

Gerald Arsenault — Science

"A good companion makes good company."

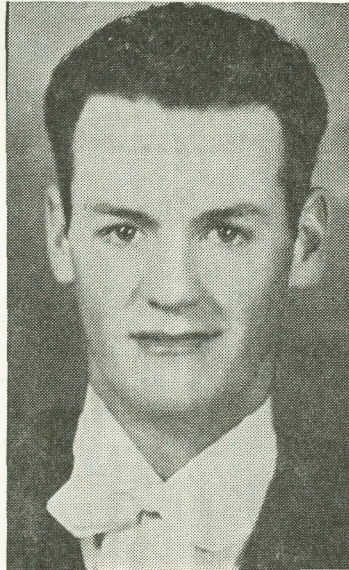

Gerry was born at St. Alexis de Matapedia on May 24, 1933, and the local parochial school was the scene of his first scholastic endeavours. Seminaire de Rimouski introduced him to the higher learning and in 1951 he entered St. Dunstan's in his Sophomore year. Gerry intends to further his education at Notre Dame University in the field of Mathematics. With his endowments it seems needless to wish him luck. Best of luck anyway, Gerry.

Maxwell John Callaghan — Arts

"A good name is better than riches."

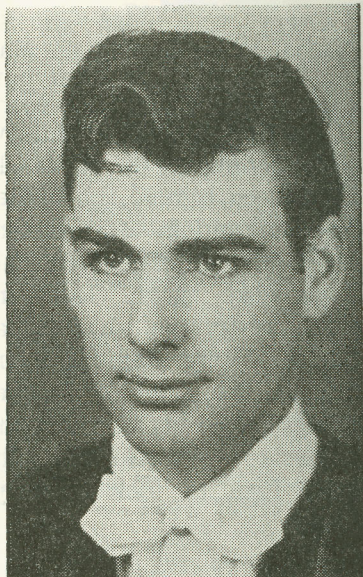

Max was born at Ebbsfleet on August 18, 1931. He received his primary education at Ebbsfleet and came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948. Since entering College Max has proven himself a good student and a very versatile athlete. He has been a member of the Intermediate and Senior Football teams and a zealous performer in intramural basketball, hockey and softball. One of a jovial nature Max has won numerous friends, and although his future plans are indefinite we feel safe in saying that recognition cannot bypass a student of such prominent qualities.

Leo Aeneas Clarkin — Commerce

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

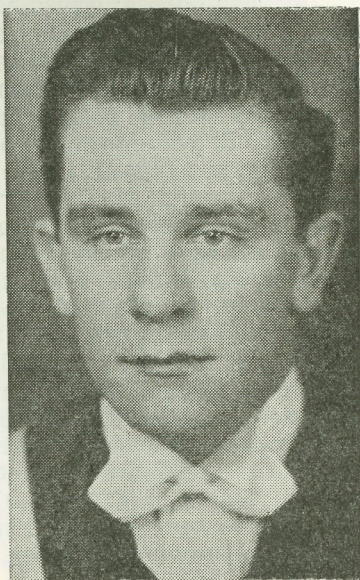

Leo was born at Emyvale on March 27, 1933 and after obtaining his primary education there, entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948. During his sojourn at St. Dunstan's Leo has taken an active part in all inter-class sports and was a member of the famous Intermediate football team of 1953. His service in the U.N.T.D. has qualified him as a commissioned officer in the Reserve Force. Although Leo is undecided about the future we predict one filled with happiness and success.

Gerald Francis Coady — Arts

"Great things are achieved by great men."

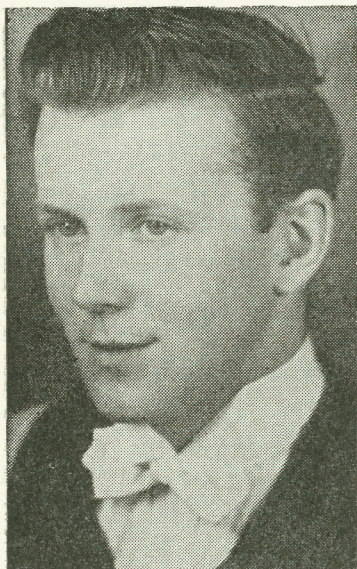

Gerald was born on December 9, 1932 at Emyvale and received his early education there. He entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948 and has since proven himself an interested and capable student. While at St. Dunstan's Gerald participated in all inter-class sports and was a member of the A.A.A. in his Senior year. His service in the C.O.T.C. has qualified him for a commission in the Reserve Force. For the future Gerald's plans are indefinite, but he leaves S. D. U. with the best wishes of all.

Robert Joseph Dallaire — Arts

"We are better for having known him."

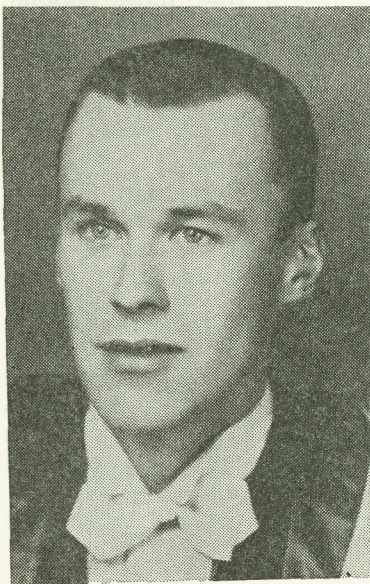

Born at St. Camille de Belle Chasse, Quebec on September 20, 1931, Robert received his primary education at his home school. Later he attended College Ste. Anne de la Pocatiere and Seminaire St. Georges in Eastern Quebec before coming to St. Dunstan's last fall. Behind a quiet exterior Robert has proven to be a good student and a talented young man. He intends to enter Laval next year to study to be an Official Statistician of insurance risks, and we all wish him the best of luck.

Jean Denys Dufresne — Arts

"In medio stat virtus."

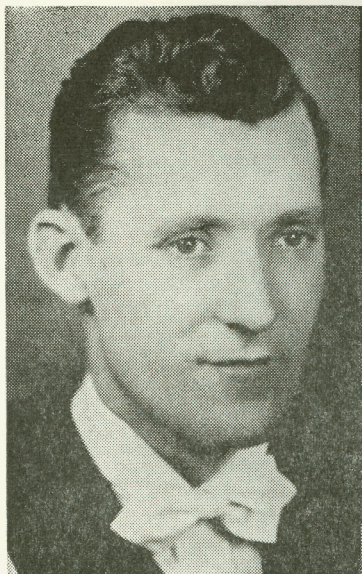

Denys was born at Shawinigan in 1930 and received his early education there before entering Seminaire des Trois Rivières, to study for his Laval B. A. degree. In the fall of 1952 Denys came to St. Dunstan's where he has proven himself an industrious member of the student body and as a member of the U.N.T.D. His pleasing personality has won him many friends at S. D. U. Next year Denys plans to study medicine at Ottawa University and we feel his future will be crowned with success. To him we extend our very best wishes.

John Joseph Dunphy — Arts

"I grow in learning as I grow in years."

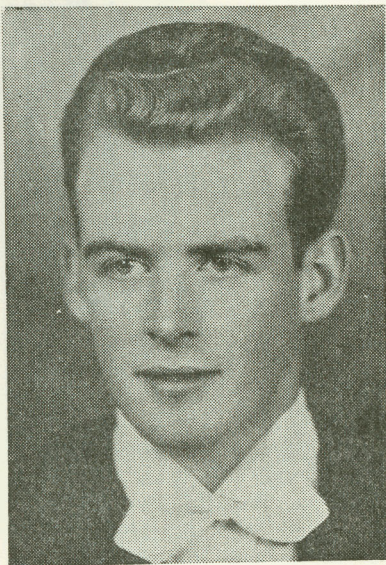

John was born at Morell and received his primary education there. He first entered St. Dunstan's in 1944 and left in 1946 after completing High School. After teaching for four years he re-entered S. D. U. in 1950. John served two years on the Red and White staff and was Vice-President of the Students' Union. Besides holding other important positions he actively participated in inter-class sports. He has earned a commission in the Reserve Force through his service in the C.O.T.C. With such a background John cannot help but be successful in the future and we wish him the best of luck.

John Simeon Farmer — Arts

"Homo paulo sapientior."

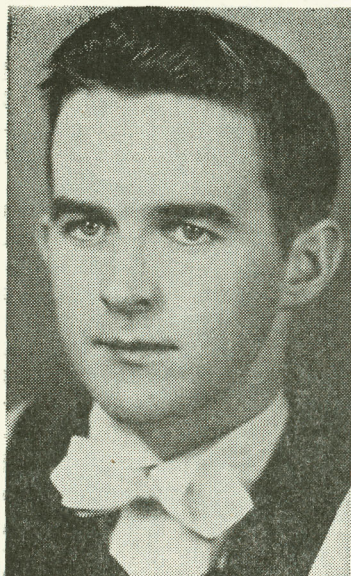

One of the most popular members of the Senior Class, Simeon was born in Kinkora on February 2, 1933 and after obtaining his primary education there, he entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1950 as a Freshman student. Since then he has taken an active part in various campus activities. A gifted actor, a member of the Red and White staff, an officer of the C.O.T.C., he was also Manager of the team that won St. Dunstan's first Maritime Intercollegiate Football Championship. We will all miss Simeon when he departs, but we do wish him success in his future endeavours.

John Baptist Fisher — Arts

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

John was born on January 20, 1933. After completing Grade IX in Glendaladale School, John enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948 as a Grade XI student. Gifted with a pleasing personality and a charitable nature, John has won many friends. Besides being a good student he has also found time for much extra-curricular activity. A member of the A.A.A. for two years, a second team football player, Editor of Athletics for Red and White and this year a member of our highly rated basketball team. John, may you have every success in whatever you choose to do.

James Maurice Flynn — Commerce

"Constant cheerfulness is the surest sign of a wise man."

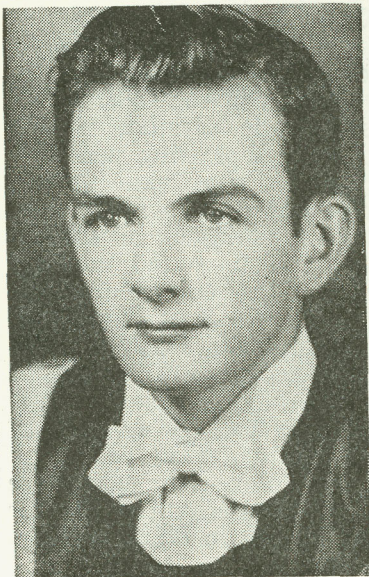

Maurice was born in Charlottetown on January 1, 1931 and received his early education at Queen Square School and Prince of Wales College before entering St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1950. Since joining us he has proven himself to be an outstanding student in every respect. A member of the hockey team for three years, he has shown his prowess in athletics. Last summer he received his commission in the Reserve Army. His many friends join in wishing him the best.

James Raymond Johnston — Commerce

"Work and worry have killed many a good man so why should I take a chance?"

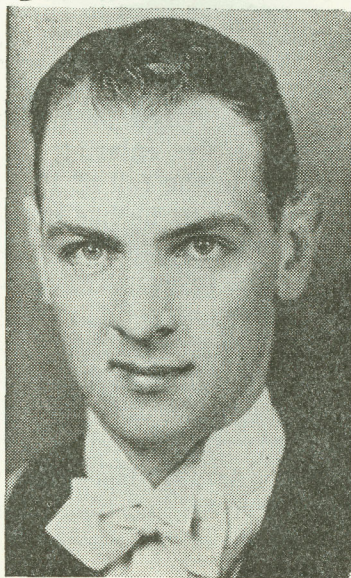

Jim was born at Central Bedeque on July 20, 1933 and received his primary education there. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948 and has since shown himself to be a very good student. He has taken an active part in all inter-class sports as well as being in the M.I.D.L. for three years. His service in the U.N.T.D. has merited for him a commission in the Reserve Force. Jim will always be remembered for his willingness to help others and departs with the best wishes of all.

Eugene Lemuel Kenny — Arts

"He is complete in feature and in mind with every grace to grace a gentleman."

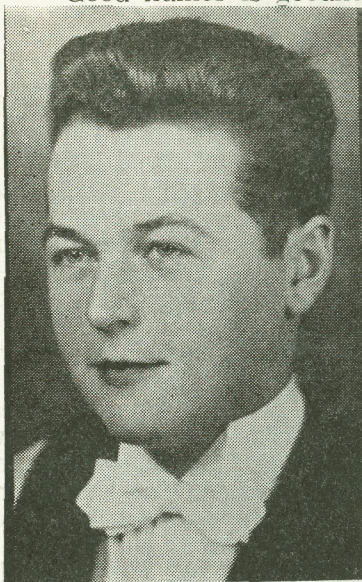

Gene was born at Morell, P.E.I., on February 13, 1933. He received his primary education at St. Peter's Bay and Queen Square. In 1947 he enrolled at St. Dunstan's in Grade XI and since then he has proven himself a devoted student. His interest in extra-curricular activities, his good natured disposition and his gentlemanly qualities have made him a valued member of the Senior Class. Gene makes no comment on the future but we wish him the best of everything.

Charles Armand Lambert — Arts

"Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined."

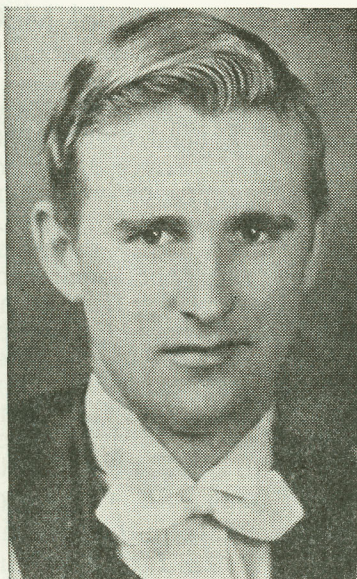

Born at Ste. Marie de Beauce on November 2, 1934, Charlie attended College de Ste. Anne and Seminaire St. Georges before coming to S. D. U. During his short stay with us he has shown himself to be a true friend and his jovial manner has helped him to make a wide circle of friends at S. D. U. In sports, Charlie has participated actively in intramural hockey and football with great success. He plans to study Civil Engineering at Laval next year and in all his endeavours we wish him the best.

Allan Joseph MacDonald — Arts

"He is—but words fail to tell thee what;
Think what a man should be, he is that."

The Valedictorian of the Centennial Class was born in Charlottetown on May 7, 1933. Before entering St. Dunstan's in 1950 he attended Queen Square and P.W.C. Allan has shown himself to be an outstanding student by the numerous positions he has held on campus. He was President of his class for two years, an invaluable member of our Senior Football Team for three years, in which field he merited a "D", as well as an outstanding actor in campus dramatics. In debating, Allan has an admirable record, winning seven Intercollegiate debates, including a Dominion Championship. In his Senior Year he was President of M.I.D.L.

and for the second time represented St. Dunstan's in the Dominion Debating semi-finals. To this truly Christian gentlemen we extend our best wishes for the future.

Isabel Mariedeth MacDonald — Arts

"A witty woman is a treasure

"A witty beauty is a power."

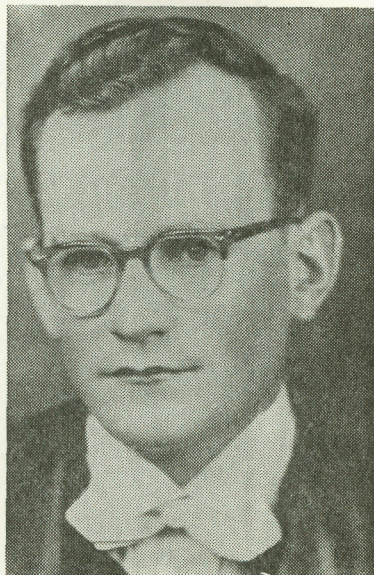

Mariedeth was born in Charlottetown on July 2, 1932. She received her primary education at Rochford Square and Prince of Wales College and entered St. Dunstan's in 1950. While at St. Dunstan's she has proven herself an outstanding student both in academic and extra curricular work. Besides starring as an actress she served on the executive of the Dramatic Society and was President of the Sigma Delta Sorority this past year. She has been elected a life member of her class committee as well. For the future, Mariedeth, we wish you the best.

Louis Daniel McGinn — Commerce

"A good reputation is a second inheritance."

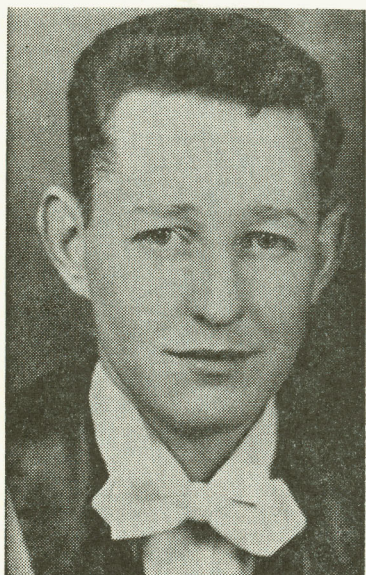

Louis was born at Emyvale on November 10, 1930, where he received his primary education before entering St. Dunstan's in 1948. A man faithful to his duties he has shown us the importance of putting study first in all student activities. Louis was always willing to shoulder campus responsibilities and this year we find him Manager of the student canteen. He leaves St. Dunstan's with his Bachelor of Commerce degree and, although his plans for the future are indefinite we wish him "bon voyage."

William Patrick McIsaac — Commerce

"An honest man's word is as good as his bond."

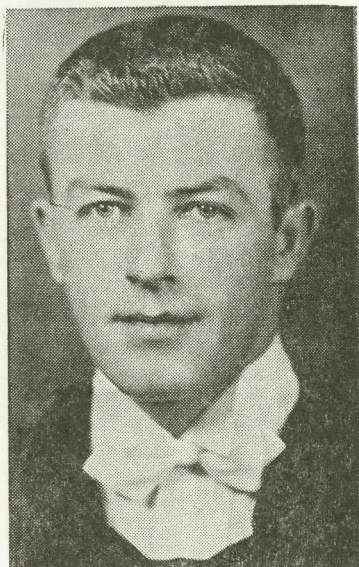

Bill was born in Westville, N.S., on July 24, 1933. After completing his primary education at Westville he entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1951, and has since taken an active part in all campus activities. He has been a member of our hockey team for three years and was a valued member of the Intermediate Football team of '53. Bill's plans for the future are indefinite, but his host of friends at St. Dunstan's wish him every success in the years ahead.

Ronald Matthew McIvor — Arts

"An honest heart is a kingdom in itself."

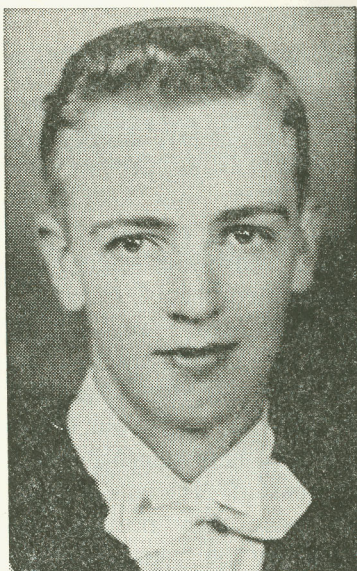

Ronnie was born in Aroostook Jct., N.B., on January 28, 1928. He attended school in Aroostook Jct. until 1939 and in that year moved to Kinkora, P.E.I. In 1946 he entered St. Dunstan's and since then he has proven himself to be an exemplary student and a diligent worker. A member of the First Team Football club for three years he captained the squad in his Senior year, while at the same time he was assuming the role of Secretary-Treasurer of the Students' Union. He hopes to enter the teaching profession and we wish him the best in the future.

Patrick Joseph McKenna — Arts

"Juvenis summae virtutis est."

Paddy was born at Orwell Cove on March 19, 1935. He received his primary education there and entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1949 as a Grade XII student. Since coming to St. Dunstan's Paddy has taken a keen interest in all campus activities. He was a member of the M.I.D.L. and a zealous performer in all intramural sports. Although he is uncertain about the future, he leaves his Alma Mater with the best wishes of all.

Leo Herbert McQuaid — Arts

"A fit man; a man of known ability."

Born in Charlottetown on July 15, 1931, Leo received his early education at Summerside, Wellington and Richmond. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's in 1947 as a Grade X student and since that time has proven himself to be a good student and an ardent leader. Leo served on the Executive of the A. A. A. in '52-'53, the Dramatic Society in '52-'53, and was the President of the C. C. S. M. C. in '53-'54. In each of these positions Leo took a keen interest and as a result he has shown that he has what it takes for success. We are confident Leo will show his worth in the future and wish him all the best.

Marc Ross Michaud — Science

"The crown and glory of man is not the hose."

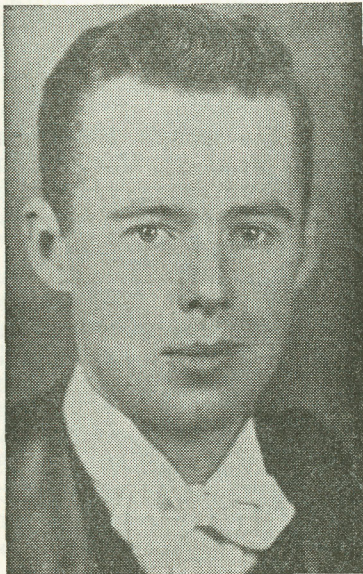

Born in Rimouski, Que. on July 10, 1932, Marc received his primary education at Seminaire de Rimouski, Seminaire de Sillery and College de Victoriaville before coming to S. D. U. in '51 as a Sophomore student. Having a keen mind, Marc has shown himself to be a serious student as well as an ardent participator in all inter-class sports. Next year he intends to study medicine at Laval University and takes with him the best wishes of all.

Michael Joseph Charles Monaghan—Commerce

"Love maketh a full man."

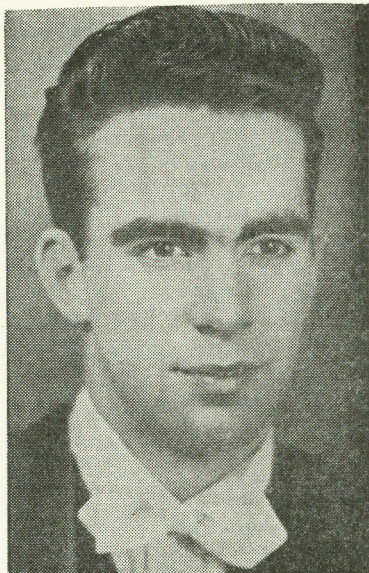

Charlie was born in Trail, B.C., on February 12, 1931 and received his early education there before coming to S.D.U. in the fall of 1947. While at college he participated in all inter-class sports and was on several intramural championship teams, as well as being a member of the U.N.T.D. Charlie is noted for his keen wit and ready smile and his friends wish him the best of luck in the future.

Charles Arthur Morrison — Commerce

"An honest man is the noblest work of God."

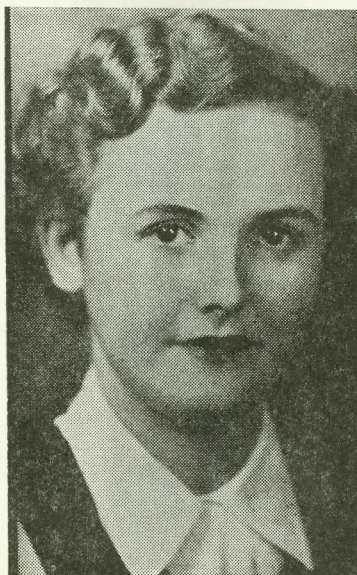

Charlie was born at Pleasant Grove on August 25, 1932 and later moved to Boston where he received his primary education. He returned to P.E.I. and entered S.D.U. in the fall of 1948. Since that time he has been an eager student as well as a good athlete. For the past three years he has been a member of the U.N.T.D. and received his commission in the Reserve Force. Charlie's ready wit and pleasant personality have won him many friends during his stay here and for the future we wish him the best of luck.

Ellen Catherine Mullally — Arts

"She symbolizes what a true Christian lady ought to be."

The scene: Gowan Brae.
The date: March 28, 1933.
The occasion: Ellen's birth.
To add to her early education, which she received at her home school Ellen continued on at St. Mary's Convent, from where she graduated with honors in 1950 and entered St. Dunstan's the same fall. Since coming to S.D.U. Ellen has proven herself to be an outstanding student as well as a valuable member of the various committees. She has held positions on WUSC '52-'53 and '53-'54; Red and White '53-'54, and Sigma Delta Sorority '53-'54. In your future endeavours, Ellen, we ask God to be always with you.

Ena Marjorie Murphy — Arts

"A winning smile a friendly face,
In all our hearts she's won a place."

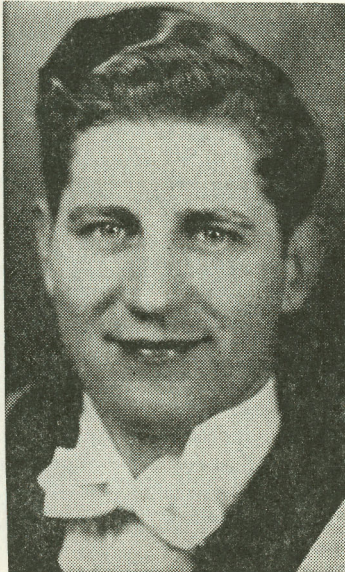

Ena was born in Charlottetown on September 23, 1932. She began her education at Notre Dame Academy and then attended Prince of Wales for two years before coming to St. Dunstan's as a Freshman student in 1950. With her friendly smile and sincere disposition Ena has made many friends at S. D. U. during these four years. Although her plans for the future are uncertain we extend to her our best wishes for success and happiness.

Lorne Basil Murphy — Arts

"Attempt the end, and never stand to doubt;
Nothing's so hard, but search will find it out."

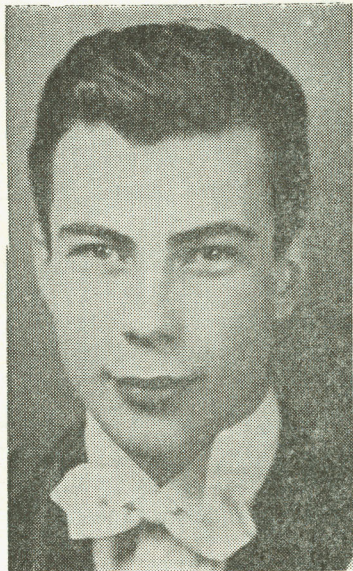

Lorne was born in Freeland on August 5, 1928. He received his primary education at Freeland, Miscouche Convent and Summerside High School. He entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1950. Lorne worked on the Committee of WUSC in his Sophomore year, was President of his class in Junior and in his Senior year was the capable and industrious President of the Students' Union. He participated in all intramural sports displaying in these his characteristic drive and determination. Lorne plans to enter the field of social work and we feel that all his future endeavours will be crowned with well-earned successes.

Gilles Normand — Arts

"Son, be like your Father and your Father's Father, a true disciple of Hippocrates."

As January 1, 1935 dawned over Trois Rivieres, Quebec, Gilles became a welcome addition to the Normand family. Before coming to St. Dunstan's he attended College de l'Assomption and Seminaire de Trois Rivieres. During his sojourn at St. Dunstan's Gilles has pursued, along with many other activities, a course which will fit him for entering Laval's Faculty of Medicine. We wish him every success in his chosen field of endeavour.

Arthur Joseph Pendergast — Arts

"A Christian is the highest style of man."

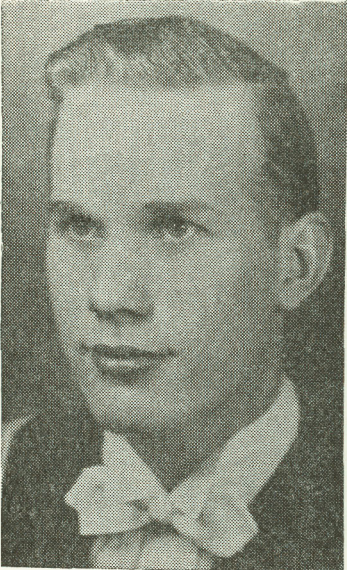

Arthur was born at Kensington on February 22, 1933. He received his primary education at Kensington and Kinkora and entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1950. Arthur was President of the M.I.D.L. in '52-'53 and had previously held the position of Secretary in '51-'52. He was a member of our Senior Football team for three years and was a tower of strength on the 1952 team which won the Maritime Senior and Intercollegiate crown. Arthur is hesitant to reveal his future plans but we can rest assured that in his future work he will display his usual proficiency and Christian zeal.

Jerome Michael Quinn — Arts

"Virtue is more amiable and more sweet
When virtue and true majestie do meet."

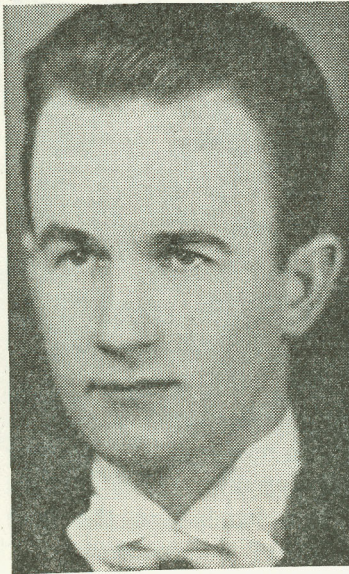

Jerome was born at Cardigan on July 2, 1933. After receiving his early education at St. Vincent's Orphanage and Kinkora Convent, he entered St. Dunstan's as a Freshman student in 1950. A proven leader, Jerome was Secretary of the A.A.A. in '52-'53 and President of the Dramatic Society in his Senior year. He has also been an active member in M. I. D. L. for the past two years as well as an eager participant in all inter-class sports. Jerome's plans for the future are as yet indefinite, but knowing him to be a true Christian gentleman, we feel sure that he will be successful in whatever walk of life he chooses.

Antoine Ernest Rioux — Arts

"Bonum vinum laetificat cor hominis."

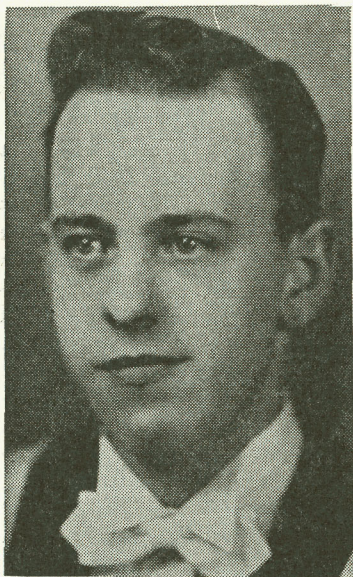

Ernie was born at Plaster Rock, N.B., on June 13, 1933. He obtained his basic education at Ste. Anne de La Pocatiere and St. Georges de Beauce before entering St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1953. Since then he has entered into all sports and won many friends with his pleasing personality. Next year he intends to study Medicine at Laval University and we wish him the best of luck.

Leslie Thomas Rogerson — Arts

"A conspicuous example of plain living and high thinking."

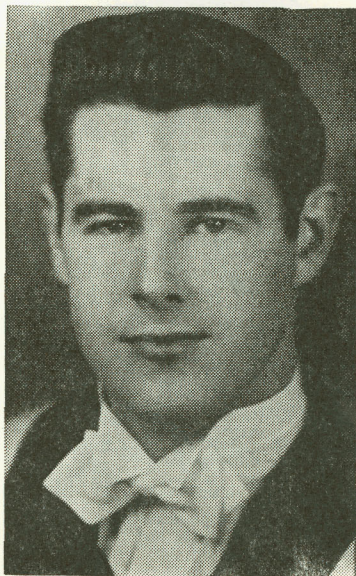

Les was born at Peakes on November 30, 1930 and received his primary education at St. Patrick's Road School before coming to St. Dunstan's in 1946. Since he came to S.D.U. Les has been noted as a hard worker and a Christian gentleman, and has won many friends and admirers. Leslie's plans for the future are uncertain, but whatever they may be his friends wish him every success.

Leonard Thomas Shea — Arts

"Gentle in manner, but resolute in action."

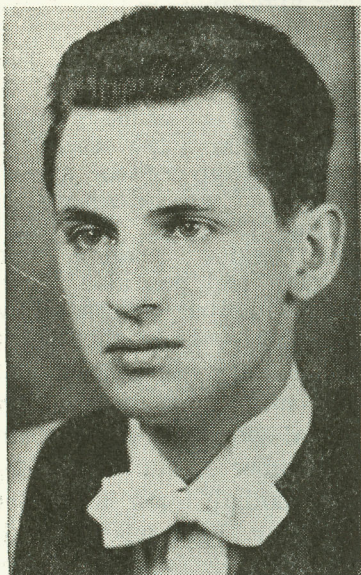

Len was born at Ebbsfleet on February 5, 1932. He received his primary education there and later spent four years at Tignish Convent. Len entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1949 and besides being an ardent student, he participated in all inter-class sports and was a member of the Intermediate Football team in 1953. In his Senior year he held office as President of the A. A. A. Len's pleasing personality and gentle manner have won him many friends and we wish him the best of luck in the future.

Gaston Soucy — Arts

"Ratio super omnia."

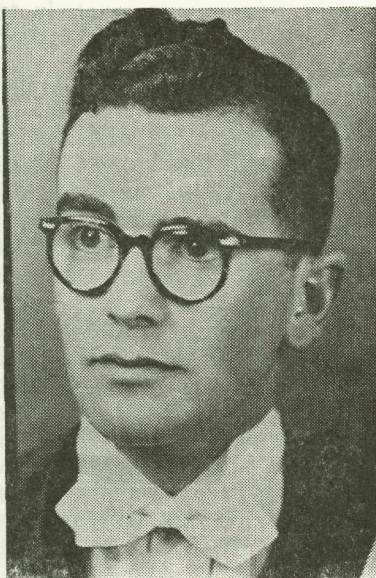

Gaston was born at Ile. Verte, P.Q., and received his primary education there. He then attended the Séminaire de Rimouski and Ottawa University before entering S.D.U. in the fall of 1952. Gaston is a member of the U.N.T.D. and a very keen participator in all intramural sports. Although he makes no comment on the future we can be assured that it will be one filled with success.

Joseph Gerald Steele — Arts

"No crown but one of our own making is ours to wear."

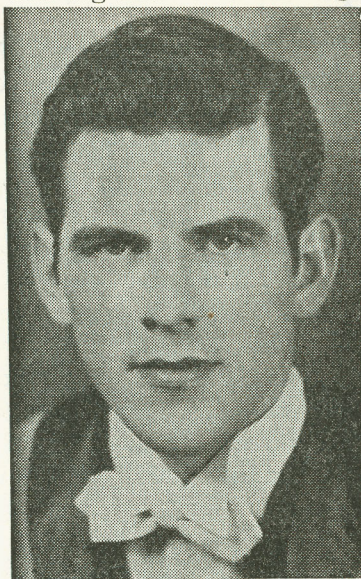

Gerald was born at Miscouche on January 30, 1933 and received his primary education at Miscouche Convent, winning the Governor General's Medal. He entered S.D.U. in 1950 and since then he has displayed his sterling qualities of leadership both in curricular and extra-curricular pursuits. He was Assistant Editor and Editor-in-Chief of Red and White, Vice-Chairman and Chairman of the W.U.S.C., representative of St. Dunstan's at two national conferences at Quebec and at the World University Service Seminar and Study Tour in India last summer. As recognition of his successes he was awarded a scholarship in his Freshman year and has been elected Life President of his class. We shall watch with interest the development of Gerald's promising future.

William Pius Whalen — Commerce

"The big man with the big heart and boundless energies."

Bill was born in Bear River on July 9, 1931. He received his primary education at his home school, St. Peter's High School and St. Mary's Convent before entering S.D.U. in the fall of '50. Besides being a good student Bill has also found time for other campus activities. He was a member of the M.I.D.L. for three years and took part in all intramural sports as well as being a member of our Intercollegiate football team in his Senior year. We wish Bill the best of luck for the future.

Francis Joseph Zakem — Commerce

"In joy, in grief, in triumph, in retreat, Great always, without aiming to be great."

Frank was born at St. Paul de Montminy, Que., on August 30, 1931 and came to Charlottetown in 1936. He received his primary education at Queen Square School and P. W. C. before entering S.D.U. in the fall of 1951. A man who possesses many qualities of leadership, Frank was Business Manager of Red and White in '52 and Manager in his Senior year. The fact that he was chosen Life Secretary of his class is an indication of the esteem held for him by his classmates. In the future we have every reason to believe that Frank will meet with success.

