins.

---

One of the students is said to have said that he would like to have S. D. C. choir sing at his funeral so that everybody would be sorry he died.

---

"Now I will give you an example of the Juris—Jurandi—prudence of the State of Oregon."

---

The member from Moncton has won the distinguished title "Silver tongued orator."

---

Odd pieces in this department slightly damaged cheap.
Apply at the Censor's Bureau.