

THE FUNNY MAN

OUTCLASSED

Joe : Did she come to the door when you serenaded her with your violin ?

Pat : No, but another fellow came along and brought her out with an auto horn.

WHY THEY DO IT

1st Fresh : I heard Tet, say before the game that he was all run down.

2nd Fresh : Yes I saw him winding up.

Prof : What do you know about Ceres ?

Polar : Do you mean the World Series ?

Jack : Could you make a living writing ?

Glen : Yes, writing father.

Prof. : Give a good example of alliteration.

Fitz : Ching's cold cider costs colder cash.

Prof. in English : Willie, have you read Lamb's Tales ?

Willie : You can't fool me, dere ain't no red lambs.

Beaton : I'm going to be a soldier and carry a big drum.

Buts : And when you see the enemy you'll beat it.

Owen : I'm trying to raise a mustache, what color will it be when it comes out ?

Ray : Gray, at the rate its growing.

Prof: A fool can ask more questions than a wise man can answer.

Student: No wonder so many of us fail in our exams.

Creamer: I'm going to the play tonight.

Aneas: What is on?

Creamer: The adventures of Kathleen.

Ray: As you sow so shall you reap.

Alec: How about sewing on buttons.

Warrie: Boys like to make their mark.

McGuigan: And girls like to make Mark theirs.

Have more than thou showest,
Speak less than thou knowest,
Lend less than thou owest,
Ride more than thou goest,
Learn more than thou trowest,
Set less than thou throwest.

Old books, as you know, are books of the world's youth, and new books are fruits of its age.

He who receives a good turn should never forget it; he who does one should never remember it.
