

ALUMNI

Red and White extends to all alumni best wishes for a Happy Easter.

Another Easter-tide has dawned upon us and we are asked to do our bit in editing this Alumni Department of Red and White. We take it as our duty to collect as much news as possible concerning the activities of our members and to dispatch it to their fellow brothers in this union, but often times we fall far short of the desired amount. We, as students, are placed at a great disadvantage in fulfilling the requirements of this department and we feel assured that our burden would be greatly alleviated by a small effort on the part of individual members. We, therefore, once more exhort members to fall in line and lend us a helping hand. Ex-students of recent years have been very generous and we gratefully solicit their future support, but we realize that older members would appreciate a touch of the "olden days." In order to accomplish this end, we ask the older members to correspond with the editor of this department and we assure you that it will be our greatest pleasure to chronicle any items of interest with which you may favor us. Thus, through the agency of this department, you will do your bit in making Red and White a bigger and better magazine.

Peter A. MacIntyre, '80, Dorchester, Mass., spent four months on the Island last summer during which time he and the genial Rev. A. J. matched their cunning in many a keen game of cribbage.

Dr. J. Mark Smith has been elected vice-president of the Guild of St. Apolario, a club of Catholic dentists in Boston. Congratulations.

While in such a mood we must chronicle the fact that Dr. Wm. H. Fisher, 601 Salem St., Malden, Mass., has taken unto himself a wife, a nurse from New York. Dr. Fisher is at present on the staff of the Children's Hospital, Boston. We wish them long and happy days.

Dr. Edwin Gillis and Dr. George MacKinnon are nearing the completion of their internships, the former at St. Vincent's Hospital, N. Y., and the latter at Boston City Hospital.

Dr. Roy Johnston is also doing dental internship at Worcester City Hospital and recently passed the Mass. State Board Examinations.

Dr. Chas. J. Kickham, office at 12 Ban State Rd., Boston, also joined the benedicts during the past summer. He was married to Miss Margaret MacIntyre, a sister of Ronnie of a few years back. Best wishes.

James S. Cannon, Lawyer, has been appointed by District Attorney Bishop to investigate the affairs of the Medford Trust Company in liquidation.

A. H. MacLellan is District Manager for Boston Mutual Life Ins. Co. at Quincy, Mass. He was a prominent member of his class at St. Dunstan's and also displayed his ability on the gridiron, acting as centre scrim in the olden days.

Dr. Harry MacLeod, also of the olden days, enjoys a lucrative practice at 544 Wash St., Dorchester. He and Mrs. MacLeod, nee Annie Payne of Charlottetown, entertain many alumni at their beautiful home on Brook Rd., Milton. His brother Ed. is an active partner in Kennedy's, Boston.

We are pleased to chronicle here the ordination to the priesthood of Rev. Anthony A. Francis, which took place in St. Dunstan's Basilica, Charlottetown, on Feb. 14. He was ordained by His Excellency, Bishop O'Sullivan and celebrated his first High Mass in the Basilica the following Sunday. He visited the college and said Mass here on the 27th of February. A few days later he returned to Halifax in which Arch-diocese he is stationed. We wish him long and happy years in the service of God.

Students of recent years will regret to learn of the illness of Cyril J. MacDonald, a prominent member of the graduation class of last year. Cyril entered St. Augustine's Seminary last September and was getting along well, but, owing to a muscular condition which developed, was compelled to return home a few days before Christmas. It was a sad surprise to all who knew him, as he was considered one of the most robust members of the senior class of last year. His condition, however, is improving and we trust he will be able to resume his studies in the near future.

During the past summer three of the graduates of '29 entered upon their studies in Theology; namely: Wilfred Keefe, Leonard Smith and Wilfred McCardle. The two former are in Grand Seminary, Quebec, and the latter in St. Augustine's, Toronto.

Alumni sympathy goes out to J. W. Gavin in the loss of his son in the tragic railroad accident which occurred near Tignish some time ago. Mr. Gavin himself, and Aiden Shea, another alumnus, were also seriously injured in the accident.

For the past few years it has been the custom to publish in this issue of Red and White the whereabouts of the class of ten years previous. The class of 1922 is as follows:

Theodore Arsenault, Ottawa.

Rev. Frank Campbell, Moose Jaw, Sask.

John F. Campbell, 587 Putnam Ave., Brooklyn, N.Y.

Elzear Cote, Rimouski, P. Q.

Sylvere DesRoches, lawyer, Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Gregory Gallant, deceased, (formerly of Charlottetown.)

Dr. Lucien Gelinas, 145 Ste. Catherine St. W., Montreal.

Rev. Urban Gillis, parish priest, Wellington, P. E. I.

Patrick Goodwin, deceased, (formerly of Kensington, P. E. I.)

Rev. Paul F. Hughes, 4800 Grand River Ave., Detroit.

Roland D. Howatt, Queen's University.

James Murphy, deceased, (formerly of Brookvale, P. E. I.)

Thos. W. Murtagh, Bruno, Sask.

Rev. Merlin McCarthy, Killam, Alta.

L. MacDonald, Grand Tracadie, P. E. I.

Wm. J. MacDonald, 305 Fitzroy St., Charlottetown,
P. E. I.

Rev. Walter McGuigan, St. Dunstan's Univ., Charlottetown, P. E. I.

Vincent Pineau, Golden, B. C.

Rev. Peter Sullivan, Warspite, Alta.

Bertram L. Walsh, Meacham, Sask.

Wm. Zaib, New York City, N. Y.

As we go to press, we receive the sad news of the death of Joseph A. Kelly who for the past number of years performed the duties of City Freight Agent in Charlottetown. He was a most highly esteemed and respected citizen of this city and his passing is learned with deepest regret. To relatives and friends Red and White extends sympathy.

For truth has such a face, and such a mien
As to be loved needs only to be seen.

Words are like leaves; and where they most abound
Much fruit of sense beneath is rarely found.
