

ALUMNI

Along with the natural happiness that comes with the long sunny days of spring, there comes to us at this season a more elevated kind of happiness which is provoked by the feast of Easter with recollections of the great event it symbolizes. That this Easter season bring to all the "Old Boys" an overflow of true blessings is the sincere wish of Red and White.

Captain John A. MacDonald, B. A., '38, of P. E. I. H., home on a furlough recently, paid a visit to his Alma Mater.

Flying Officer Charles Trainor, B. A., '38, who is a flight instructor, has returned to his duties after spending a furlough at his home.

Mr. Thomas Holland, B. A., '40, a member of the College staff during the past year, has received a Commission in the Navy.

Mr. Phillip Doyle, B. A., '31, has recently joined the R. C. A. F.

We are pleased to note that Mr. John Coyle, B. A., '40, Mr. James Roach, ex '38, and Mr. Albert Steele, ex '40, have returned to Charlottetown after having spent a successful hockey season with Truro Bearcats, Halifax Crescents, and Pictou Regals, respectively.

Congratulations are extended to the following Alumni on the event of their recent marriages:

Hector Buote to Eva Arsenault.
Gerald Handrahan to Deliva Cahill.
Leavitt Kenny to Alice Doyle.
Fred Callaghan to Irene Cameron.
Maurice Redmond to Loretta Campbell.

St. Dunstan's was pleased to welcome the following Alumni who were visitors to the College recently: Rt. Rev. Maurice MacDonald, Rev. Phelan McKenna, Rev. J. D. McNeill, Rev. Rupert O'Neil, Rev. Dr. M. J. Smith, Rev. N. Poirier, and Mr. Vincent McQuaid.

IN MEMORIAN

Senator J. J. Hughes

By the death of Senator J. J. Hughes on March 15th last, we lose another of our active and interested Alumni. Senator Hughes, having had but a short sojourn at college in his youth, was for the most part a self-educated man, and those acquainted with him know how extensive that education was. Senator Hughes had an enviable record in public life, and he was at all times a man of honor and integrity. In recent years his speeches in the Senate, which were marked for their noble and accurate Christian view point, were widely quoted in the Catholic press. By his death St. Dunstan's loses a very special friend and adviser: for twenty-five years he was a member of the board of governors at the College and was always faithful to his duties in that capacity. May he rest in peace.

James D. Campbell

On January 14th Mr. James Campbell passed from this life. He was born at Millcove, P. E. I. After leaving St. Dunstan's in 1892, he taught school for a time, and from 1914 until his retirement several years ago worked in the Marine and Fisheries Department at Charlottetown. Red and White extends sincere sympathy to his relatives and friends. Requiescat in pace.

Frank Dean

Last December Mr. Frnk Dean, who was the oldest living lay alumnus of St. Dunstan's, having registered here 76 years ago, died at the Charlottetown Hospital. He was a frequent visitor and enthusiastic admirer of his Alma Mater. To his bereaved wife and family Red and White extends sincere sympathy. May he rest in peace.

George Morrison

Towards the end of December the soul of George Morrison was called away by the Angel of Death. Mr. Morrison graduated from St. Dunstan's in 1916. He was a resident of Souris where he was a successful druggist. To his relatives and friends St. Dunstan's extends sympathy. May his soul rest in peace.

Bad men excuse their faults: good men will leave them.
—Ben Jonson

Refinement is the delicate aroma of Christianity.
—Charlotte M. Yonge

The more we study, the more we discover our ignorance.

—Shelley