

ALUMNI

George F. Bradley entered the Jesuit Order in 1905. He has spent two years at Sault-au-Recollet, Montreal, also two years at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., and is now studying Philosophy at Immaculate Conception College, Montreal.

Austin, Bradley '06, and Frank D. Macdonald '06, are doing second year classics in the Jesuit College at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Frank J. Macdonald, '07, is studying first year classics at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

J. P. Monaghan, '10, is enrolled at Sault-au-College, Montreal.

Reverend T. E. Cullen for some time assistant Rector of the Cathedral in St. Paul, Minn., has been appointed pastor of the Immaculate Church of Minneapolis, and is now engaged in building a pro-Cathedral that will cost $750,000 when finished.

Jas. A. Ready, '97, was with us for a few days during January. Mr. Ready now resides at his home in Kensington, but was for some years Editor of the Summerside Journal, and was obliged to give up work on that paper owing to eye failure brought on by over work. Mr. Ready was at one time Professor of Latin and Rhetoric at this College and Editor of The Collegium.

Rev. J. A. Donahoe, '00, now in St. Paul, Minn., is attached to the Cathedral staff and is also teaching in one of the leading colleges of that city.

Jas. A. McKenzie, '12, and Alban Macdonald, '13, left a few weeks ago for Regina, Sask.

Robert Morrison, '13, has taken up his residence in Charlottetown and is energetically engaged in the contracting business.

John Sark, '12, is successfully meeting the pedagogical needs at Lennox Island.

John Mackinnon, '12, is Head Master of Goose River Academy, King's Co

Arthur Wrayton and Æneas Walker, 1st year students of the '08-'09 class, are attending Business College, the former in his home town of Halifax and and the latter at Vancouver, B. C.

Frank O'Neil, '09, is pursuing the law course at Dalhousie College, Halifax.

Fred Conroy, '04, has completed his course in law and was admitted to the Bar a few weeks ago. He intends to practice at Prince Rupert.

Edgar Bournival and L. A. Ricard, '08, are law students at Laval Univ., Quebec.

Mr. P. J. MacLellan, a former teacher at King's Co., and for a long time a friend of S. D. C., is studying philosophy at Immaculate Conception College, Montreal.

Mr. Adolphus MacIntyre, '07, hold a good position in Moyie, B. C., as principal of one of the leading schools of that town.

Justin P. Gallagher is the new manager of the Hotel Minto, Moncton, N. B. and we doubt not that he will bring to the management of that well known hostelry the same energy as characterized his work at S. D. C.

J. M. Breunan, '12, who has been attending St. Charles college. Baltimore, has been obliged to discontinue his studies for a time owing to impaired eyesight.

We take this opportunity to extend to Dr. Romeo Oeuillette, '09, whose marriage took place at Riviere du Loup, P. Q. on January 10th.

Mr. George Parent, '01, member for Montmerency in the Federal parliament is making a name for himself in the field of politics. In the civic elections recently held in Quebec city, Mr. Parent was head organizer of the party which elevated Mr. Drouin to the highest office in the gift of Quebec's citizens.

Ray Gillis, '07, and Joseph Daly, '09, at present in Oxford College, England, have been teaching the Europeans a few things about hockey. The Canadian team to which they belong have the honor of being the Champions of Europe. The accounts to hand make special mention of Gillis and they state also that Daly on one occasion at least saved his team from defeat. We may add that Daly was at one time a member of a team which defeated the Whirlwinds so that it is nothing new for him to experience the glories of hockey.
