

Our Alumni

Patrick Murphy, B. A., is teaching school in Sask.

Gavan Monaghan, B. A., has entered the Grand Seminary, Quebec.

Geo. McCabe B. A., is studying theology at St. Augustine Seminary, Toronto.

Patrick McQuaid is also at St. Augustine's.

Andre Arsenault is also pursuing his studies at Grand Seminary Quebec.

Patrick Walsh B. A. is another theological student at Quebec.

James Johnston, B. A. has entered the law office of his father, Mr. J. J. Johnston K. C. Attorney-General.

Rupert O'Neill, B. A. has also donned the cassock and is now studying at the Grand Seminary, Quebec.

Louis J. Pouliot has begun his novitiate in the Jesuit order at Sault Aux Recollets, Montreal.

Adrian Brouillard is engaged in business with his father in Montreal.

Lucien Morin B. A. is studying Chemical Engineering at the Ecole Polytechnique, Montreal.

Joseph Kiggins entered Holy Heart Seminary at the beginning of the year, but has since been obliged, on account of ill-health, to return home.

Donat Melancon B. A. is a medical student at the University of Montreal.

J. Howard O'Neill, when last heard from, was engaged in business in his home town Burlington.

Hector Lavalee B. A. is studying medicine at Laval University, Quebec.

Leo McDonald is vice-principal of Queen Square School, Charlottetown.

C. E. Laundry has begun the dentistry course at the University of Montreal.

J. Gerald Dalton B. A. is studying engineering at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Charles Sirois is assisting his father at his home, Ste. Anne de la Pocatiere.

Eugene Rooney is the fifth of this class to enter the Grand Seminary, Quebec.

Dominic Laberge has begun the law course at Laval University, Quebec.

---

✠ Norbert Hughes, May be rest in peace.

---

Last summer saw three more St. Dunstan's students enter the holy priesthood. Fathers Frank McDonald and Wm. Monaghan, D. D. were ordained at Kelly's Cross, May 30 by His Grace, Archbishop O'Leary. Father McDonald has been appointed Bursar of St. Dunstan's while Father Monaghan is secretary to our newly appointed bishop.

Rev. Alex McIntyre was also elevated to the Holy Priesthood at Grand River July 19, by His Lordship. He is now attached to the Diocese of Winnipeg.

Rev. Charles Barron an old-time "Saint" has been transferred to the Diocese of Calgary. He was ordained in June of last year. Archbishop McNeill of Toronto was the officiating prelate.

Rev. James McGuigan, D. D., secretary to Archbishop O'Leary, has gone with His Grace to his new duties in Edmonton.

Congratulations to Jos. Flemming, winner of the Rhodes Scholarship,

Francis Nelligan, member of last year's rhetoric class, has entered the Jesuit novitiate of St. Stanislaus, Guelph, Ont.

The following students have entered McGill University as medical student, St. Clair Duffy, Philip McKenna, Patrick Nelligan and Arthur Byrne.

James Zaib has entered Columbia University for the study of medicine.

Thomas J. Stapleton is completing his classical course at Boston College.

Dennis McDonald is working on the C. N. R., Montreal.

Walter McDonald is teaching school in Saskatchewan.

Ferdinand McKenna is on his homestead, at Tracadie.

A. Reardon has begun the first year of the course in civil engineering at the University of St. Francis Xavier.

ST. DUNSTAN'S

Leo Bradley, a last year's student was one of the participants in a happy event which took place at St. Dunstan's Cathedral last month. Our heartiest felicitations, Leo.

Edmond Gagnon, '17 has graduated in the faculty of law, University of Montreal.

—NECROLOGY—

Patrick James Brown:— We regret to report the death of one of our last year's students, Patrick James Brown of St. Ande's Lot 22. He first entered St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1918 but ill-health obliged him to discontinue his studies. Last year he returned but in a few weeks contracted a severe cold which forced him to return home. His health gradually declined and in the closing days of September last passed to his reward. To his parents, brother and sisters Red and White extends its sincere sympathy.

Alfred Bertram Trainor:— We mourn the loss of another former student, Alfred Bertram Trainor who died Sept. 17 last in Denver, Colorado. During the three years he spent as a student with us he won for himself the friendship of both teachers and students. To his bereaved parents and relatives his friends of St. Dunstan's extend their deepest sympathy.

