

CARNIVAL NO. 3:

A P I C T O R I A L R E V I E W

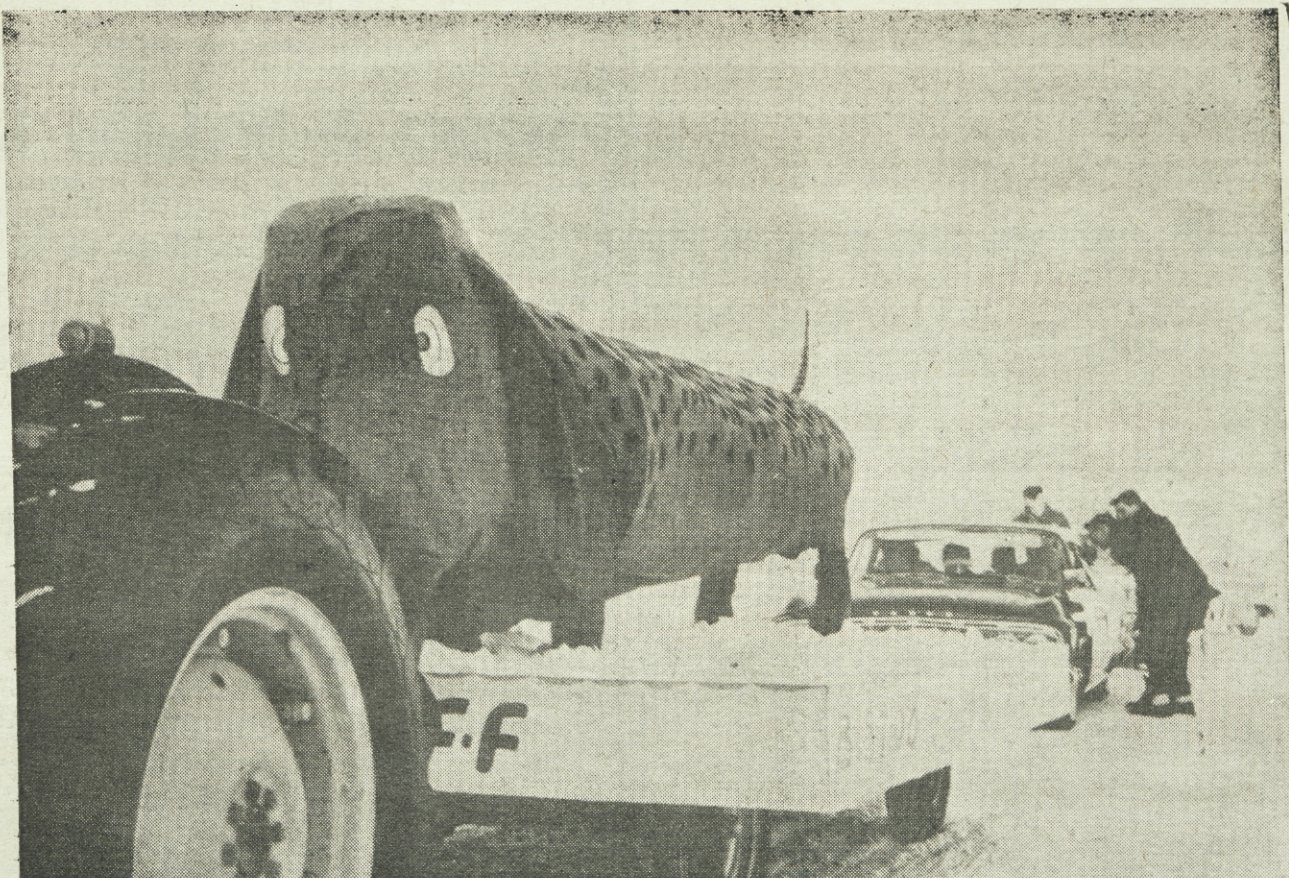

THE BITTER END SINGERS, direct from the Bitter End Club in New York City, starred in the annual Carnival Concert. The general assessment of the group indicated a rich potential but a lack of professional polish. From L-R are Norris O'Neil, Vilma Vaccaro, Tina Bohlman, Lefty Baker, Nancy Priddy and Bob Hider.

THE QUEEN

A CO-ED "PIT-CREW" tries in vain to free an entrenched Volkswagen. The above scene was typical of the Carnival "Grand Prix" on the football field. Arthur LeClair won individual honors by sweeping the five laps in a record 5:08. Trailing the pack after an outstanding but vain effort was John B. MacDonald in his "Black Bomb" (10:30)

BEST DOGGONE FACULTY ON CAMPUS boasts the Engineer's Float. The above entry ranked second in the float parade and contributed heavily to the Engineers over-all point victory. Finishing second and third respectively in the point competition were the Sophomores and the Seniors.
