

College Chronicle

Owing to the fact that the feast of St. Thomas Aquinas fell on Sunday this year and that examinations were being written on Saturday and Monday, March 6th and 3rd, the philosophers did not hold their annual banquet or observe the holiday. Since plans had been made for an early spring closing in an effort to offset labour shortage, it was necessary to curtail holidays in order to complete the prescribed year's work.

The students attended the ordination ceremonies in St. Dunstan's Basilica on Sunday, March 21st, when Rev. Kenneth MacMillan '33, Rev. Lawrence Landrigan '39, Rev. Francois Boudreau '39, and Rev. Wilfred Pineau '39 were ordained to the Holy Priesthood.

Twelve members of the C. O. T. C. wrote examinations for promotion to lieutenants on Saturday night and Sunday morning, March 20th and 21st, at the Armouries. After the completion of the examinations on Sunday, they were guests at a dinner at the Charlottetown Hotel.

The mid-term examinations were written by the High School and College years on March 6th and 8th.

The St. Dunstan's A. A. A. held a general meeting on March 31st. The purpose of the meeting was to propose some contemplated changes in the Constitution of the Association.

Flt-Sgt, Vincent Gauthier, a former student of S. D. C. is now a prisoner of war in Germany.

Albert Verret, Grand Falls, N. B., who was a student here during the year, left recently to join the R. C. A. F.

Paul La Croix, St. Marie, Beau Co., Quebec, who attended here during the first term, is now serving with the U. S. Merchant Navy.

Lieuts. James Coyle and Ivan MacArthur visited the College on March 25th. Lieut MacArthur is a former student of P. W. C. and a former member of the St. Dunstan's C. O. T. C. He had just returned from Camp Borden where he qualified for his commission.

Rev. A. J. McIntyre, P. P., Riviere Qui Barre, Alta., was a visitor to the College on Sunday, March 28th. Father McIntyre, a graduate of St. Dunstan's, spent a holiday with his mother, Mrs. Patrick McIntyre, Millcove, P. E. I. Father McIntyre has two nephews at the College; David and Freddie McTague.

Many of the students learned with great regret that Fl-Lt. Gerald O'Hanley has been reported killed overseas. His two brothers, Lieut J. A. O'Hanley and Lieut. J. H. O'Hanley are graduates of St. Dunstan's. Red and White extends sincere sympathy to the family of the deceased.

We offer congratulations to Lieut. Col. W. J. MacDonald, '22, on his promotion to Officer Commanding the Prince Edward Island Highlanders.

Many of the students learned with regret of the serious accident which befell Leo MacDonald, R. C. A. F. "Bucko", a former student of St. Dunstan's, was seriously injured from an explosion which occurred while he was attempting to rescue the victims of a plane crash. Two others who rushed to the scene of the accident with him were instantly killed. His friends will be glad to learn that he is able to resume his duties again.

LAC. Arthur Griffith, R. C. A. F., a former student of St. Dunstan's, spent two weeks with his parents in Charlottetown during the early part of April before embarking for overseas.

The College socials, which were started last year, were continued this year with even greater success. We take this opportunity to thank Father Ayers for his kind permission to use the Holy Name Hall, and we also wish to thank the Women's Committee whose untiring efforts kept the socials working smoothly. This year the Committee of the Students' Council took over the running of these socials and it deserves credit for the fine work it accomplished.

Red and White extends sincere sympathy to Leo Corcoran on the death of his mother.

As the name suggests, it is the purpose of this section to chronicle important events which take place during the year at S. D. C. and to keep the Alumni posted as to the whereabouts and occupations of their former classmates. But probably more important than this is the announcement of the death of former students. It is always with deep regret that we chronicle the death of an alumni, but is with a note of deeper sadness that we chronicle the death of one who has made the supreme sacrifice and has laid down his life for the sake of peace and country. The following is Roll of Honour dedicated to those who have laid down their lives or have been made prisoners of war:

THE DEAD:

Joseph D. Ready, R. C. A. F.
John J. O'Donnel, R. C. A. F.
Vincent Connolly, R. C. A. F.
Leonard Burke, R. C. A. F.
John J. Sullivan, R. C. A. F.
Thomas Norrie, R. C. A. F.
Carl Murphy, R. C. A. F.
Wm. MacManus, Army.
Byron MacDonald, Army.
James MacLean, Navy.

PRISONERS OF WAR:

Brinsley Williams
Vincent Gauthier

There are now 300 names on our honour roll of Alumni in the Armed Service. This list could be lengthened considerably if we had contact with those enlisting outside the Province and in the United States. The Alumni secretary would be pleased to receive any such names.

Who ran to help me when I fell,
And would some pretty story tell,
Or kiss the place to make it well ? My mother.

—Jane Taylor.

He is most powerful who governs himself.

—Seneca.