

THE KID INQUIRES

BY ERNEST GALLANT

Question: What did you think of the student brief presented to the UPC?

John Daley — I was disappointed that it wasn't presented to the Students Union before it was presented to the UPC.

Edward Gardiner — I didn't read it.

Ray Landry — I didn't read the Brief.

Joan MacDonald: What Student brief?

Bernie Cahill — I thought it was very well written. The ideas were very good and very well defended. The student body is to be commended on their effort.

Nina Bergass — I think it's a great idea to have the University where St. Dunstan's is.

Terry McGarragle — An original attempt to resolve the basic conflicts that have evolved in the university as a post-secondary institution for the development of the individual and the society.

Ann Marie Driscoll — Cripes, don't ask me!

Fr. Charles MacDonald — Best thing since the Model T Ford!

Julie Mitchell — I don't know much about the student brief on the new university.

Karen Duffy — I never read it.

Joe Sullivan — I never heard anything about it. I study too much I guess.

THANK GOD I'M AN ATHEIST.

little lappy cowers consternationally under the threat of tuitionic tantalization.

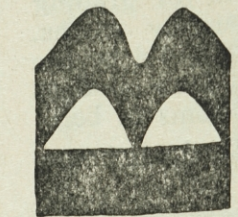

lappy was about to throw in the carrot and get a job as a waitress in a health food shop when, in a fit of rampant recollection, she thought of her friendly bank-type manager.

he explained to her all about the government-backed student loan bit.

good gosh! she gasped. then I don't have to worry about a thing!

So she romped down town and purchased a whole new fancy wardrobe.

she has another appointment with her bank manager tomorrow.
guess why.
