SO WHAT?

The editorial staff of ACTION, a RED and WHITE supplement, wishes to introduce ACTION to you. ACTION intends to present to the readers of RED and WHITE some considerations of questions which are of importance to the university. It hopes to be an honest voice of the students and faculty and stimulate its readers to a personal consideration of the questions it deals with.

It is the hope of the staff of ACTION that if the student body feels, after careful consideration, that there should be some action taken to improve themselves or the institution that they will endeavour to do so.

HOW?

The first edition of ACTION presents two informal discussions loosely centered around the question what is a university. The first discussion is held with three of the faculty, Fr. Frank Ledwell, Mr. Kevin Boggins, and . . .

Mr. Marshall Conley. The second is held with five members of the student body Mr. Danny Malone, Miss Margaret Duffy, Mr. Bernard Cahill, Mr. Allan Douchette and Mr. Ted DeCoste. Both discussions are chaired by Mr. Jimmie Dorsey.

We hope that these discussions shall present some what of a cross-cut of opinion among students and faculty and that they will stimulate thought and discussion among the student body.
