

The Graduates

James Emmett Ayers — Commerce

"Nothing great has ever been achieved without enthusiasm."

Jim, born at Wellington, P.E.I., on Oct. 14, 1925, completed Grade X at the local school before he joined the R.C.N.V.R. as a telegraphist. After his discharge, he finished high school at P.W.C. before entering St. Dunstan's. While here, Jim achieved success in various activities both academic and athletic: Councillor C.C.C.S. '47; qualified as Captain in the infantry through COTC; and as a member of the football (captain in '50) and hockey teams for four years, he earned his bronze "D" in athletics. Jim intends to accept a commission in Canada's active Army. Jim, we wish you showers of blessings and the best of luck!

Francis Russell Beagan — Arts

"He is complete in feature and in mind
With every grace to grace a gentleman."

Russell was born at Donagh, P.E.I., on April 5, 1928. He received all his elementary education at Donagh School. In 1945, he enrolled at St. Dunstan's in Grade XI, and since then he has been a devoted student. His interest in extra-curricular activities, his good natured disposition, and his gentlemanly qualities have made him a valued member of the Senior class. May the best of everything be always yours, Russell!

Paul Emil Biron — Arts

"It is the prerogative of great men to have great defects."

Paul first saw the light of day on March 9, 1932. He completed his high school in Quebec Seminary and took three years of college in the same place after which he came to S.D.U. and is graduating this year, the youngest member of the class. A fine Christian gentleman, his ambition has always been to become a lawyer and next year he intends to study at Laval. Our best wishes to you, Paul, in your chosen career.

Yves Henry Bessette — Arts

"Once a gentleman, always a gentleman!"

Yves, whose birthplace is the little town of Deschail-lons, Quebec, is one student who really believes that variety is the spice of life. He is a skier and hockey player in winter, a sailor in summer, and a top notch tennis player when he can find the time. But Yves is not only a good athlete; he is also a keen student. He began his studies at the Seminaire du Trois Rivieres and is completing his course at St. Dunstan's with the intention of studying Pharmacy at Laval University. Good luck, Yves!

Linus Austin Bradley — Arts

"They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Austin was born on June 17, 1930, in Kelly's Cross and received his early education there. In 1945, he entered St. Dunstan's and from that time has proved himself an interested and capable student. Austin's unassuming disposition and conscientious sense of responsibilities insure success in any undertaking. For the future, he plans to study law and he leaves the campus with best wishes from his many friends.

Mary Irene Burge — Commerce

"She is her selfe of best things the collection."

Irene was born on March 10, 1931, at St. Peter's Bay.
After obtaining her early education at St. Peter's and Souris Convent, she entered P.W.C. in 1945, the recipient of a Bell Scholarship. The fall of 1947 brought Irene to St. Dunstan's where she has proven to be a capable student and a fine friend. The only girl in the first Commerce graduating class, Irene was secretary of I.S.S. and of the Sigma Delta Sorority this year. Irene makes no comment on the future but we wish her the best of everything.

Cyril Gilbert Callaghan — Arts

"I am part of all that I have met."

Our "Bun" was born in Charlottetown on March 24,
1927, and there received his early education at Queen

Square School, from where he entered St. Dunstan's. A brief service in the army did nothing to prevent Cyril from being a fine student. He was also a star football player and won his "D" in that sport. Two years in the C.O.T.C. have given him a commission in the Reserve Army. In his Junior year, he served as Vice-President of the A.A.A. Armed with an Arts degree, pre-med, "Bun" leaves St. Dunstan's headed for a career in medicine.

John Emmett Cash — Arts

"If you seek his monument, look around you."

John entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1945, after acquiring his primary education at Emerald and Kinkora. During his stay here, John has been a devoted student and has excelled in athletics. He won the coveted senior all-around trophy in track and field for four consecutive years, and has been a valuable member of the football team for three years. It was his brilliant try that brought St. Dunstan's the N.B.-P.E.I. rugby championship in 1948. This year he capably discharged his duties as President of the M.I.D.L. All the best, Johnny!

Gerald E. Clarke, B.C. — Arts

"Whatever is worth doing at all is worth doing well."

Mr. Clark was born in Ottawa in 1925. After completing his high school in Canada's capital, he served in the R.C.A.F. for three years. In 1946, he enrolled at St. Patrick's College and graduated with his commerce degree in 1949. Since then he has taught at St. Dunstan's in the commerce department and this year completed his studies for the B.A. degree. First and foremost, however, he is an exemplary family man and the father of two very active children.

Elisee Crete — Arts

"Un bon homme."

Born on April 6, 1929, at Prouxville, Quebec, Elisee received his early school there. He spent his first college years at the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres and from there he entered the Seminaire de Joliette. Last fall Elisee came to St. Dunstan's to complete his studies. He plans to study Pharmacy next year in Montreal. Bien du suivis, Elisee!

Guy Marc Chretien — Arts

"The morning glow of a new born star."

Born in Shawinigan Falls, Quebec, Guy is the typical bright personality. A flash in hockey, he revealed himself particularly brilliant in social life, and even added a faint glimmer to the bass section of our choir. He came here this year leaving a gleaming past in the Seminaire de Joliette, and with a few fading memories of the External Classique Ste. Croix. He has hopes of a bright future in Pharmacy. Keep her shining, Guy!

Robert Reginald Doucette — Arts

"Who knows nothing base Fears nothing known."

Reg, who was born at Rusticoville on November 22, 1927, enrolled at St. Dunstan's as a grade XI student in 1945. During his stay at St. Dunstan's, Reg has proved himself a capable student who has played a prominent part in many phases of college life. He was basketball manager, '48-'50; I.S.S. Committee, '48-'50; and President A.A.A. '50-'51. He has also played hockey, football, and basketball for his class teams. Reg will be long remembered for his efficiency and willingness to help others. His many friends at S.D.U. wish him everything of the best.

Thomas Edward Flynn — Science

"An honest man, a gentleman!"

Tommy was born at Charlottetown on September 15, 1929. He received his primary education at Queen Square School, and in the autumn of 1945 enrolled at St. Dunstan's. A popular member of the Senior class, Tommy was this year's president of the class debating society. He is also a member of the St. Dunstan's C.O.T.C., from which he will receive his commission next summer. Tommy has not yet decided upon a career, but we wish him much success and happiness in the future.

Raymond St. Clair Gallant — Arts

"A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance."

"Smokey" was born at Bloomfield in 1931. After receiving his early education at home, he attended Tignish

School where he won the Governor General's Medal for academic success in the entrance examinations. He entered St. Dunstan's in the autumn of 1945 and is one of the youngest members of the graduating class. Blessed with a jovial disposition, "Smokey" has proven himself a very efficient manager of the college canteen, which position he held this year. He plans to return to St. Dunstan's next year to work for his B.Sc.

Jacques Gilbert — Arts

"The man with the horn."

Born in the little town of Lac au Souman, P.Q., on January 13, 1932, Jacques moved to Victoriaville at an early age. After attending the College de Levis, he entered St. Dunstan's last fall. As a conscientious student he has earned the admiration of his fellow students. As an exceptional trumpet player he has been a valuable member of the Glee Club. Next year he plans to enter McGill University to study engineering physics. Best wishes for the future, Jacques!

Charles Barrett Gorman — Arts

"His life was gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that Nature might stand up,
And say to all the world, this was a man!"

Charlie, a Kensington boy, enrolled in Grade X in 1944 and is an original member of the Class of '51. A serious student and accomplished speaker, his hobby is school politics. In a campus-wide vote last year he was elected Student Union President, an onerous and responsible office which he handled with ease and distinction. Before his election to this chief executive position, he was active in other organizations: Executive I.S.S., '49-'50; President Junior Class, '49-'50. At Montreal last November, he was elected National Vice President of the Canadian Federation of Catholic University students. On leaving us now, Charlie, you have our best wishes for your future success and happiness.

Joseph Yvon Wildor Houde — Science

"And certainly he was a good felowe."

This popular student was born in Matane, P.Q., on the 29th of February, 1928. Before coming to St. Dunstan's as a Freshman four years ago, Wildor attended the Matane Academie and St. Joseph's High School in Berthierville. Besides satisfying the academic requirements for his science degree, he was an outstanding player on the senior hockey team where he won his athletic "D". Next year he plans to study dentistry at the University of Montreal. Bonne Chance, Wildor!

Sister Isabelle Clare — Arts

"Example is more efficacious than precept."

Sister Isabelle Clare, born Mildred MacIsaac, graduated from Prince of Wales College Normal School in 1944 and after teaching school for two years came to St. Dunstan's where she enrolled in Sophomore year. The following year she entered the Novitiate at Mount St. Mary's. In 1949 she returned to St. Dunstan's to resume her academic work. During her three years here, she has proven herself an exemplary student and this year receives with honors her Bachelor of Arts degree.

George Louis Keefe — Arts

"Most joyful let the poet be;

It is through him that all men see."

On April 13, 1930, George was born at Miscouche. For his early education George attended school at Miscouche, Queen Square, Thistle and Shamrock, and Kinkora. In the fall of 1947, St. Dunstan's received an asset in the personage of "Genial George". During his sojourn at S.D.U., he has been particularly prominent in various societies: Councillor in the Dramatic Society, 1948-49; Councillor in M. I. D. L. and participated in two intercollegiate debates; RED and WHITE, Assistant Business Manager, 1948-49, Assistant Editor, 1949-50, Editor-in-Chief, 1950-51. As a result of his many contributions, much of it poetry, to RED and WHITE, he has merited the literary "D" and gold pin. For the immediate future, at least, George plans to enter the teaching profession.

Albert Francis Lannan — Commerce

"No personal consideration stands in his way in performing a public duty."

Bert first came to St. Dunstan's from Souris High School in 1943. After completing his Grade XII here, he joined the R.C.A.F. from where he was later transferred to the Army with which branch of the armed forces he served overseas. He returned to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1945 but was forced to discontinue. After a lapse of two years, during which time he taught school, Bert entered Freshman Commerce and since then has been an avid student. He leaves this year with the best wishes of all.

Francis Joseph Ledwell — Arts

"Thou hast made him a little lower than the Angels."

Frank was born at St. Peter's Bay on April 14, 1930, and entered St. Dunstan's in 1944. After completing high school, he taught school for one year returning to St. Dunstan's in 1947. During his years at St. Dunstan's, Frank has been a capable student who took an active interest in many extra-curricular activities. His chief interests have been debating, athletics, and choir singing. To this man of high Christian principles we extend our wishes for future success.

Duncan Peter MacDonald — Arts

"He was a man, take him for all in all,
I shall not look upon his like again."

"Dunc", as he is usually known, was born on Christmas Eve, 1929, at St. Andrew's but now resides in Selkirk. Before coming to St. Dunstan's in 1945, "Dunc" received his primary education at Monticello, Armadale and St. Peter's schools. While at St. Dunstan's, he participated in all interclass sports, and was a member of the A.A.A. during 1949-50, as manager of softball and pool. He plans to spend one year teaching and afterwards to study social work at St. Patrick's School of Social Work, Ottawa. So long, "Dunc", and all the best!

Ernest James MacDonald — Arts

"The gentleman is a Christian product."

The scene: Cardigan. The date: May 28, 1928. The occasion: Ernie's birthday. To add to the early education he received at Cardigan, Ernie came to St. Dunstan's in 1945. He has always been a fine student and from the efficient and friendly manner which he has fulfilled important executive positions on the campus, we can say that he is a responsible gentleman. He was Vice-President of the A. A. A. in '48-'49; Secretary of the A.A.A. in '49-'50; Secretary of the Students' Union in '50-'51. His service in the C. O. T. C. has qualified him as a commissioned officer in the Reserve Army. He intends to study social work at Ottawa University. To a truly "great man", we wish the best.

Stephanie L. W. MacDonald — Science

"Excellent things are rare."

Stephanie, born in Charlottetown in 1930, came to St. Dunstan's in 1949 for her Junior year. Previously, she attended Model School, Rustico Convent, and Prince of Wales College. While at P.W.C., "Steve", as she is familiarly known, was a star basketball player. "Steve" leaves St. Dunstan's with her B.Sc., and plans to write the Registered Technologist's examinations to complete her laboratory technician's course. Best wishes, Stephanie!

Mark Rudolph MacGuigan — Arts

"To do easily what is difficult for others is the test of talent."

Mark came to St. Dunstan's in autumn, 1949, from Charlottetown where he was born on February 17, 1931. Previous to enrolling at St. Dunstan's, this remarkable student attended Queen Square School and Prince of Wales College, graduating from both with academic distinction. Last year, he was a member of the Dominion Final Debating Team and is the first student in the history of S.D.U. to win his Debating "D" in one year. Last summer, he was chosen to represent the College at the International Students' Seminar at Potigny, France. This year besides being an efficient Business Manager of RED and WHITE and winning his Literary "D", he served on the I. S. S. and M.I.D.L. Committees, as well as the Students' Union. Mark is above all a fine friend and a true Christian gentleman. Of his future, we predict great things; and we wish this exemplary graduate all the best.

Murvin Edward McInnis — Arts

"No man less proud than he,
Nor cared for homage less."

Born on May 9, 1930, at Elliotvale, Murvin received his primary education in the public schools at Elliotvale and Baldwin's Road. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1945, and for the past six years he has shown himself a capable student who has devoted much time to student activities. For the last two years, he has been Secretary and President respectively of the C.C.S.MC. His frankness and friendliness have won him many friends. Whatever your profession, Murvin, we wish you the best!

Wilbert Collins McInnis—Arts

"He profits most who serves best."

Born in Charlottetown on June 29, 1929, "Will" received his early education at Queen Square School and enrolled at St. Dunstan's in 1945. A member of the College Choir since 1946, Secretary of the Glee Club, '48-'49, President of the I.S.S. this year, and an Officer Cadet in the UNTD, he has proved himself to be a reliable and conscientious worker, deeply interested in student affairs. We wish you the best in everything, Will!

John Archibald MacLellan — Science

"There goes a man."

John, born at Glencorradale, P.E.I., completed his high school studies at Souris. In 1946, after having served with the navy for almost five years, he entered Prince of Wales College, and graduated in 1949. The same year, he arrived at St. Dunstan's to continue his studies. John's time is well taken up, for he is not only a keen student, but has various duties as a Lieutenant in the Naval Reserve; and, last but not least, he is a family man with two children. We wish him success in whatever future course he steers.

Donald Joseph MacPhee — Science

"Good humor makes all things tolerable."

Born at Summerside on April 28, 1929, Don attended Summerside High School before he entered S.D.U. as a freshman in 1947. A conscientious and keen student with a friendly personality, he has gained the respect and the friendship of all who know him. Next year Don will study medicine at McGill, where we know he will enhance his own name and the name of our college.

John Elmer MacPhee — Science

"In every deed of mischief he had a heart to resolve, a head to contrive, and a hand to execute."

Strange as it may seem, October 8, 1925, was a fine day in Souris, although on that day "Skinny" MacPhee was born. After attending Souris High School for ten years, he became a man of the world for four years, sixteen months of which were spent in the R.C.N.V.R. While at St. Dunstan's, he has taken an active part in athletics, this year was a Humor Editor of RED and WHITE, and served this year also as Chairman of the Thursday socials. Three years in the COTC have earned him a Captaincy in the Reserve Army. Our best wishes to Elmer who hopes to add a D.D.S. to his B.Sc.

Henry Joseph Marquis — Arts

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

"Hank" was born on March 25, 1930, in Saint John, N.B. His primary and secondary education was taken at St. John the Baptist School and St. Vincent's High School. His four years at St. Dunstan's have proven him a capable student and have won him many friends. After graduation, he plans to study law at U. N. B. We are all sure that he will make a success in his chosen profession.

Charles Thomas Morrissey — Arts

"Iuvenis summae virtutis est."

"Chuck", as he is familiarly known, was born in Newton Cross on January 31, 1929. This affable student came to St. Dunstan's in 1944. After three years study, he took up the teaching profession in his home school for one year. Anxious to obtain more education, he returned to St. Dunstan's to finish his Arts course. He took part in many of the athletic activities on the campus. Whatever his future work might be, we may rest assured that he will be a worthy son of his Alma Mater.

Margaret Ann Mulligan — Science

"She came into this world below,
With drear November's fog and snow."

Yes, but Margaret's arrival on November 19, 1930, warmed the hearts of many in spite of the snow. She received her elementary education in Newton and Kinkora. In 1947, she came to St. Dunstan's where, as secretary of the Dramatic Society and a member of the Student's Union Executive Council, she displayed initiative and capability. We know Margaret for her cheerful smile and all round friendliness. On her future she has no comment, but, considering her capacity for doing things well, we know it will be a success. Best of luck, Marge!

Dunstan Peter Murphy — Science

"A wise man cares not for what he cannot have."

"Murph" was born at Cardigan on May 21, 1927, and there he received his early education before coming to St. Dunstan's in 1944. One of our best all round athletes, "Murphy" was runner-up in the annual track and field meet for four years, holds the record for the standing broad jump, and has won his "D" in football. For the past two years he has been a member of the U.N.T.D. Dunstan plans to study social work at Ottawa University next year. May his future be as bright as his past.

Rosaire Nadeau — Arts

"The cautious seldom err."

Rosaire was born at St. Leonard, N. B., on February 16, 1930. Before coming to S.D.U. Rosaire spent five years at St. Joseph's University at Memramcook. Possessed of a quiet temperament, Rosaire entered St. Dunstan's noiselessly and will leave without having caused any trouble. His spare time was spent writing letters to Georgine. It is Rosaire's ambition to become a dentist. We hope he will have a happy life in his chosen profession.

Earl Michael O'Brien — Arts

"Smooth runs the water where the brook is deep."

Born in Elmsdale, P.E.I., on August 44, 1929, Earl attended his home school for several years after which he completed his high school at Tignish. Earl came to St. Dunstan's in 1947 and while here has been a sincere student who has done his work quietly and efficiently. He has not yet decided about his future but we know he will be a success in whatever field he may undertake.

Leonard Alphonsus O'Hanley — Arts

"Easy does it!"

This easy going, friendly young man, whom we call "Pic", was born at Monticello, P.E.I., on June 30, 1930, and there received his early education. During his stay at St. Dunstan's, "Pic" has been one of the most prominent figures in his class. He has been a leading performer in intramural sports; for three years he served on the staff of RED and WHITE from which magazine he has won his Literary "D"; and this year he is President of the Senior Class. Although he is undecided about the future, we predict one filled with happiness.

Gustave Plante — Arts

"A swing, a hit, a run."

The curly-headed Gus is first and foremost a baseball pitcher. He made his first appearance on June 29, 1929, in Armagh, Quebec, where he began a two-fold career in studies and sports, excelling in both. His whole student life was one big play—a home run. Home plate: Seminaire de Quebec; first base: College de Levis; second base: College St. Laurent de Montreal; third base: St. Dunstan's; and back to home plate with medicine at Laval. Keep her flying, Gus!

William Joseph Ready — Science

"Work and worry have killed many a good man,
So why should I take a chance?"

In Charlottetown on May 9, 1929, Bill was ushered into the world. And there, at Queen Square School, he received his early education before entering St. Dunstan's. In his seven years among us the "Fox", as he is familiarly called, has made a friend of everyone he has met. His four years of service on the basketball team have won him his athletic "D", and his experience as a member of the COTC has qualified him for a commission in Canada's Army. The Army, too, seems to have the priority on Bill's immediate services. To a true friend go our prayers and best wishes for a happy future.

Brendan Thomas Andrew Redmond — Arts

"Who mixed reason with pleasure, and wisdom with mirth;
If he has any faults, he has left us in doubt."

On August 17, 1931, Andy was born at Corraville, P. E. I. He acquired his early education at Corraville and Cardigan High School. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's in 1945, and since then has been an accomplished student prominent in many campus activities. Last year, he was elected secretary of the A.A.A. This year, he is a valued member of M.I.D.L., where he has proved himself an able debater. His many gentlemanly qualities leave no doubt that his future efforts will be crowned with success. Cheerio, Andrew!

Jerryldine Robertson — Arts

"Her voice was ever soft,
Gentle, and low,—an excellent thing in woman."

"Jerry" was born in Vancouver, B.C., where she received her primary education before moving to Toronto in 1945. Before she came to S.D.U. in 1947, Jerry attended Notre Dame Academy and P.W.C. Her varied participation in campus activities have made her one of the best known personalities among us. In '48-'49, she served as Councillor for the C.C.S.M.C.; last year, she was Vice-President of the M.I.D.L. and a member of the I.S.S. Committee; this year she was President of the Glee Club. Next year, she intends to study social welfare at the University of Montreal. She will surely be a very good and pretty social worker. Best of luck to you, Jerry!

Katherine Bernice Roche — Arts

"She doeth little kindnesses
Which most leave undone, or despise."

After teaching school for four years, Kay came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948. Her wholehearted co-operation in anything she was called upon to do and her ever cheerful disposition have helped to win her many friends and much esteem. Besides being on the staff of RED and WHITE during '49-'50 and '50-'51, she was a member of M.I.D.L. and took part in dramatics and Glee Club activities. Kay plans to continue teaching and to her in her chosen profession go our best wishes for success.

Wilbert Eugene Rooney — Arts

"A man he seems of cheerful yesterdays
And confident tomorrows."

Wilbert was born at Orwell Cove on June 5, 1928, received his primary education there, and entered St. Dunstan's in January 1944. Since then, Wilbert has been a popular member of his class and of the student body and is a second Officer Cadet in the COTC. His favourite musical selection is the song "Eileen". We all join in wishing him every success in the future.

John Joseph Louis Shreenan — Commerce

"The secret of happiness is not in doing what one likes
But in liking what one has to do."

"Joe" was born in Kinkora on January 12, 1930, where he later received his primary and secondary education. He came to St. Dunstan's in 1946 where his genial nature soon won him the friendship and esteem of his fellow students. Joe takes an active part in many campus activities and last year was manager of the hockey team. For the past two years, he has been a member of the senior football and hockey teams. A good student—a good sport, that is the secret of Joe's popularity on the campus.

Donald Francis Joseph Sigsworth, B.Sc. — Arts

"Why should the devil have all the fun?"

Frank was born in Charlottetown on January 18, 1929. He received his early education at Queen Square School and later attended P.W.C. before entering St. Dunstan's in 1948. After receiving his B.Sc. here last spring, Frank returned in the fall to obtain a B.A. For the second consecutive year he was chosen a Humor Editor of RED and WHITE. This year he also served on the executive of the Dramatic Society and was a member of the M.I.D.L. His fine character and jovial personality have made Frank one of our most esteemed personages. We wish him every success in the future.

Earl Philip Smith — Commerce

"The only way to have a friend is be one."

"Barkis" hails from Webster's Corner where he was born on December 6, 1928. After attending the local school there, he entered St. Dunstan's in 1945. This year "Barkis" has been a member of the Executive of the A. A. A.; and as a result of three years in the U.N.T.D., he is qualified as a Sub-Lieutenant. He played all intramural sports. As one of the "pioneers" of the Commerce degree at S.D.U., we wish "Barkis" success in his future undertakings.

Ernest Alfred Smith, Jr. — Science

“.....describe him who can,
An abridgement of all that is pleasant in man.”

Born in New York City, Ernie received his early education there before moving to Bridgeport, Connecticut, where he now resides. He enlisted in the United States Marine Corps in 1942 and served with distinction in the Pacific theatre of operations until 1946. He entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1947 and since then has become a real "Islander". A conscientious and capable student, interested in every student activity, Ernie is highly popular with his classmates. The host of friends which he leaves at St. Dunstan's wish him every success in his chosen work in the field of medicine.
