

ALUMNI

Ex Saints! This department is exclusively yours. Why not make use of it? Alma Mater, ever solicitous for the welfare of her sons, while in residence, loses not her interest in them when they go forth to swell the Alumni ranks. Won't you reciprocate, Ex Students? Write the Editor of this department, at any time. He is at your service. Let him know of the field of endeavour, occupation, etc., of former students, that through the columns of this magazine, the world may hear of the success of the sons of "Old St. Dunstan's." Alumni of S. D. U., Red and White wishes you a very Merry Xmas, a Happy and Holy New Year.

The time draws near the birth of Christ:
The moon is hid; the night is still;
The Christmas bells from hill to hill
Answer each other in the mist.—Tennyson.

I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, Good-will to men!—Longfellow.

'Tis only noble to be good.—Tennyson.
