

College Chronicle

The most important event of the second semester—and of the whole year—to be mentioned is the Maritime Regional Convention of the Canadian Federation of Catholic College-Students held at St. Dunstan's February 28, to March 3, 1941. Since the Editor has treated of the Convention in a special editorial, the Chronicle department will confine itself to a brief outline of the program and a list of delegates, visitors, and committees.

The program was as follows:

The following made up the St. Dunstan's Committee in charge of preparations for the Convention:

Jack Trainor (Chairman), Reception; Gene Gorman, Entertainment; Edmund Roche, Press; Hubert O'Hanley, Finance; Clarence Coady, Program; F. P. Aylward, Transportation and Lodging.

After three busy days of conference activity, our guests entrained, Tuesday Morning, March 4th, for their Colleges. It was indeed a pleasure and an education for us to work toward the solution of our common problems with such an earnest and congenial group of students. We trust their stay was most enjoyable.

---

The Rink Committee, appointed early in the year, was composed of the following: George MacDonald, (Chairman), Allan Callaghan, George McKenna, Ronan MacDonald, Frank P. Aylward, Fred Hessian, and Angus Gillis. They did a fine job. Among other things, they accomplished something considered an impossibility in former years, namely, making the waiters take a turn at sweeping the Rink.

Although the Intramural League is not history, and recounted in another department, this Chronicle "fella" is taking the liberty to add a verbal bouquet to those paid the strategic guidance of Coach Trainor, whose "Has-Beens" copped the championship. Just another tribute to the mighty man from Bedford.

Another point: this marks the fourth consecutive year that Father O'Hanley has sparked the defence of a championship team,—different teams, all winners, (Incidentally, he's been here only four years). No mere coincidence is this, for his shot has the punch of an anti-tank rifle. Congratulations Father O'Hanley.

Debating during the second semester has been as usual: the junior societies carrying off the palm for industrious activity.

---

Rev. Gavan P. Monaghan, Ph. D., Head of the Department of French, has been granted a leave of absence for the rest of the term. Father Gavan has taken this opportunity to enjoy a well deserved rest (his first in years) from a strenuous teaching schedule.

On the day of the Convention closing, it was reported that Father O'Hanley's brother, who has been on convoy duty, was missing. Although good news has not yet been received, the students are offering their many prayers for his safety.

---

The Red and White takes this opportunity to extend a cordial welcome to Rev. J. G. Mathieu, O. P., who has taken charge of the Department of French for the duration of the year. In the short time he has been at the college, Father Mathieu has won the hearts of the students.
