

ALUMNI

Since the last edition of Red and White we have received little news from our Alumni. Most of our news has been gleaned from press reports rather than through direct contact with the Alumni themselves. This is not as it should be.

Alumni of St. Dunstan's! This department is written especially for you. Its purpose is to aid you to keep in touch with your fellow Alumni and with the College. It serves as a means of permanently recording interesting events in the lives of former students of St. Dunstan's. We appeal therefore to your generosity to help us make the department worth while. Do you know of an alumnus who has received a promotion or an honor, who has recently been married, or who has passed on? Better still, why depend on others to tell us about you? Why not write to us about yourself? Have you recently met any of the "Old Boys?" Have you opened a new business establishment, or entered upon the practise of a profession? Any item of news will be appreciated by the editor, and your old friends will be pleased to hear from you, even through the medium of Red and White.

We take this opportunity to extend our heartfelt sympathy to the relatives of William W. Caven, '76 who died in Montreal last December. Mr. Caven, after having served fifty-two years in the department of National Revenue, retired in 1933. In 1919, after a series of promotions, he became Dominion Excise inspector, and in 1935 he received the award of the British Empire in the New Year's honor list. Requiescat in pace.

To the wife and other members of the family of Robert E. Smith '89, who died quite recently, we express our deepest sympathy. We quote the following from The Slope Teacher, Dickinson, North Dakota.

"He was a graduate of Prince of Wales College and St. Dunstan's University, Canada, and of the University of North Dakota.

Prior to coming to the Dickinson College in 1927, he served as High School principal at Hankinson, Michigan, and at Michigan City, N. D. He was an active member in Modern Woodmen of the World. A member of many important college committees and organizations, Professor Smith was for many years adviser to the Newman club. Prominent in Democratic political circles in North Dakota for many years, Mr. Smith served on convention committees and in 1924 received the nomination for congress of the Democratic ticket." Eternal rest give unto him O Lord.

Red and White tenders condolences to the friends of J. Alfred Chappelle '95, who died March 6th in Charlottetown.

For a number of years Mr. Chappelle was associated with the late J. K. Ross of the North American Life Insurance Co. Office in Charlottetown. In 1929 Mr. Chappelle was an active participant in the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the founding of St. Dunstan's College. May his soul rest in peace.

There is always hope in a man that actually and earnestly works. In idleness alone is there perpetual despair.
