

HOCKEY SAINTS 5-1 AT CHRISTMAS

JACK KANE

After humbling both Mt. Allison and Moncton last weekend, the Red and White hockey squad can claim a record of 5-1 as it breaks up for the Christmas break. The only defeat came at the hands of a strong Acadia club two weeks ago in Wolfville.

After strong preseason performances against the Junior Islanders and Dal., and two equally impressive victories over the Memorial University Beothucks in league play, the Saints ran into a spirited, hard-hitting Acadia club.

The Saints played poor positional hockey and were unable to consistently penetrate Acadia's defense, led by Ken Brown and Bobby Ring. The Island crew were hampered by numerous first period penalties and were never able to get untracked against the Axemen.

After each club scored once in the first session, the Saints played their skating brand of hockey for the only time in the contest. Unfortunately this only lasted for a period of ten minutes, but during this time they beat Ring twice to takt a 3-1 lead. The Axemen came right back and scored twice in the second period and fired home three more unanswered goals in the final frame, to win it 6-3.

The Saints didn't look much better the following day against a weak Dal. club. The Saints easily tamed the Tigers 8-4, but weren't very impressive in doing so. St. Dunstan's took a quick 4-0 lead, and the outcome was never in doubt, but it was a sloppy, unexciting game.

Whatever Jack Kane did the following week in practice worked, because the following weekend his forces looked like the class of the league as they had little trouble with highly rated Mt. A. and Moncton.

The Hawks came into the game flying high, coming off an impressive upset of the defending champs the weekend before, 6-3. It didn't take long for the Saints to shoot down the Hawks as they fired home four second period goals after leading 2-1 after the first session. Five more goals in the third frame made it 11-2.

Two days later, the Moncton Blue Eagles flew into town and their fate was the same as Mike Brown registered his first shutout 6-0. The Eagles were also coming off an upset of St. F.X. and were highly regarded as playoff contenders.

After a scoreless first period, the Saints fired home five second period goals and added a single in the third. Moncton had previously fired 53 shots on the St. Mary netminder but the low flying birds were held to a mere 14 shots on Brown while the Eagles, Paul Raymond was the target of 57 shots. This is just an indication of the performance put on by the S.D.U. blueline contingent.

It seems unlikely that the Saints will taste defeat if they can continue to play like this.

HOCKEY TEAM IMPRESSIVE

The hockey team put on quite a display last weekend. If they can continue to play like that they should be able to walk right through this league. The play of the defensemen has been superb. They've been hitting, and muffling nearly all scoring opportunities. McQuaid and Brown are liable to fall asleep on the job. Affleck, Carson and friends really destroyed Mt. A. physically: final tally reveals the Mounties suffered a broken wrist, a fractured collarbone, a separated shoulder, a twenty stitch facial wound and a goaltender with a badly messed up knee . . . Jack Kane's crew is being given very serious consideration for one of the three spots in Loyola's Christmas tournament. The field of hopefuls has been narrowed down to six candidates. If it weren't for the loss to Acadia, it would have been a sure thing . . . How did Moncton ever get 53 shots on goal against St. Mary's? Isn't St. Mary's supposed to be the terror of the league . . . Jack Kane is trying to line up some exhibition games for this weekend.

Sorry if there aren't any pictures on this page; the high gods of the Red and White don't feel as though all that money should be spent on foolish sports pictures. It doesn't really matter. Most of the pictures submitted are usually deleted along with a good part of the other material, to make room for the important ads which can't find any place else to hide.

The basketball team looked terrible in their first league appearance. The Saints shot well, they just weren't getting any shots, due to far too many turnovers. Time after time they gave the ball away without a shot at the hoop. Meanwhile at the other end of the court they proved that they can't play man to man defense. There are only two guys on the team who've showed that they can play good defense, and they can be used to much better advantage in a zone defense where they can cover up on a teammates mistake. With a zone, Fitz will always be in position for a rebound, and not down the other end of the court covering his man . . . Coach Hilton's got two games on tap for his warriors this weekend. They play the Fredericton Capitals tomorrow night at 8 o'clock and Sunday at 2 o'clock. The Caps have one of the strongest teams in the Maritimes. They recently defeated a strong Dalhousie ball club two in a row. The Caps feature a 6'8" center who played his college ball at Texas A & M, so Fitzie and company should get quite a workout. It will be interesting . . . The Zepthers of the B.R.C. league will do battle with Len Sirois' Colonel Grey squad in the preliminary tentatively scheduled for 6 o'clock. The Zepthers will call on Owen Jay, Paul McGuire, Leon Berrouard, and Norby Bartholomew to lead the way . . . What's the story on intramurals this year? Basketball is so completely messed up this year, that we foresee the demise of the league before the year is out. Last year ineterest in the league reached an all time high, but this year we can't even use the gym. Congratulations Vince . . . Congratulations also go out to whoever is responsible for messing up the hockey programs. It has been nearly impossible to get any ice time this year, and when it is available it is usually late at night. Last Tuesday night the Juniors were to face off against the Seniors in an intramural game. All of the participants arrived only to discover that the rink had been rented out for that time slot. It seems to us that the primary purpose of a rink is to give the students an opportunity to use it. Likewise a gymnasium is for basketball, not for the drama society or the glee club.

Basketballers Beaten By Hawks

ED HILTON

Ed Hilton's basketball Saints opened their M.I.B.L. season with a very disappointing loss at the hands of the Mount Allison Hawks, in Sackville 62-61.

The loss came as quite a shock, as the Saints were to be possible contenders for the league crown.

The Hawks combined good shooting and a ball control offense to upset the Red and White quintet. The outside shooting of guards Dave Wood and Ken Evans paved the way for the winners.

The Saints led at the half 33-24, after enjoying leads of ten & twelve points throughout the half. It seemed only a matter of time before the Saints would get untracked, in this their first game, and blow the game wide open.

With five minutes gone in the second half the Mounties, who already have three league games under their belt, began to chip away at the S.D.U. lead and they finally caught the Islanders midway through the session. The Hawks took a five point lead with five minutes to play 55-50, but the Saints were able to knot the count at 60-60 with 58 seconds to play. Jim Fitzgerald put the Red and White in front with a free throw with 45 seconds remaining, and the Saints attempted to kill the clock, but Evans picked off an errant pass and was fouled by Joe Sullivan.

Evans proved to be the hometown hero as he sank both attempts from the charity stripe to win it.

Evans was the high man for the Hawks with 23 while Wood flipped in 15.

Jim Fitzgerald was superb in defeat as he pumped in 32 and hauled down 19 rebounds. Mike Sullivan and John White each added 12.
