

With the Funny Man

DEFINITIONS.

Heathen—A person of a distant country who does not profess the religion that we don't practise.

Error—The mistaken act of another student.

Patriotism—A momentary excitement due to the singing of "God save the King."

Eternity—Fifty minutes in the Greek room when the pipes are cold.

Pun—A cheap joke(vide carten's jokes).

TRANSLATIONS.

Quid times?—What time is it?

An vero vir amplissimus—A most ample man.

Patent portae; profiscere—There is the door; skidoo.

Quod te jam in hac urbe Catalina—Do you want all the jam in the city, Catalina?

Gaudet imberbis juvenis—Gaudet the beardless youth.

So the Queen was'nt angry after all. There were only twenty philosophers present; some believed there were forty, but that was a misconception.

Professor—Why is a spilttoon sometimes called a cuspidore.

Cav-g-h—Well sir, I think it because so many cusses spit over it

Professor of discipline—Do you know anything more stupid than a students whim.

Carten—(Yes sir) not to understand it.

Johnny—Pa, what is the vermiform appendix?

Pa—The walking delegate—does'nt do any work but orders the strike.

Gasut (reciting "Character of the Happy Warrior")—Who is the Happy Warrior?

Voice Warhorse

A St. Dunstons Graduate had been describing some scenes that he had seen in the West. "There are some spectacles" he said "that one never forgets." "I wish you could tell me where I could get a pair," exclaimed a student from Tignish, "I'm always forgetting mine."

McIsaac—What is a prolagonist?

McAdam—One who protags.

Professor(in mineralogy)—What is the hardest known substance?

Carten—H—how about hard luck.

Kilbrade(fat) — What's the difference between winter and summer?

Kildare(lean)—There's snow difference.

Mary had a little lamb,
His snow as white as fleece,
And every where that Mary went
The lamb would go a piece.

In Latin Class the teacher noticed a suspicious looking lump on the side of a certain student's face, and wishing to know the cause thereof he addressed him with the following question, Quid est hoc? The student understanding that his chew of tobacco was referred to, pointed to the raised surface of his cheek and replied "Hoc est quid."

Students have been recently heard to remark that Quinn is not always followed by the subjunctive.

Will—I am going to write a composition on grasshoppers.

Ray—No doubt you will be full of your subject.

The rat that lost his head in room 20, must have been a foolish rat or he would have known better than to go down that corridor. However, he did the best thing possible under the circumstances for he returned to his hiding place although laboring under difficulties.

On another page may be seen Charlie's ad. for a good cook.

There may be some significance in the fact that one of the occupants of No. 23 has skidooded.

A new business establishment has been opened on Great George St. under the firm name of Murphy & Murphy.

A wonderful specimen of gold from the Yukon District was exhibited in the Mock Parliament on March 4th.

The new M. P. for that country "absolutely swore" that it was the real article.

Students on the upper flats will please observe that the head quarters of the fire brigade is now in the second corridor.

Will—Stand up straight George so I can see if you are bow-legged.

George—How can you expect me to stand up straight if I am bow-legged.

"How often do you kill men on this road Conductor" asked the Editor of R. & W., who was sojourning at Traveller's Rest for a few days in the early part of January.

"Just once" answered Dan, as he pulled the icicles from his moustache.

"What are the sister states" asked S-d-rs in the Saturday evening history class.

Prof.—Well I should say that they are, Miss Ouri, the Misses Sippi, Ida Ho, Mary Land, Callie Fornia, Ala Bama, Louisa Anna, Della Ware, Minne Sota.

A youngster at Boarding School is responsible for the following :—

I never saw a purple cow
I never hope to see one ;
But looking on the milk we get
I know that there must be one.

Clarie Cing—

Dear Sir : On April 5th 1910 your requested to meet me in asix round battle and aflight to finish to decide who is the best man.

Yoors truley
Clarence Conway
per Samual Doyal
My Private Secerty

