ATHLETICS

ATHLETICS

Athletics, from the most primitive times, has been looked upon as a most necessary factor in fitting a man for his career as a true citizen. It is an indispensable phase of practical and complete education and was early recognized as such by the Greeks who instituted the great yearly games, the Olmypics, which still survive today, to be played, where the flower of the athletes in the country gather to contest the coveted honors. They clearly saw the necessity of athletics in building up a strong, sane and temperate nation and accordingly gave it the highest place in education. Neither their prowess as soldiers, their culture, nor their philosophy of life have been surpassed to this day, and we cannot read their annals without feeling for them the greatest sympathy and respect, both as individuals in private life and as a nation. Athletics builds up and instills sound principles in those who take part, gives a man invaluable qualities and virtues; for in his various games, either as victor or vanquished, he learns to understand and appreciate a great principle, which will unerringly guide him through the vicissitudes of the greater game of life: "To play up ! play up ! and play the game."

Football

At the beginning of the season the future of the two senior teams was anything but promising. Many of our veterans had graduated, and many more did not return, leaving the ranks considerably thinned and gapped. But Fathers McGuigan and McDonald resolutely began to fill those gaps with new players. Since our team was light, passing and endurance was the watchword, and both teams and coaches co-operated to a man and settled down to the gruelling work of whipping the players into tip top shape. Their efforts were not in vain, for against their ancient foes the Abbies, who had both weight and experience on their side, they maintained the traditions of S. D. U. gridiron prowess, and retained the Island title as testimony of their skill.

Our second team did not fare so well when they locked horns with the P. W. C. squad, the latter winning by one game. The contest was very close, however, and each game so stubbornly fought, that our second team need not be down-hearted for they put up a wonderful fight and after all, that is what really counts. To quote Kipling:

"It counts not that you won or lost,
But how you played the game."

SAINTS—3

On October 10th, the football season opened with an exhibition game, in which both teams felt out their opponents and discovered their weak points. All things considered, the game was a good exhibition of football; the RED and BLACK squad, composed of heavy and experienced players, the RED and WHITE, light, with several players making their debut in senior football, but working in unison and determined to win. The Saints kicked off and rapidly forced the Abbies within their own twenty-five yard line, where they kept them bottled up during practically the whole game. They couldn't score however, because the husky RED and BLACK forwards overcame them by sheer weight. At last the ball broke clear, and Partridge with McIsaac dribbled the ball over the Saints' line for a try, converted by Saunders. Then the Saints began to batter the Abbie line for an opening, which they found, when Frank McMillan plunged over for a well earned try, which went unconverted. The game ended with the Saints fighting desperately for a winning try.

S. D. U. lineup:

Fullback, J. O'Connor; Halves, F. McMillan, J. Coyle, (Capt.), A. McGuigan; Quarters, J. Doyle, A. McNally, L. Duffy, R. Arsenault; Forwards, C. McNally, J. Trainor, A. McDonald, J. Horgan, R. Hennebery, W. Shea, S. McLellan.

Abbies lineup:

Fullback, Hunter; Quarters, Duffy, Saunders, Gormley, Halves, Partridge, J. Connolly, Ryan; Forwards, Darrach, Shaw, McIsaac, L. Connolly, Hudson, Woolner, Ayres, Hillier, Fitzgerald. Referee—St. Clair Trainor.

The first league game took place Oct. 22nd and, under ideal conditions, was an ideal game. Hectic from the opening to the concluding whistle, the game left little to be desired so far as football was concerned, except a few fumbles. The Saints, working together and in better condition, forced their weightier and perhaps individually better rivals every moment, but were forced themselves to tackle hard and frequently to stop the RED and BLACK from breaking through.

In the opening canto the Abbies started a kicking game which netted them little territory, and the battle waged back and forth almost at the center of the field. On the Abbie forty-yard line the Saints were given a penalty kick, which resulted in the first tally, when Frank McMillan made the prettiest kick seen here for years, to split the uprights almost at dead center. The Abbies surged forward in great RED and BLACK waves and beat upon the Saints' defences only to be rolled back. In the first minute of the second period the Saints again scored, when a fumble on the part of an Abbie quarter gave Duffy an opportunity of which he took immediate advantage who, in a burst of speed scooped up the ball, flashed past his astonished opponents to plant the pig-skin behind the bars in true gridiron style for a try that went unconverted. The Abbies then desperately and irresistibly fought their way to the Saints' five yard line; there a scrum ensued, and the ball coming out the Abbie side, was quickly snatched up by Hunter, their dexterous little quarter who slithered over for a try, unconverted. Both teams now fought with might and main without result for the score stood 6 to 3 at the concluding whistle.

Saints lineup:

Fullback, J. O'Connor; Halves, F. McMillan, J. Coyle, (Capt.), A. McGuigan; Quarters, J. Doyle, L. Duffy, C. McNally, Arsenault; Forwards, A. McNally, J. Trainor, A. McDonald, J. Horgan, R. Hennebery, W. Shea, S. McLellan.

Abbies lineup:

Fullback, O'Neill; Quarters, Larter, Duffy, Heath, Saunders; Halves, Partridge, Hunter, Connolly, Forwards, Fitzgerald, Hillier, Ayres, Shaw, Woolner, Kennedy, McIsaac.

ACADIA—19

This year the Saints travelled farther afield and engaged a mainland team, the husky fifteen of Acadia, picked as winners of the Maritime Title.

In the first half the Saints, outweighed thirty pounds to a man and bucking against all the gridiron technique and dexterity a well coached team could and should have, put up a good showing, and by low and wicked tackles held their heavier opponents to one converted try. But the strain was too great for the RED and WHITES, who, tired from the trip and on a strange field, weakened under a terrific onslaught in the second half and were forced to an ineffectual defensive game ending in 19 to nil.

St. Dunstans lineup:

Fullback, J. O'Connor; three-quarters, L. Duffy, A. McNally, R. Arsenault, J. Doyle; Halves, F. McMillan, J. Coyle, A. McGuigan; forwards, J. Trainor, C. McNally, A. MacDonald, R. Hennebery, W. Shea, J. Horgan, S. McLellan.

Acadia lineup:

Fullback, Tedford; three-quarters, Boutilier, Goudey, Fountain, Shaw; Halves, Ralston, Wilson, Foote; Forwards, Sanford, Unruh, McNair, Porter, Anderson, Gunter, Haney.

ABBIES—0

The second and final league game took place Nov. 11th. and was one of the most gruelling in years. The Saints faced a rejuvenated and determined team, who were out for blood. From the kick-off, both teams threw themselves precipitously into the fray; scrums were frequent, interspersed with lightning runs, and hard, vicious, tackles. The Saints were forced to their five yard line and a sure try was more than once averted by a timely kick. The RED and WHITE all the while kept up a running attack on the Abbies and endeavored to keep the ball always in play. The first half ended scoreless. The second half was a mate of the first; both teams working hard, fighting and contesting every inch, had the fans constantly on their toes as they followed the play with breathless interest. In the scrum the Abbies controlled the ball, but fast following up, coupled with hard tackles, rendered this advantage useless. This deadlock continued to the last minute of the play, when the Saints were awarded a penalty kick about thirty-five yards from the bars. The ball was given to McMillan, our quarter with the educated boot, who amid a breathless hush duplicated his feat of the previous game, giving the Saints by the small margin of a penalty kick the game, series, and title for 1932 of which, considering the obstacles and handicaps, they might well be proud.

St. Dunstan's lineup:

Fullback, J. O'Connor; Halves, F. McMillan, J. Coyle; (Capt.), A. McGuigan; Quarters, L. Duffy, R. Arsenault, A. McNally, J. Doyle; Forwards, J. Trainor, C. McNally, A. McDonald, J. Horgan, R. Hennebery, W. Shea, S. McLellan.

Abbies lineup:

Fullback, O'Neill; Quarters, Peters, Larter, Partidge, Hunter; Halves, Curry, Duffy, Connolly; Forwards, Heath, Fitzgerald, Ayres, Shaw, Kennedy, McIsaac.

The first mixup between the two college teams took place Oct. 19th, in which the Saints came out at the short end to the tune of 6 to nil. The game was essentially a forwards game although good runs and many substantial gains were made by the back fields. The Saints' scrum had control of the ball, but this was nullified by the fast breaking wings of their opponents' formation. The play weaved back and forth till a break came which was immediately taken advantage of by Gaudet, husky BLUE and RED forward, who pierced the Saints' defences for a try, unconverted. The RED and WHITE aggregate forced their opponents the rest of the period and threatened momentarily to score. In the second canto of the fracas the Saints were at first driven back, but rallying, drove their aggressors within their own line and there began a systematic hammering, to force an opening, but costly fumbles soon brought them back again to the defensive, where following a kick, Owen swelled the RED and BLUE total with another unconverted try. Undismayed the Saints launched offensive after offensive, but could not surmount the P. W. C. barriers, thus leaving the final score 6 to nil.

P. W. C. lineup:

Fullback, Art Malley; Three Quarters, Jack Chandler, Al Rogers (Capt.), Mait. Owen, Bill Partridge; Halves, Jack Ritchie, Bunk Fitzgerald, Al Gaudet; Forwards, Stuart Ives, Ken Birtwistle, Eric Robin, Tom Johnson, Hal Gaudet, Lem Prowse, Niall Burnett.

S. D. U. lineup:

Fullback, J. MacDonald; Three Quarters, F. Gaudet, J. A. MacDonald, G. Sullivan, H. Buote; Halves, N. Trites, S. Gillis, G. McKinnon; Forwards, V. McGillivray, G. McKinnon, H. Beaudet, L. MacDonald, F. Dunn, F. O'Donnell, K. MacMillan.

In the second game with their rivals on Nov. 7th, the Saints fared better, and came out the winners by the scant margin of a convert. Both teams had considerably improved and put up a fight well worth viewing. The first half developed at times into a kicking duel, and produced the only two tallies of the game; the first was a beautiful kick made by Owen negotiated on a penalty for the city team, the second for the Saints by Steve Gillis who, snaring the ball as it shot from the scrum, sped over the P. W. C. line before his opponents realized what had happened. The second half saw the Saints forced by the BLUE and RED forwards, who now assumed the role of invaders and camped uncomfortably near the Saints' line, till the situation was relieved by judicious kicking. Our half line seemed to have forgotten their judgement and tried to carry the ball instead of booting it, and so kept the ball almost continuously within their line as they were smothered by the P. W. C. forwards. Nevertheless, the S. D. U. lines were so stoutly defended, that try as they would the BLUE and RED fifteen were unable to negotiate a deciding tally.

S. D. U. lineup:

Fullback, J. MacDonald; Three Quarters, H. Buote, G. Sullivan, F. Gaudet, J. MacDonald; Halves, S. Gillis, G. McKinnon, N. Trites; Forwards, V. McGillivray, G. McKinnon, (Capt.), H. Beaudet, H. MacDonald, F. Dunn, F. O'Donnell, F. MacMillan.

P. W. C. lineup:

Fullback, A. Malley; Three Quarters, B. Partridge, M. Owen, A. Rogers, J. Chandler; Halves, J. Ritchie, B. Fitzgerald, Leightizer; Forwards, T. Johnson, H. Gaudet, Storey, L. Prowse, K. Birtwistle, E. Robin, S. Ives.

The deciding game was played Thursday, Nov. 10th, in which the Saints lost the intercollegiate title by a single tally. The game was the best of the three and smacked of action from start to finish. P. W. C. scored in the first half when A. Malley carried the ball from his thirty-five yard line to pass to Rogers, who relayed it to Owen, the latter gaining the try. In the main the Saints forced the play and kept the BLUE and RED collegians in hot water most of the time, who were saved only by timely kicks. Both teams worked well and put up a very good fight indeed. The second half witnessed the Saints as completely dominant, keeping the play always in the city boys terrain, where fierce melees marked the resting place of the ball. Dunn broke out of one such melee and carried the ball over, but the try was disallowed. The Saints tried several kicks at the bar, but to no avail. In the dying moments of the game the Saints strove furiously against time to turn defeat into victory and to retain the title, but failed by a hair's breath for the terminating whistle saw them forcing, ever forcing the P. W. C. defence.

S. D. U. lineup:

Fullback, J. MacDonald; Three Quarters, H. Buote, G. Sullivan, F. Gaudet, J. MacDonald; Halves, S. Gillis, G. MacKinnon, N. Trites; Forwards, V. McGillivray, G. MacKinnon, (Capt.), H. Beaudet, L. MacDonald, F. O'Donnell, K. MacMillan.

P. W. C. lineup:

Fullback, A. Malley; Three Quarters, B. Partridge, M. Owen, A. Rogers, J. Chandler; Halves, J. Ritchie, B. Fitzgerald, Leightizer; Forwards, T. Johnson, H. Gaudet, Storey, L. Prowse, K. Birtwistle, E. Robin, S. Ives.

Referee—G. Partridge.

Our third team also ventured forth this year against second P. W. C. to lose a hard fought game by a convert.

The third team worked surprisingly well and manifested a co-operation, which was truly remarkable, considering the few times they had worked together. Both teams worked hard and put just as much spirit and heart into the game as did the senior players, and both teams deserve our unrestrained praise for the fine exhibition of football shown. P. W. C. scored in the first minute of the second half, when in a mix-up near our team's line Billy Brown received a pass and placed the oval between the bars for a try, which was easily converted; the Saints later in the period scored, when Ted Butler battered and elbowed through the opposing forwards for a try, unconverted as the angle was very difficult. The game ended leaving P. W. C. in possession of the laurels.

Intramural

The usual intramural league was drawn up this year, comprising three teams: the Iroquois, Sioux and Hurons, captained by E. Baldwin, G. McLellan and E. Doucette. Though, owing to a lesser attendance, only three teams could be formed, a marked increase in enthusiasm and interest was shown, and this caused the majority of the games to be keenly contested. The brand of football played this year by each team was considerably superior to that of last year and this skill, if it keeps up, will in the course of a year or so produce a host of new footballists to make a crack S. D. U. senior team. Captain Baldwin carried off the honors this year by winning both sections, though hotly pursued by Captain Doucette and his team.

Lineup:—Quarters: R. McLean, V. Connolly, J. Lewis, B. Cote; Halves, T. Butler, D. Mullin, C. Delaney; Forwards, E. Baldwin (Capt.), M. Redmond, L. Ayers, P. Smith, F. Keefe, H. McKinnon, J. Curran.

Field Day

The annual Field Day took place September 27, and, blessed with a beautiful autumn day, was successful in every phase. The track and field schedule was participated in in a keener manner this year, and more rivalry in the different events was shown, although the junior events might have had more entries. There was a little more training this year, but still not enough. We cannot insist too strongly upon strenuous preparation and good condition, if real, lively competition is to be expected. In the various jumps much new, and perhaps latent talent was unearthed, auguring some really good athletes to represent St. Dunstan's in the near future. In the evening the distribution of prizes took place along with a most entertaining program, which the student body heartily enjoyed and appreciated. The prizes were donated by Charlottetown Merchants to whom we extend our sincere thanks for their kindly interest and generosity.
