

St. Dunstan's Red and White

Ex eodem fonte fides et scientia

---

Vol. XXX.

APRIL, 1939

No. 2

---

Resurrection

Safe in bewildering days this promise holds us;
Wraps us about in splendour — wings our life.
Safe from all unbelief this truth enfolds us;
Arms and sustains us in the darker strife.

Beggared were we of light without this vision
That glorifies the midnight of our years;
This tale that outlives hatreds and derision
Gives life to death and comforting to tears.

—Lucy Gertrude Clarkin.