When the musical part of the programme was finished, the Rev. Rector in a few well-chosen remarks, congratulated the winners of the several events, thanked the members of the Glee Club for their splendid concert, and expressed the hope that they would favor us with many such during the year. Rev. Fr. McLean, V. G. who was present complimented the boys on their fine showing and promised some further incentives to athletic prowess next year. Rev. Fr. Rooney and Rev. Fr. McDonald added their commendation to what had already been said in praise of athletics, the athletes and the entertainers. A vote of thanks was then presented by the student body to the officers of the S D. A. A. A. and to the performers of the evening, which was acknowledged by Mr. R. McKenzie, President of the St. Dunstan's Athletic Association, in his usual capable manner.

St. Thomas Literary And Debating Society.

A re-organization meeting of the St. Thomas Literary and Debating Society was held in the business room September 30th. The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows :—

Moderator . . . . .	Rev. J. N. Poirer
President . . . . .	Mr. J. A. Fraser
Vice President . . . . .	Mr. T. Hagan
Secretary . . . . .	Mr. A. A. O'Brien
Executive Committee,—Messrs. R. McKenzie, C. P. Trainor, N. Hughes.

After a short discussion, it was decided to hold debates during the first term. Many excellent ones, on subjects drawn principally from the fields of Literature, International politics and Economics have thus far been held. Almost without exception the speeches have been well prepared and delivered, and so a very lively interest in the society and its work has been maintained. And thus, these oratorical conflicts are very capably performing that for which they are intended namely the training of the students to express, clearly and confidently on the public platform views on the questions of the hour.

At a meeting, held on October 21st., the St. Dunstan's Branch of the Catholic Church Extension Society was re-organized. Last year's president, Mr. Roche, occupied the chair. For the ensuing year the following officers were elected :

Columbian Society.

On Sunday November 4th., the first regular meeting of the American students of the College took place. The meeting was called to order at one o'clock, Mr. J. Vice President . . . . .	Mr. Chas. P. Trainor

The constitution was then read by the President. It was decided by the Society to observe Washington's Birthday as in former years by holding a banquet and concert on that day. As no further business was before the Society the meeting was then adjourned.

St. Andrew's Concert.

The entertainment furnished on St. Andrew's night by the Glee Club under the direction of Rev. Father Poirer and Mr. O'Neill was fully up to the high standard for which these concerts have always been famed. Special mention must be made of the work of the Orchestra, which, composed of many talented and energetic musicians, has this year attained great efficiency. Many thanks to the various performers for the following excellent programme :—

Mass for Dead Heroes.

On Tuesday morning, December 4th., a Requiem High-Mass was sung, in the University Chapel, by our

Rev. Rector, for the souls of all the former students who have lost their lives in this great war. The communions and prayers of the whole student body were offered up that God might be merciful to those who once were in our places here. And it is only just that St. Dunstan's should thus remember her fallen heroes, who have added new lustre to her glory. Some of them were our classmates and it is by our prayers alone that we now can show our appreciation of their great sacrifices for our country. May Almighty God in His mercy grant them eternal rest.

“But still the pride that swells a mother's heart
 To hear her son's undying fame disspread
 Must needs with grief be tinged. To sow and rear
 The seeds of valor was her cherished part.
 Now when the harvest waves its golden head
 It glistens with an Alma Mater's tear.”
