

Alumni

Of last year's nine graduates, four have decided on a clerical life and are now preparing for the Priesthood ; Messrs. Alfred McIntyre and Francis Arsenault in the Grand Seminary, Quebec ; James Rooney and Wilfrid Curley B. A. in St. Augustine's Seminary, Toronto. Albert St. Pierre B. A., Rene Boivert and J. E. Gagnon, have taken up the study of law in Laval University, Quebec. Mr. Joseph Fleming is teaching in the Western part of the Island, while Mr. Peter LeClair B. A. is Prin. of a High School in Calgary, Alta

St. Dunstons' has been especially honored by the elevation of Hon. A. E. Arsenault to the high and responsible office of Premier of our province. He was a successful lawyer and for many years past was recognized as one of the foremost public men on the Island. Mr. Arsenault formerly attended S. D. C. and the students of the present day offer him their heartiest congratulations on his well-merited promotion.

Mr. Edwin L. Doyle B. A. '16 is now Sec'y of the Separate School Board of Calgary.

Douglas Hogan '14 and Gerald O'Regan have recently sailed for England with the 8th Siege Battery draft.

Rev. Alban Reid '13 and Rev. W. V. MacDonald '13 who were ordained last June are now exercising their priestly duties, the former in South Dakota, while the latter is attached to the Cathedral Staff at Charlottetown.

Messrs. A. Morin and E. Lafontaine are pursuing their philosophical studies at Laval University.

Mr. J. Story Hynes of last year's teaching staff is now studying Medicine at McGill.

Messrs. C. Momberquette, E. McCarville, and F. Steele have donned the khaki during the past vacation.

We are pleased to learn that Lieut. A. E. B. Murphy, Bdrs. F. McPhee, F. McDonald, P. A. McLellan, Gr. Leo B. McKenna and Tr. J. R. Doyle (all of the 8th Siege Battery) who were gassed early in August last, are now sufficiently recovered to take their places on the firing line.

Since our last issue of "RED and WHITE" three more of our boys : Sergt. Everard McLellan, Pte. Hector Gallant and Pte. John O'Connor have made the supreme sacrifice on the field of Flanders ; thus meriting for themselves undying glory and shedding lustre on their Alma Mater. To the families and relatives of those fallen soldiers we extend our sincerest sympathy.

Bdr. Julian Keoughan another of the sons of " Old St. Dunstan's " has been recommended for the D. S. O.

C. Lewis and " Bob " Allan are on garrison duty at Ives Point, N. S.

As the mind of each man is conscience of good or evil, so does he conceive within his breast hope or fear, according to his actions.—Ovid.

Good humor only teaches charms to last,
Still makes new conquests and maintains the past.

—Pope.