

---

ALUMNI

---

We are pleased to record on these pages the marriage of Fred. Blanchard of Charlottetown to Miss Hanslam, Georgetown. It will be remembered that Fred was the aggressive left wing of last season's Hockey Team.

Charles O'Hanley who finished fourth year here is teaching at St. Thomas' College, Chatham, N. B.

Bertram M. Walsh, B. A. '22, is Principal of Meacham High School, Saskatchewan.

Rev. Pius McLellan, S. J., is stationed at St. Ignatius' Church, Winnipeg, Man.

Rev. Frank McDonald, S. J., is making his tertian-ship at St. Stanislaus Novitiate, Guelph, Ontario.

Russell Smith, B. A. '16, has taken up the study of law, and has registered at Osgoode Hall, Toronto.

Theodore Arsenault, '22, is studying Agriculture at College de St. Anne de la Pocatiere, Quebec.

William J. Monaghan, a former student, is Principal of the Nicklet School at Rutan, Sask.

Alcide Poirier, the efficient coach of last year's sextette, has found his life-partner in the person of Miss Gaudet. Mr. and Mrs Poirier are at present living in Somerville, Mass. We extend them our best wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. Frank Nelligan, S. J., has taken up Philosophy at St. Mary's Hall Stonyhurst, England.

William J. O'Leary, B. A. '23, is studying Electrical and Chemical Engineering at Dayton University, Dayton, Ohio.

Since the last issue of the Red and White, Rev. Frank X. McAulay has been ordained to the Priesthood by Bishop McNally, at Hamilton, Ont. Father McAulay is at present attached to the staff of St. Mary's Cathedral, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

Bernard J. Murphy, B. A. '23, is teaching at Campion College, Regina, Sask.

The many friends of John F. Campbell, '22, will be pleased to know that he is recovering from injuries received some months ago.

Rev. James Rooney, '17, who is attached to the Cathedral Staff, Charlottetown, has, we regret to learn, been compelled through ill health to go to Colorado. He has many friends who anxiously await his return and hope that his health will be completely restored.

Chester McLaughlin and Ronald McKenna, two former students, are in the employ of the Paper Mills, Rumford, Maine.

Rev. Austin J. Bradley, S. J., who graduated in 1906 with a B. A. degree, is Professor of Mathematics and English Literature, Loyola College, Montreal.

Mr. John V. Cass, S. J., took the first vows of the Society of Jesus, February 13th, in the Chapel of St. Stanislaus Novitiate, Guelph, Ontario.

---

This is truth the poet sings,
That a sorrower's crown of sorrow is remembering happier things.

—Tennyson.

---

Defer not till to-morrow to be wise,
To-morrow's sun to thee may never arise.

—Congreve.

