

goes to the archdiocese of Edmonton under Archbishop O'Leary. Our prayers and best wishes for a fruitful life accompany these young priests.

Since Easter a few changes have been made in the parishes of the diocese, Rev. F. X. Gallant has been transferred from Bloomfield to Egmont Bay, Rev. Father Gaudet has taken his place and to fill the vacancy at Hope River, Father W. V. McDonald has been taken from the Cathedral staff, Charlottetown.

Red and White extend its congratulations and good wishes to Frank Lockerby and Edmund Aucoin, last year's students who have joined the "Benedicts."

---

Exchanges.

That most obdurate of censors, the business manager, has just issued an order, that, on account of financial difficulties, all trivial matters such as appeared in this column must be eliminated from this issue. We are, therefore, forced to confine ourselves to acknowledging with thanks: De Paul Minerval, St. Joseph's Prep. Chronicle, The Argosy, Acadia Athenaeum, Oberlin College Magazine, Xaverian, The Memorare, King's College Record and University Monthly.