

---

ALUMNI

---

Merlin McCarthy, '22, was ordained to the priesthood at Rollo Bay on April 11th by His Lordship Bishop O'Leary. Father McCarthy left some time ago for Edmonton, the field of his future work.

St. Clair Duffy, M. D., a former student, has graduated from McGill University, Montreal. Dr. Duffy intends taking a post-graduate course next year. Red and White extends to him best wishes for a successful career.

John Smith and Reginald McKinnon, who formerly attended St. Dunstan's, have graduated from Harvard Dental College. Dr. McKinnon has the distinction of having been elected president of his class.

Another Alumnus of St. Dunstan's, Walter McGuigan received Holy Orders on May 9th at Charlottetown. Father McGuigan graduated in 1922 obtaining a B. A., degree; he studied theology at Grand Seminary, Quebec.

Dr. J. L. Lamy, Nose and Throat specialist, has an extensive practice in Ottawa. Dr. Lamy attended St. Dunstan's during 1904-06.

William Monaghan, a former student, is at present employed in St. Louis, Mo.

James B. Johnston, B.A., '20, who has been studying law in the office of J. J. Johnston, K. C., was admitted to the Bar as an Attorney and Barrister on May 4th.

William D. Brennan, B. A. '25, is principal of Souris High School.

Urban Gillis, '22, will be ordained at Grand River by Bishop O'Leary early in June.

In this the final issue of Volume XVII of Red and White, the Editor avails himself of the opportunity of thanking those who have in any way helped this department. Still he has not received the co-operation that might be given; for, surely ex-Saints are more numerous than the Alumni Columns would indicate. If you use these Columns more, you will feel that you are students yet rather than Alumni—though living remote from the University.