

The Funny Man

HARD LUCK.

Hostess—This is indeed an annoyance.

Guest—What is it Madame?

Hostess—Well, you know McGill never plays without his music.

Guest—Yes?

Hostess—He brought it.

Jim—What is Alec's favorite flower?

Ray—He has a marked preference for Lilies.

The Minister of Trade and Commerce states that there is in the West another admirer of this fair flower. No doubt he is the man who put the lick in Alick.

IN MOCK PARLIAMENT.

Butler—I would like to ask the Premier who will have jurisdiction over air-ships?

Premier—Why, the Highway Commission.

George—Is Kensington a dull place?

Premier—Dull? Well rather. Man hanged himself in the Post Office on Sunday and wasn't discovered till Thursday.

She, despairingly—When shall I be done with this tiresome life and enter a happier existence?

Ray—As they would say in the old cook-books you'll be done when you're Brown.

Hogan (dramatically)—He was driven to his grave.

Hec—What undertaker did it?

Since the dent was noticed in Alf's hat, he has often been over heard reciting that old line, "The Smith a mighty man is he."

Prof. in French—Why do we say, “Je suis aimé” is the passive?

Philip—Because the subject suffers.

The leader of the Opposition says that there is nothing in all this talk about Women's Rights; she is only a side issue anyway.

Prof. in History—Why is a certain period of antiquity known as the dark ages?

Twisty—Because there were so many knights.

Prof. in French—Conway give various translations of Doucette.

Fatty (passionately)—Sweet, mild, gentle, fragrant, agreeable, charming, pleasant, peaceful, calm, mellow, fair, lovable.

Prof. in History—Russel, state an instance in which a Judge abused his power.

Russel—The unlawful banishment of Sir John Currie from the court of Queen Bess.

Miss———Excuses it all by saying that she receives visits only from her Brothers.

Synonym—A word you write when you don't know how to spell the other one.

Prof. in Geometry—McLellan what is an oval?

McLellan—An egg circle.

TEN BEST SELLERS.

Through Russia on a Mustang—Charles Barron.

Revolt of the Tartars—J. McGuigan.

Sesame and Lilies—A. McIntyre.

Life of St. Paul—H. Fitzgerald.

The Braes O' Ballachmyle—J. MacDougall.

The Wings of the Morning—Thomas R. Walsh.