

ALUMNI

Two worthy sons of St. Dunstons, Messrs Thomas P. Butler and John McCarthy, both of class of '36 are to be ordained to the Holy Priesthood in June.

Rev. Leonard J. Ayers, '36, was ordained at the Immaculate Conception Church, Wellington, by Bishop O'Sullivan on May 18th. Red and White wishes him many happy years in the service of Christ.

Red and White extends congratulations to Messrs Arthur MacGuigan and Pius Callaghan, graduates of '33, on their admission to the bar. Since their graduation these men have been studying law in the offices of Hon. Frank MacPhee and Mr. Alban Farmer respectively.

Mr. Emile Morin, '21, law officer to the Department of Municipal Affairs and Secretary of the Quebec Municipal Commission, has been appointed Assistant Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs, Trade and Commerce. Red and White wishes him success in his new endeavours.

Felicitations are extended to Mr. Frank Hennessey and his bride, formerly Dorothy Saunders, Charlottetown, on their recent marriage which took place in St. Patrick's Church, Montreal.

Rev. J. K. MacIsaac, D. D., '25, editor of the Northwest Review, is military chaplain at Winnipeg.

Rev. Robert Ramsay, C. S. P., '33, was ordained in Toronto together with a number of other Paulists by Archbishop McGuigan on January 28th last.

We congratulate Honourable Senator George Parent, '01, on his recent appointment as Speaker of the Senate at Ottawa.

Red and White congratulates Mr. E. J. Gallant, '05, on his recent appointment as Post Master at Charlottetown.

Dr. J. A. MacMillan, '26, brilliant graduate of St. Dunstan's and McGill Universities, who has been on the staff of St. Mary's Hospital, Montreal, for the past two years, will open office in Charlottetown in June.

Rev. A. A. MacAulay, '87, was a distinguished visitor at the College recently. Father MacAulay will celebrate the Golden Jubilee of his ordination to the Priesthood this summer.

Other visitors to their Alma Mater during the term were: Mr. Richard Johnston, ex '91, Boston, Major J. F. MacMillan, '25, of the C. A. S. F., Mr. Charles McQuaid '39, who has been studying Chemical Engineering for the past year at Toronto University, and Mr. Vincent Connolly, '37.

Mr. Wilfred Callaghan '30, is completing his study of medicine at Dalhousie University this spring, it is the sincere hope of St. Dunstan's that a long and successful career awaits him.

Messrs Fred Lynch, S. J., and Joseph Monaghan, S. J., both of the class of '29, will be ordained to the Priesthood in August. Ad multos annos!

A shroud of sadness was cast over St. Dunstan's recently when the Angel of Death descended to claim the soul of one of her distinguished sons, Rev. J. F. Johnston '93. Until his retirement to the Sacred Heart Home a few years ago, Father Johnston laboured in various parishes throughout the diocese. To his many friends and relatives Red and White extends sincere sympathy. Requiescat in Pace.

The new football field is nearing completion. St. Dunstan's is sincerely grateful to Alumni for this splendid manifestation of their interest in their old Alma Mater.

The following is a list of the graduates of '20, showing their occupations and places of residence. May the Alumni of future years attain such success in the world as have these stalwart sons of St. Dunstan's.

Andre Arsenault—Rector of Commercial Academy, Grindstone, Magdalene Islands.

C. A. Brouillard—
 Gerald Dalton—deceased.
 Norbert Hughes—deceased.
 James Johnston—Lawyer at Charlottetown.
 Joseph Higgins—Teacher at Georgetown, P. E. I.
 Dominique LaBerge—Newspaper man on the staff of La Presse, Montreal.
 Charles Landry—Dentist at St. Pascal.
 Hector Lavalee—Medical Doctor, P. Q.
 Leo MacDonald—Captain of Sixth District Signals, Sidney
 George McCabe—Parish Priest at Central Bedeque, P.E.I.
 Patrick McQuaid—Parish Priest at Leduc, Alberta.
 Donet Melancon—Medical Doctor, Montreal.
 Gavan Monaghan—Priest on the College staff.
 Lucien Morin—Chemist, Three Rivers, Quebec.
 Patrick Murphy—School Inspector in Saskatchewan.
 Howard McNeill—Parish Priest at Villeneuve, Alberta.
 Louis Pouliot, S. J., Montreal.
 Eugene Rooney—Parish Priest at West Lock, Alberta.
 Charles Sirois—
 Patrick Walsh—Parish Priest at Palmer Road, P. E. I.

We have not been able to ascertain the whereabouts of C. A. Brouillard or C. F. Sirois. We know they are somewhere in their native province of Quebec, and would be pleased to renew contacts with them.

Nine-tenths of the miseries and vices of mankind proceed from idleness. —Thomas Carlyle