

Students Striving Towards Understanding

One of the newer associations on campus is the International Students' Society. The students participating aim at a better understanding of themselves by discussing their own personal problems, and also a better understanding of Canadians through a cultural exchange of ideas.

The executive looks after the administration of the society but the success of their meetings depends upon the active participation of the students themselves. Two new members to the executive were appointed recently -- Barry Van de Moere from New Jersey, U.S.A., vice-president, and Carmelita Ko from Hong Kong as secretary.

The society has had a variety of projects. One of the most successful has been the International Students' Night -- a show staged for the benefit of all students. On Pax Romana Day and other occasions, seminars and forums are held to further international understanding. Trips to the outlying areas have the same purpose; the students returning from the trips report to the society so that everyone may benefit. Of course, these are not one-sided projects; Canadians also can get an insight into other cultures and so learn to understand them better by attending International Student projects.

General meetings of the International Students' Society are open to any student who wishes to attend. This is an opportunity to learn first hand the problems of the foreign students.

The West Indian Steel Band from Dalhousie has been lined up on a tentative basis for this year. A more definite announcement will be made later. This season's seminars and forums will be as timely and thought provoking as those of other years.

The forgotten society

By MARCIA ARSENAULT '63

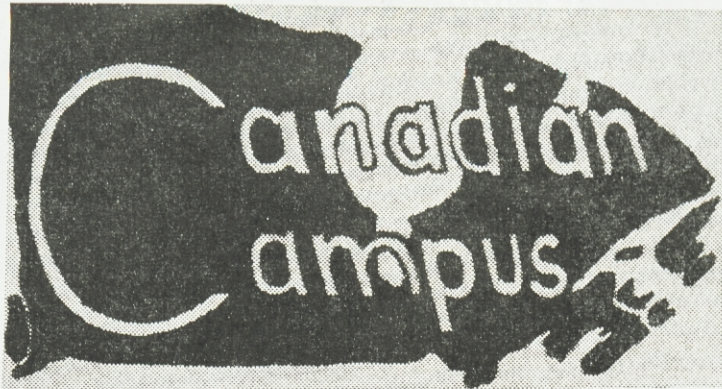

It is a well-known fact that the Sigma Delta Sorority is the forgotten society on the campus of S.D.U. I might go further and say that some of you have never heard of such a group. Therefore, I am taking it upon myself, being this year's President to give a slight introduction to the Sigma Delta Sorority.

The Sorority was founded at a meeting, convoked by Rev. J.P. E. O'Hanley, and held in the Science Building on Dec. 9, 1948. The co-eds numbered only sixteen at that time. The object of the Society set forth at this meeting was the religious, social, and cultural development of its members -- membership being open to every co-eds numbered only sixteen at chosen for the society was "The love of Christ impels us!"

Like most societies, the Sigma Delta Sorority has its own constitution which outlines the duties of the Officers - President, Vice-President and Secretary Treasurer; to establish it on the road to success even if that success should come only in future years.

I hope this had given you, the Students and the Alumni who read this edition of RED and WHITE a clearer insight into the nature of the Sigma Sorority.

I might also take the opportunity to thank the Staff of RED and WHITE for allowing me to write a few words on the "Forgotten Society."

UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA:

About seventy-five students at the University of British Columbia took part in a "fist swinging brawl" at the front of a classroom when a number of Engineers tried to abduct a Freshman presidential candidate from a Freshman Council meeting.

LAVAL UNIVERSITY:

Pressure from the French language campus newspaper, "Le Carabin" has forced the resignation of the Dean of Law at Laval University. The students expressed a lack of confidence in the Dean as a teacher but not as a lawyer. As one of the students put it "If we do not accept our free thinking students as partners fighting for our rights, we risk a continuing mediocre University."

UNIVERSITY OF WESTERN ONTARIO:

The model parliament at the University of Western Ontario will meet four times this year. The main feature of the parliament will be the introduction of a number of committees to investigate certain issues and forward a report to the Prime Ministers and other Party leaders.

MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY:

Memorial University of Newfoundland became the tenth member of the Maritime Intercollegiate Debating League at its annual conference at Dalhousie University, October 13. The schedule has to be arranged and the site for next annual convention was moved from King's.

BULLETIN BOARD

FOOTBALL

Nov. 10 — Dalhousie vs. St. Dunstan's (varsity)
Nov. 10 — St. Dunstan's J. V. vs. Mt. Allison's J. V.

HOCKEY

Nov. 24 — St. Dunstan's vs. St. Mary's
Dec. 3 — St. Dunstan's vs. St. F. X.

BASKETBALL

Dec. 1 — St. Dunstan's vs. St. F. X.

Jack Kane will be coaching the hockey team this year. Some twenty years ago, Jack's father coached the S.D.U. team to a number of Maritime Intercollegiate Championships.

The administration has requested students not to post notices on the bulletin board at the entrance to Main Building. Those who wish to post notices should place them on the bulletin boards in the basement of the gym.

St. Dunstan's will be represented at the annual meeting of the Central Advisory Committee on Education for the Atlantic Provinces at the University of King's College, Nov. 14-16, by Reverend George Macdonald and Reverend O. C. Sharky. Father Sharkey will attend the annual meeting of the Atlantic Provinces Common Examining Board in Halifax.

A general Student Body meeting will be held on Nov. 13. This is the first general meeting this year.

S.D.U. Athletic Director, A. J. MacAdam hinted recently that a special committee is likely to be set up this year to decide the calibre of sports participants. This means that only those players who are of "buzzer" calibre will be permitted to play in that league.

DEAR BRUNO

Dear Bruno,

What are we supposed to do with those little, round, brown things we get for supper on Thursday night? They are not edible - could you suggest another use?

Will Not

Dear Will,

I gather that you are referring to our weekly dish of cold uncooked beans. They have a number of uses of which eating them is only the last resort. One could, for example, use them as inspiration for poetry as Dickenson did in the first three lines of The Thunderstorm.

"The winds began to rock the grass

With threatening tunes and low -
He flung a menace at the earth!"

Dear Bruno,

I am crazy about one of the football players who sits across from me in class yet never seems to notice me. What should I do?

Heart Broken

Dear Heart,

Even at the risk of sounding mean, you did ask me and I must give a helpful answer. There comes a time when even your friends won't tell -- but a dog will.

You see, Honey, no one likes a girl with avocado eyeballs.

Dear Bruno,

For the past week I have been hearing so much about the senior class rings, that it has set me wondering. Isn't it usually the procedure to have a definite ring for every year?

Concerned.

Dear Concerned,

We do have a definite class ring every year. Last year it was definite. This year it will be definite. Next year -- well we don't know what it will be. Rumor has it that the Juniors are planning an anti-rings demonstration even at the risk of being classified as "damned fools".

C'est la vie.

Such is life in democracy!

* * *

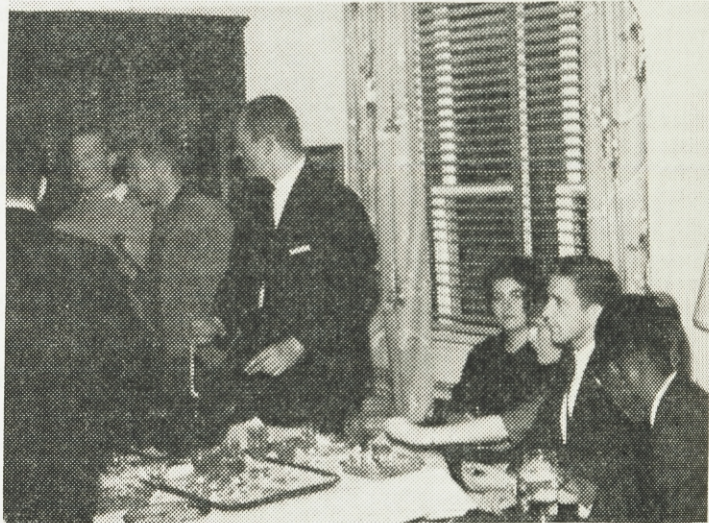

Dear Bruno,

In your first edition you printed a letter with rather shady undertones concerning NFCUS. I hardly think it was fair. Though I am not a member. I feel we should have more groups like NFCUS on this campus.

Disturbed.

Dear Disturbed,

There is only one group on this campus like NFCUS. But you are interested in having groups like it on campus, huh? How about a society for the "Protection of St. Bernards." Oop, I almost forgot -- Bloodhounds also. Sorry, Descartes!

"ANYONE FOR MORE," asks Ray MacLean at Senior Cock-tail party held recently at the Horse and Sulky Club in Charlottetown.
