IN MEMORIAM

Because of the nature of this column it is necessary to publish events which cause sadness as well as those which cause joy to our readers. Therefore, with sincere sorrow, we relate the passing of three stalwart sons of St. Dunstan's.

Reverend Frank Hughes, B. A., '09, was born in Bedford, P. E. I. He graduated from St. Dunstan's in 1909 and, after studying Theology for two and one half years, was ordained to the Holy Priesthood. He was a parish priest in Calgary for a number of years until his health failed him three years ago when he went to Montreal. Recovery seemed impossible and finally in September last, he passed to his eternal reward. May he rest in peace.

On September 29, the parishioners of a large parish in Minneapolis were saddened to learn of the death of their pastor, Reverend Thomas Cullen, '91. Father Cullen was a native of P. E. I. and attended St. Dunstan's from '89 to '91. May God have mercy on his soul.

Another Alumnus, Mr. Patrick Cullen, '91, met his death suddenly on October 22nd. Mr. Cullen was born in Hope River. He is survived by three brothers and one sister to whom Red and White extends sympathy. Requiescat in pace.

ST. DUNSTAN'S CHARITY CLUB OF BOSTON

At a dinner in the Hotel Kenmore, Boston, on June 20th last, the St. Dunstan's Charity Club celebrated its twentieth anniversary. It does not rank yet among societies of antiquity, but certain remarkable features make the occasion worth noting. First, it has been a charitable club, and that motive has been the sole aim of its existence; although the members all attest they've had a tremendous amount of social enjoyment besides. Secondly, its membership has necessarily been limited; but small though it has been it has survived for twenty years the fearful onslaught modern social customs make on such organizations. Thirdly it has gathered together a considerable number of St. Dunstan's alumni, their wives, and friends, and has thus kept alive and reawakened interest in the old College and things at home. We feel that this interest has been of mutual benefit; we know that no more loyal group of alumni can be found than the ones who have been members of this Club.

At the dinner Dr. J. B. Brown was "Master of Ceremonies", and called on the President, Mr. A. H. MacLellan, who outlined the history of the club and of its activities. He recalled its foundation, at the instigation of the late Monsignor J. C. MacKenzie, then pastor of Revelstoke, B. C. It was to assist him financially in his missionary work; Dr. P. A. Hennebery was the first President. The Club subsequently assisted many other Island priests in the Home Missions of Western Canada, to the extent of many thousands of dollars. At the College, too, we have been recipients of their gifts on several occasions: the latest one was made last year—a contribution to the Science Building fund.

Father McKenzie of the College Staff had the privilege of being present for the anniversary celebration. Red and White offers congratulations to the Club, and wishes it many years of continued success.

Faith makes the discords of the present the harmonies of the future.
