

---

ALUMNI

---

Theodore Monaghan, B. A., '23 is now teaching in Campion College, Regina. The Editor of this department is greatly indebted to Theo. for sending in the whereabouts of so many alumni; also to Herbert Murphy '23 who is also a member of the Faculty of Campion College.

Austin O'Brien, B. A., '19, married Miss McGee of Calgary last summer in Edmonton, Alta. Mr. O'Brien was Vice-Principal of the Separate High School in Edmonton until March 1924, when he became Superintendent of the Separate Schools of Edmonton.

Frank Cain, B. A. '21 has finished his first year in medicine at the University of Alberta, Edmonton.

Patrick Goodwin '22 is recuperating at the General Hospital, Edmonton.

Patrick B. Murphy, B. A., '20 is at present on the teaching staff of The Collegiate, Regina, Sask.

Joseph McEachern, B. A. '18, married Miss Irene Alyward of Tignish, P. E. I., January 1924, in Regina. He is at present residing in Chicago, Illinois.

Justin Hughes, '21 has taken up the study of Law at The University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon.

Walter McDonald, '23 has completed his course at the Normal School, Regina.

Rev. Patrick McQuaid, of the class of '20, who was ordained to the Holy Priesthood last November, has taken up his duties in the Archdiocese of Edmonton.

Rev. Eugene Rooney, also of the class of '20 was ordained last November and is now stationed in Edmonton. Ralph F. Malone, B. A., '23, is teaching school near Tramping Lake, Saskatchewan. Mr. Malone completed a Normal School course, at Christmas in Regina.

Rev. Austin Bradley, S. J. (B. A., '06) is making his tertianship with the order at Florennes, Belgium.

Revs. George Bradley, S. J., and Frank J. McDonald, S. J., are at present on the Faculty of Loyola College, Montreal.

Rev. Frank D. McDonald, S. J., left Canada last September to take charge of the English Parish at Hong-Kong, China. Father McDonald graduated from St. Dunstan's in 1907.

John A. Fraser, B. A., '18 is now practising Law in Regina, Sask., Mr. Fraser has also seen fit to take unto himself a wife in the person of Miss Bertha Wynne of Charlottetown. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Fraser every happiness and success.

Rev. Alfred McIntyre '16 has charge of several missions in the territory of Westlock, Alta., where he is at present stationed.

A. E. B. Murphy is at present engaged as commercial traveller for the P. Burns Co., Calgary, Alta. His territory comprises a large part of Northern Alberta.

William McGuill '19 and Michael McQuaid '19 received Holy Orders in June, 1922. Father McGuill was ordained at Fall River, U. S. A. Father McQuaid was ordained at Calgary where he is the assistant at the Sacred Heart Church.

Sylvere DesRoches, B. A., '22, is studying Law with Gaudet & Haszard, Charlottetown. Previous to this, Mr. DesRoches was inspector of Schools in Prince County.

Thomas Murtah, B. Sc., '22 who has been teaching in Western Canada for the past year, has resigned his position and is now located in Chicago.

Peter Walsh '23 who had been teaching in Tramping Lake, Sask., for the past eight months, has also resigned his position and is now employed in Chicago.

Rupert O'Neill, B. A., '20 who has been attending the Grand Seminary, Quebec, has completed his course in Theology, and was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on Sunday, May 25th by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary at St. Dunstan's Cathedral, Charlottetown.

George McCabe, B. A., '20 who is now attending the Grand Seminary, Quebec, will complete his course in Theology in June. His ordination will take place at Kin-kora, July 6th.

Leo Wedge who attended St. Dunstan's for the past three years is now teaching at Coleman, P. E. I.

John Green who completed his business course here last year is employed on the home farm.

W. J. Curley, B. A., '17 is at present teaching in Grosswerder, Sask.

Elmer McLellan, B. Sc., (McGill) is employed by the Dominion Gov't in Montreal on construction work. Mr. McLellan was professor of Chemistry in St. Dunstan's during the year 1920-1921.

William Zaib, B. A., '22 is Principal of Mt. Stewart School.

Gregory Gallant, B. A., '22 is principal of Souris High School. Last year Mr. Gallant was principal of Tignish Grammar School.

James Farrel who attended St. Dunstan's for a number of years is vice-principal of Souris High School.

Patrick Walsh, B. A., '20 was ordained to the Holy Priesthood on January 13, 1924 at Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Andre Arsenault '20 was also ordained on January 13, 1924. These young priests are at present stationed at the Bishop's Palace, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

* * * * *

The Editor of this Department wishes to thank all who have given assistance by communicating to him the whereabouts of former students. ALUMNI! USE this department of RED & WHITE. IT IS YOURS. EX-SAINTS are scattered over the different parts of Canada and the United States—Everywhere. Let US keep in touch with them.

