

FROSH WEEK

"THAT WAS THE WEEK THAT WAS"

Leo Broderick's "sociable seniors" went all out to make friends with the frosh.

bow down before you

Good news from the weatherman and a "go get 'em" spirit injection from the seniors started the frosh on a Shinerama campaign not before equalled.

Oh you of superior intelligence

The activities of freshman week for the Class of '71 were just the beginning of a pschdelic year of happenings. The major events of the week promoted that "getting to know you" atmosphere. And what better way to start than with a record hop and hootenanny in the Student Union Coffee Shop. Many frosh will find the Coffee Shop "the place" to spend many of their social hours.

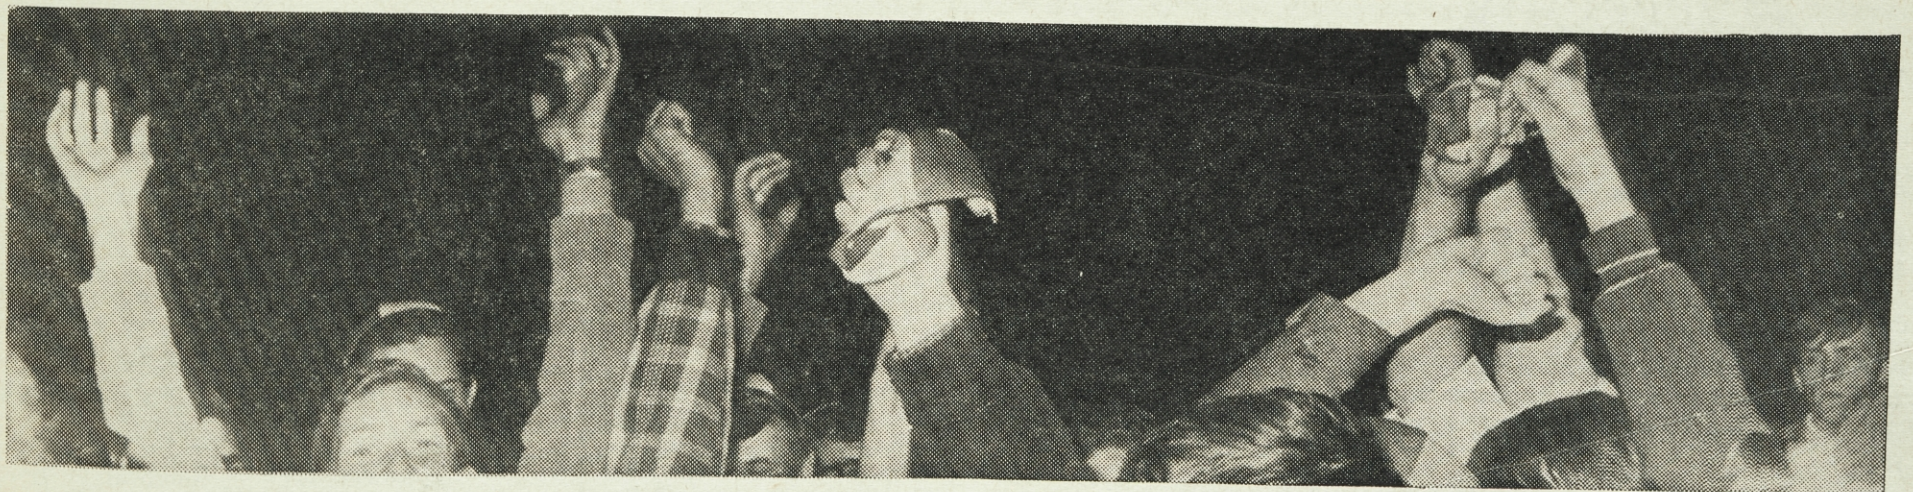

we green freshmen

A corn boil before an informal record blast seemed to conjure many new friendships and renew some old ones for those upper classmen who like to remember when . . . On Wednesday the Basilica Recreation Centre really vibrated with the sound of Dino and the Satins, a group we hope to hear more from during the '67-'68 social season at S.D.U.

FROSH QUEEN

JULIE MITCHELL AND JOHN DALY

and hope some day to be as wise

A warning to the money making organizations — these kids know how to make it. And although to Al Leith it didn't sound original, the Happening produced some rather original looks in the Mod fashions at S.D.U. A final note of formality ended a great week of campus sociability. Julia Mitchell of Charlottetown was crowned Frosh Queen and presided over the Coronation Dance held at the Rec Center.

and virtuous as you

The upper class socialties welcome the frosh and also urge them to support campus events. Your cheers will be well rewarded by all S.D.U. teams.
