

ALUMNI

The editor of this department earnestly entreats the alumni to give their much needed aid to our magazine. Each subscription or advertisement from you will manifest your interest in us and will go far towards making Red and White a better magazine.

Mr. Fred Steele, who last year so successfully coached our hockey team, is studying dentistry at Baltimore Dental College.

The following students of last year have decided to go on to the priest-hood: Urban Gillis, Walter McGuigan, Merlin McCarthy, Peter Sullivan, and Louis McDonald at the Grand Seminary, Quebec; Harry Osborne at the Holy Heart Seminary, Halifax; and Paul Hughes at St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto. We wish them every success in their noble undertaking.

Messrs. Charles Jenkins and St. Clair Smith, both students of last year, are studying medicine at Dalhousie University, Halifax.

We are pleased to know that Mr. Edmund Doyle, who last year was forced to discontinue his studies because of illness, has completely recovered. He has gone to Boston to spend the winter.

Mr. Sylvere DesRoches, B. A., a member of last year's graduating class and editor-in-chief of the Red and White, is now inspector of schools in place of Marin Gallant who has retired. Red and White wishes him success in his new work.

Mr. Bertram Walsh, B. A., also a graduate of last year, is principal of the Ritchie High School, Sask.

Messrs. John Smith and Reginald McKinnon are studying dentistry at Harvard Dental College, Boston, Mass.

Rev. Alphonsus Sinnott '18, who has recently been ordained, is now on the teaching staff of the University.

Mr. William McDonald, B. A. has accepted the position as teacher in Prince of Wales College. "Billie Archie," who was a distinguished member of last year's football team was this year instrumental in raising the P. W. C. team to a degree of proficiency seldom if ever before attained by that college.

Mr. Patrick Goodwin, who was on the editorial staff of Red and White last year, is progressing favorably after his late illness.

Mr. William Monaghan '24 is now engaged in teaching at Spruce Lake, Saskatchewan.

Mr. Harry Hooper is studying dentistry at Tufts Dental College, Boston.

Red and White wishes to extend heartfelt sympathy to Messrs. Joseph and Jerome Fay on the recent death of their father, and to Roland Henry on the death of his mother. May their souls rest in peace.

Messrs. Gregory Gallant, Frank Campbell and William Zaib, all of whom graduated last year, are at present engaged in teaching on P. E. I. We hope that they will meet with success in their pedagogical career.

Mr. Frank McKenna '14 is teaching school in Lethbridge, Alta.

In June of last year, Rev. P. F. Hughes departed from his dear St. Dunstan's, the scene of his labor for seven years. He was loved here as a teacher and a kind spiritual father. He has gone to Edmunton, where he is followed by the best wishes of the student body of St. Dunstan's.

Rev. Father Melledy who is now attached to the cathedral staff of Helena, Montana, recently visited St. Dunstan's. His smiling countenance brought cheer to old S. D. U. It is a real treat to have a visit from Father Melledy. The Student's wish that he will see fit to come and remain with us. He writes that he has had a very pleasant vacation, and that he enjoys being on the Island.
