

What Are Trites and Why is a Mallet?

They told me that Neil came from Moncton
And the sheik of that village was he;
The girls wept when he left for St. Dunstan's
To seek wisdom and the gay world to see.

Now Newcastle sent Neil a chum, rare one,
Was it you Al, who led him astray
And took him to call on the fair one
And told him that Sap was away?

But Sap kept both eyes on the lady, oh
A competent suitor is he,
Who leaves Neil to play with the radio
Or take Al to Milton's for tea.

Now the sheik that in Moncton is plenty
Needs more speed with Saint's Men around
Even Newcastle's quite a bit scanty
When Sap is the rival they found.

—Crawley Moses.

Saint's Men are especially invited to see the New Shirts and Ties shown this week.
There's a wonderful shirt for a Dollar !
