A decorative border of small floral motifs surrounds the title.

The Graduates

MARCEL GUY BARIL—Arts

“Dieu fit les saints pour qu’on les prie . . .”

Born on March 10, 1932, at Trois-Rivieres, Marcel attended the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres, then the Seminaire de Nicolet, and vice versa, and so on and so forth . . . till he joined us in January to see if all that he had been told about St. Dunstan's was true, and also . . . to get his Laval B. A. His contagious laugh, and his social qualities have won him many friends at S. D. U. and in town. He will study Commerce at University of Montreal next year. Bonne Chance, Marcel.

JEAN-MARIE BELLAVANCE—Arts

“Every woman should marry . . . and no man”.

Born on May 17, 1931, at Causapschal, Que., Jean-Marie spent a long time at l'Externat Classique St. Jean Eudes, Quebec City, and came to S. D. U. in Junior year to complete the Laval B. A. Course in English. While applying himself diligently to the work required by his schedule of studies, he played intramural hockey for two seasons. Behind his friendly and quiet exterior is a fund of good sense and a keen sense of perception which will lead him far in his chosen field of Forestry Engineering at Laval. Best of luck, Jean-Marie.

ARMAND BERGERON—Arts

“Le bon vin m'endort, puis l'amour me reveille encore . . .”

Armand was born in April, 1931, at St. Joseph d'Alma, Quebec. He entered the Seminaire de Chicoutimi for eight years, and came to St. Dunstan's last fall to complete the Laval course for a B. A. and to further his knowledge of

EARL MACKINNON

ALVAN SMITH

MARJORIE MACPHEE

FREDERICK MACCOLL

BERNADETTE BURKE

ROBIN DUFFY

PEARL CHRISTIAN

ARMANDO MACQUEEN

LAWRENCE MCNEIL

ED CAIRNS

FLOYD MACLELLAN

JEAN MARIE MACLELLAN

MARY JOHNSTON

JOHN MULLALLY

CYRIL MACISAAC

PETER DUNPHY

DONALD STARNES

CHARLES CHEYETTE

EMMETT ROCHE

JEAN ARTHUR SCOTT

DEANE STUPPANZ

JOHN WEIR

RONALD WHELAN

MARCEL BARIL

JOHN CLARKE

ST. DUNSCAN'S UNIVERSITY

GRADUATING CLASS

REV. J.A. SULLIVAN

REV. J.A. SULLIVAN

1953

EX EODENT FUND FIDES ET SCIENTIA

ROBERT QUINN

ROBERT MACRAE

ROBERT MACRAE

ROBERT MACRAE

ROBERT MACRAE

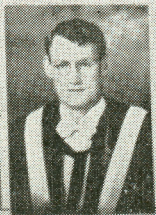

ROBERT MACRAE

FRANCES MCNEIL

JOHN J. O'BRIEN

CLAIRE MACLELLAN

MARJORIE MACPHEE

JOHN MACCOLL

BERNADETTE BURKE

PETER DUNPHY

DONALD STARNES

CHARLES CHEYETTE

EMMETT ROCHE

LAWRENCE MCNEIL

the English language. A keen sense of humor and a friendly manner have won for him the esteem of many. Armand took part in college games including cards and hitchhiking. We wish him the best of luck next year at Montreal where he intends to study dentistry.

JEAN-MARC BOURASSA—Arts

"All who joy would win, must share it—
Happiness was born a twin".

"The Twins" were born on August 7, 1930, at Windsor Est in the province of Quebec. After receiving their early education at Seminaire St. Charles in Sherbrooke and Church Point, Nova Scotia, they arrived on this campus in the fall of '51. Here these gentlemen have proven themselves willing students. Both have participated actively in all intramural sports and their keen competitive spirit has won for them a host of friends. Next year they intend to study medicine. Endowed with the necessary ability, these ambitious men should meet with much success. From St. Dunstan's, best wishes for your happiness and prosperity in the years ahead.

BERNADETTE MARGARET BURGE—Arts

"We are better for having known her."

On February 5th, 1935, a little more brightness was given to the world in the person of Bernadette "Bunny" Burge. In eighteen short years many people have come to know and love Bernadette, who, with her charming smile, ready wit, and generous heart, has readily made friends everywhere. She received her early education at Fortune Road School and later at St. Mary's Convent, Souris. As a student of St. Dunstan's since '49, Bernadette has earned both respect and admiration for she has proven herself a true student and a ready co-operator in all student activities. God bless you, Bernadette, in your future endeavours. The world needs your smile, your optimism, and your generosity.

CLAIRE CATHERINE BURGE—Arts

"Grace was in all her steps, heaven in here eye.
In every gesture dignity and love."

Born at Five Houses on December 6, 1932, Claire received her primary education at her home school and later at St. Mary's Convent, Souris, from where she graduated in 1949. The following fall she enrolled as a student at St. Dunstan's in Freshman year. Since her arrival at the college, she has shown a keen interest not only in her academic work, but also in dramatics and other extra-curricular activities. As you leave us, Claire, our best wishes go with you for every success in your future field of endeavour.

CLAIR JOSEPH CALLAGHAN—Arts

"The big man with the big heart and boundless energies."

Clair was born at Ebbsfleet on February 21, 1933. After completing his elementary education there, he entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of '48. "Cope" has won fame for himself in both academic and athletic activities. He was a valuable member of the M.I.D.L. and contributed to winning the Dominion title. Last year he was co-captain of our victorious football team. He also is a member of the C.O.T.C. and is now commissioned to Second Lieutenant. By his pleasing personality "Cope" has won for himself a host of friends who wish him the best success in engineering which he intends to study next year. All the best Clair.

JOSEPH CHARLES CHEVERIE—Arts

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint.
And those who know the, know all words are faint."

Charlie was born in Charlottetown on September 19, 1932. He received his primary education at Queen Square School, graduating in '48 with the Governor-General's Medal. During his five years at St. Dunstan's, Charlie has proven to be a sincere, versatile and industrious student. An excellent scholar, Charlie's academic progress has been admirable. As a member of the football team for three years, the hockey team for two, he has merited his bronze "D" for outstanding prowess in Intercollegiate sports. As a musician, Charlie is an excellent violinist and has served as President of the Glee Club during the past year. Combine these talents with a pleasing manner and a ready smile and we have a personality that will long be remembered at S. D. U. Endowed with such ability, Charlie is certain to be a success. We wish him well.

JOHN JOSEPH PETER CLARKIN—Science.

"True wit is nature to advantage dress'd,
What oft was thought, but ne'er so well expressed".

It was on Dec. 4, 1930, that the community of Emyvale, P.E.I., was enriched by the birth of John. In the Autumn of 1947 he entered St. Dunstan's as a prominent member of his class. He has taken part in many class activities, particularly, sports and dramatics. This year he was a member of the A.A.A. Executive. John can best be described as a man of ready wit, of gentle manner, and of mild affections.—Felicitas.

ST. CLAIR LOUIS COYLE—Arts

"A Christian is the highest style of man."

A graduate of whom St. Dunstan's is proud. St. Clair was born in Charlottetown on June 9, 1932 and at an early age moved to Montague, P.E.I. Here he received his primary education. Having arrived at St. Dunstan's in the fall of '49, his pleasing manner and constant smile soon won for him the friendship of all. His untiring efforts, both academic and social, in rendering assistance to the student body, his keen enthusiasm in college activities and his willingness to help others at all times, have revealed a skillful and useful character. These attributes should be a tremendous asset in the field of social welfare which he intends to pursue in future years—a future that can be crowned only with success.

ROBERT CORNELIUS CROKEN—Arts.

"He is—but words would fail to tell thee what;
Think what a man should be, he is that".

A Christian gentleman—. Bob was born at Emerald, P. E. I. on April 17, 1933. After receiving his primary education there, he enrolled at Kinkora Convent for High School before entering St. Dunstan's in the fall of '49. During these four years, Bob, gifted with a personality that has enriched all with whom he has come in contact, has shown himself to be a good student, an outstanding orator, and an active participant in all college activities. In debating he has excelled, having represented S.D.U. in three Intercollegiate debates, each time emerging victorious. As Assistant-Editor of the Red and White, 1951-52, and Editor this year, Bob's writing ability has been reflected in the enviable quality of his articles and editorials which have merited him this year a "Literary D"—for outstanding contributions. Spiritually, scholastically and socially Bob has proven himself. From St. Dunstan's, Bob, we wish that every success will be yours.

MARY GERTRUDE CREIGHAN—Arts

"God's rarest blessing is, after all, a good woman."

Early Holy Thursday morning, 1933, Mary arrived in Charlottetown, the first sure sign of spring. After completing eleven successful years at Notre Dame Academy, Mary came to St. Dunstan's in the fall of '49. Active in extra-curricular as well as in academic endeavours, she has participated in such productions as the Hound of Heaven, Christmas at the Crossroads and The Hasty Heart. This year she is president of the Sigma Delta Sorority. We feel sure that her future will be as successful as her past. Best wishes, Mary.

RICHARD LAUGHTON DOYLE—Science.

"From a little spark, will burst a mighty flame."

"Dick" was born in Charlottetown on August 7, 1928. He left Queen Square School, where he completed his primary education in 1944, and joined the Active Service. After his return from the Army he entered P.W.C., from which he was graduated in 1948. For two years "Dick" was absent from his studies while employed in Toronto. In the fall of 1951 he entered S.D.U. and this year he receives his Bachelor of Science Degree. In his two years at S.D.U. he has proven himself to be a capable student and has won for himself many friends. We all join in wishing "Dick" every success in his future endeavours.

FREDERICK LEO DRISCOLL—Arts.

"Praise from a friend, or censure from a foe,
Are lost on hearers that our merits know".

Freddie was born at Mount Herbert on August 18, 1932, and in that same locality he received his primary education. In 1947 he enrolled at S. D. U. During the six years which he has spent with us he has proven himself to be an alert and ready student, also a keen and aggressive athlete, being a member of our famous football team of 1952, a tireless contender in all intramural sports, High School representative for A.A.A., and Vice-President of that same organization in 1952. Freddie steps into the world fortified with sound durable principles, with a fighting spirit, and with a knack of acquiring real friends. These characteristics portend success, which we pray will be his as we bid him, "God be with you".

JAMES REGIS HUGH DUFFY—Arts.

"Our business in the field of fight
Is not to question, but to prove our might".

"Doc" was born in Kinkora, P.E.I., on November 29, 1932. Previous to enrolling at St. Dunstan's in 1948, he received his elementary education in Kinkora. In the five years that Regis has been with us, he won the friendship of all who knew him. He was a member of the M.I.D.L. and also took an active part in all sports on the campus. In the spring of 1952 he was elected Student Union President, a responsible office which he handled with great efficiency. With the many characteristics that he possesses, he leaves no doubt with us that his future will be crowned with success and happiness. The many friends whom he leaves at St. Dunstan's wish him every success.

JEAN-DENYS DUFRENSE—Arts.

"What you see, yet cannot see over, is as good as infinite".

As all modest men's lives, Denys's life is obscure. However it seems that his birth offers no room for discussion. The important event took place at Shawinigan Falls, P.Q., on June 26th, 1930. Many of his early biographers do not agree on his early goings and comings. But now it is an indisputable fact that he received his first college education at the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres. Then, last fall S. D. U. offered him shelter and further knowledge of the English language; that he could not refuse. It has not been much of a task for Denys to win our friendship. For advice, no better man, for a secret, no safer one. He intends to return to S.D.U. next fall to study some more sciences. Bonne chance, Denys.

PETER GERARD DUNPHY—Arts.

"The reward of a thing well done is to have done it".

Peter was born at Peake's Station on April 13, 1931, and received his primary education at the district school. In the fall of '47 he enrolled at St. Dunstan's as a Grade Eleven student. Peter's record at St. Dunstan's as a student is an enviable one. He was a star in the Senior Football and Basketball teams for four years, and last year was president of the A.A.A. However, he has not won the admiration of his classmates and fellow students by athletics alone. His academic record and the qualities of a true gentleman identify him as a typical Christian student and a graduate of whom we may be proud. The will to do all things well will definitely make Peter a success in all his undertakings.

LAWRENCE MICHAEL GLOVER—Arts.

"As for the rest, he is the best fellow in the world".

Larry was born in Kensington on October 15, 1932. Having received his early education at the local school, he later attended Kinkora High School for two years and then entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948. Larry took an active part in all college activities, holding the position of Secretary-Treasurer of the M.I.D.L. in 1950-51, and Vice-President of this society in 1951-52. While at St. Dunstan's Larry experienced two years of training in the U. N. T. D. His friendly manner and keen sense of humor have won for him a host of friends who wish him every success in his future endeavours.

JEAN ARTHUR JACOB—Arts.

"Qui dort, dive . . ."

Jean Arthur, or Bob to his intimates, was born on December 16th, 1931 at St. Genevieve, P.Q. After successful primary studies, he attended the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres and the College de l'Assomption and this year he is a worthy member of St. Dunstan's Senior Class working for his B. A. A rare personality and keen sense of humor have rapidly won him many friends. Bob, a perfect swimmer "a la Rita Hayworth" and an outstanding baseball pitcher "a la Bob Feller", will study medicine next year and we are sure that he will be contesting for the best rookie award at Laval University, Bonne Chance, Bob.

MARK BERNADETTE JOHNSTON—Arts.

"She is beauty, education, wit,
Holds hands with any princess of the world".

During the stock market crash, Mary crashed the once peaceful Johnston household at Central Bedeque on September 10, 1929. Having completed her elementary education, she entered Prince of Wales College where she took normal training. After teaching for several years, she took refuge under the friendly portals of St. Dunstan's. While at St. Dunstan's, Mary took an active part in dramatics besides being secretary of the Dramatic Society. She was a member of the Red and White staff, and this year was appointed life secretary of her class. To Mary we extend our best wishes for all the success and happiness she so richly deserves.

ROBERT HUGH CONRAD KENNEDY—Arts.

"The wisest man the warl' e'er saw,
He dearly loved the lasses, O".

Connie received his primary education in Edmundston, N. B., the city of his birth. He came to St. Dunstan's as a Grade XI student in 1947. He has taken part in most of the inter-class sports and has very generously contributed both his time and talents to various campus activities by being on the Executive of the A.A.A. as Manager of Football in 1951 and as President of the Dramatic Society this year. He is also a third year member of the C.O.T.C. and has completed the course leading to a commission. Besides taking part in many extra-curricular activities, he did not neglect his academic work and this year he receives the Bachelor of Arts Degree with honors. Connie's jovial disposition and pleasing manner have helped him to make a wide circle of friends both at S.D.U. and on the Island generally. Armed, as he is with the ideals of his Alma Mater, we know that his future work will be a success.

CLARENCE JOSEPH MacDONALD—Arts.

"Linguam compescere, virtus non minima est".

Clarence was born in Blooming Point, P.E.I., on September 24, 1931, and received his primary education there. In the fall of '47 Clarence came to St. Dunstan's where he has proven himself both a good student and a standout athlete. In athletics he earned his silver "D" for being a member of the senior basketball team for four years, a member of the senior football team for two years, and the winner of the senior track and field championship last fall. He is also on the staff of Red and White, being athletics editor this year. His extra-curricular activities have not prevented him from being one of the leading students in this year's graduating class. To this fine Christian gentleman we wish success in every future undertaking.

JAMES CHARLES MacDONALD—Arts.

"The crown and glory of man is character".

James Charles MacDonald was born at Mount Stewart on January 19, 1930. After receiving his early education there he attended Georgetown High School. In 1946 he entered St. Dunstan's. By his pleasant and genial manner he has won the acclaim of all who have met him. In all fields of college activity, Charlie has taken an active interest and has endeavoured to promote the common good of all. We wish him a future crowned with success.

JOHN CYRIL MacDONALD—Commerce

"Seu legit, seu scribit, nihil temporis terret".

Born in Charlottetown on November 11, 1931, Cy received his primary education at Spring Park and Queen Square Schools and completed high school in Souris. He enrolled at St. Dunstan's as a Freshman in 1948. He taught school in 1949 and then returned to St. Dunstan's in 1950. During his years at St. Dunstan's he played an important role in all phases of college life. He has been a member of the M.I.D.L. and the Glee Club. Last year he was Vice-President of the Dramatic Society and Assistant Business Manager of Red and White: this year he was a member of the W.U.S.C. committee and manager of the college canteen. He has been a member of the C.O.T.C. and has qualified himself for a commission. While at college, Cy has displayed many business-like qualities and he hopes to further develop his talents along this line by studying business administration with the Hudson Bay Co. next year.

EARL HARRY ARTHUR MacKINNON—Science

"Heroes themselves had fallen behind.
—Whene'er he went before".

Early was born at Tracadie on November 7, 1932. He received his early education at Glenaldale School, and entered St. Dunstan's in September, 1947. During the past three years Earl has been a valuable member of the basketball team and merited his athletic "D". He has served on the executive of the A.A.A. Loyalty to his class and to his college coupled with untiring efforts in both academic and athletic pursuits have won for him the best wishes of his many friends. Earl plans to take engineering at St. F. X. In all your endeavours, Earl, may you be a worthy son of St. Dunstan's.

JOSEPH DESMOND MacNEILL—Science.

"He is a man, take him for all in all
I shall not look upon his like again".

"Des" was born September 17, 1931, at Miscouche, and attended the Convent there before entering St. Dunstan's in the fall of '48 as a Freshman. His studies were interrupted for one year during which time he was employed in central Canada. He returned this year to complete his studies for the Bachelor of Science Degree. He plans to further his studies in the field of engineering. Whatever the future holds in store for him, we wish him the best of everything.

FLOYD McGAUGH—Arts.

"His life is gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that nature might stand up,
And say to all the world, this is a man".

Floyd entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of '46 after acquiring his primary education at St. Margaret's and St. Peter's High School. During his sojourn at S. D. U., he has taken an active part in the M.I.D.L. and the various intramural sports, as well as being a member of the C.O.T.C. Endowed with a keen mind as well as a charming personality, this exemplary student can reap only success in his future endeavours.

CYRIL JOSEPH McISAAC—Arts.

"A good companion makes good company".

August 3, 1933 was the day which marked the entrance of Cy into this world, and Earnscliffe, P.E.I. was the place. After attending Grade XI at P.W.C. he came to our campus. Since that time Cy has led a very busy and prominent life. Very active in athletics, he was a member of the football team for two years and a stellar guard in basketball for four years, being captain of the team in his last year. Bestowed with excellent oratorical powers he was a member of the M.I.D.L. for three years and this year was chosen Valedictorian by his classmates. Cy also was on the Staff of the Red and White. Popular with both faculty and students, he will long be remembered by everyone.

PIERRE MICHAUD—Arts.

"Attempt the end and never stand to doubt;
Nothing's so hard, but search will find it out".

February 10, 1930 was a bright day for the Michaud family in Rimouski, Quebec, for Pierre had just been born. Before entering St. Dunstan's in the autumn of '51, Pierre received his primary education at Levis College and the Seminaire de Sillery in the Province of Quebec. Here at St. Dunstan's his scholastic and athletic prowess has been outstanding. As a member of the S.D.U. hockey team these past two years and an active participant in all intramural sports, his fine play and good sportsmanship are to be commended. In the years ahead Pierre intends to be studying International Law at Laval University. We at St. Dunstan's send our best wishes with you, Pierre, for a prosperous career.

MARIAN TERESA ANNETTE McPHEE—Arts.

"She is—but words would fail to tell thee what:
Think what a woman should be, she is that".

Marian was born at Selkirk on July 17, 1928. She received her early education at Armadale school, Selkirk, and completed her High School education at St. Mary's Convent, Souris and Prince of Wales College. After teaching for two years in Island schools, Marian entered St. Dunstan's as a Freshman Arts student in 1948. After completing her Sophomore year Marian spent a year teaching school then returned to St. Dunstan's in 1951 and has now completed her Arts course. While at St. Dunstan's she took an active part in all student activities. We all join in wishing her every success and happiness in the future.

KRISTINA MOYSIYAHKA—Arts.

"Quantum instar in ipso est".

In October, 1950, Nina came to Canada to begin her studies at St. Dunstan's. Immediately she won the hearts of all whom she met. Her keen intelligence enabled her to add in a short time another language to the six she had previously mastered. Her willing and spontaneous co-operation in every venture of class and college has shown her to be a true St. Dunstan's student in every way. For three years we have enjoyed and profited from your stay with us, Nina. We trust you have enjoyed being here. All the best in the future.

JOSEPH ALPHONSUS MULLALLY—Arts.

"Animus laetus bene afficit vultum".

Joe made his initial appearance at Gowan Brae, P. E. I., on April 7, 1932. After completing his early education at Gowan Brae and Souris High School, he registered at St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1947. Since then his genial nature has made him most popular with his fellow students. Joe has excelled both in his studies and athletics. He was a member of the senior basketball team for four years, and last fall was a member of our famous football team. This year he is also President of the St. Dunstan's branch of C.C.S.M.C. Joe's future plans are indefinite, but whatever field he chooses, we at St. Dunstan's wish him the best of luck.

JOHN COONEY MULLALLY—Arts.

"An abridgment of all that is pleasant in man".

The life president of the senior class was born in Souris West on November 28, 1930. After graduating from Souris High School he entered S. D. U. in the fall of '47. During his sojourn here he has proven himself to be a true Christian gentleman, a fine friend, and a serious student. John has taken a very active part in student organizations. For three years he was president of his class; basketball manager for two years; vice-president of the Students' Union '51-52; national vice-president of C.F.C.C.S. '51-52; and for three years a valuable member of the senior football team, which last fall won the McCurdy cup. With his personality and talent, we know that he will attain the success in life that we wish him.

MAUREEN PAULA MURPHY—Arts.

"You must look into people as well as at them."

Maureen was born in Ottawa on October 16, 1933 where she received her elementary education. Early in her career her family moved to P.E.I. where she attended Notre Dame before entering S.D.U. in '49. During the time spent here she has made the acquaintance of many people and will always remain in their minds as a talented and likeable young lady. Maureen plans to commence studies with the Boston Air Lines in the U. S. and we have no doubt that she will be a success.

DENIS RONALD NORMAND—Arts.

"Le coeur a des raisons que la raison ne connaît pas."

Born at Trois-Rivers on August 18, 1933, Denis took his first steps toward his B. A. between the Seminaire des Trois-Rivieres, the College l'Assomption, the Seminaire de Nicolet, finally anchoring at S.D.U. to further his knowledge in Shakespeare's language. Denis has proven to be a good student and a sincere friend to many, at St. Dunstan's and outside . . . Although he did not take an active part in sports here, he is an excellent swimmer and a skillful oarsman. Next year, Denis intends to enter Medical School at Laval. We wish you success and good luck, Denis.

JOHN JOSEPH O'BRIEN—Arts.

"To those who know thee not, no words can paint,
And those who know thee, know all words are faint".

John Joe was born in Morell the 24th of January, 1932. He received his early education at Sinnott's Road School where he passed Grade X in 1947, and was awarded the King's County Scholarship for that year. In the fall of '47 he entered P.W.C., and after completing Grade XI and XII in one year, he entered the teaching profession. He came to S.D.U. in '49. During the four years he has spent in our midst, he has shown himself to be an alert and industrious student, and a true friend of good character, which has won for him the friendship and acclaim of all. He enters the world with a determined will and a humble belief in hard work, which are qualities destined to bring success, and this we heartily and sincerely hope and pray will be his.

CHARLES AUGUSTE PELLETIER—Arts.

"In Medio Stat Virtus".

Charlie was born at Donnacona, P.Q., on May 23, 1932. He received his early education there, and spent his first college years at the Seminaire de Quebc. Last fall St. Dunstan's opened wide its doors to welcome him. Charlie is a lover of good music and has been a prominent member of our choir this year. As for his academic activities, he has learned well how to construct a syllogism: the more you study the more you know, but the more you know the more you forget, and the more you forget the less you know. Therefore . . . Next year he plans to enter the Dental School at Montreal University. On leaving us, Charlie you have best wishes for your future success and happiness.

EMMETT FRANCIS ROCHE—Arts.

"Ratio super omnia".

Born at Iona on January 7th, 1923, Emmett attended the local school before entering St. Dunstan's in 1940. After three years he was forced by illness to discontinue his courses until 1950. In the interim very extensive reading with the benefits of reflection, produced a keen scholarly mind, imbued with Christian principles and logical procedure. At St. Dunstan's besides being a class leader academically he has two intercollegiate debates to his credit, and this year he was Secretary-Treasurer of the Students' Union. Emmett will always be held in regard for the honest interest he has in all, and the inspiration he is to his many friends. May God bless you, Emmett.

RICHARD ALBAN SMITH—Arts.

"Not always actions show the man, we find
His pride in reasoning, not in acting lies".

As the sun crept slowly over the unstained banks of snow on the morning of December 23, 1931 the village of Kinkora was awakened by the joyful news of Alban's arrival into the world. After receiving his primary education at the local High School, Alban entered St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1948. Since then he has taken an active interest in all student activities. The many friends he has made while at St. Dunstan's wish him God's guidance in whatever course he may follow in the future.

JOHN ANGUS WEIR—Commerce.

"Homo paulo sapientior".

Jack first saw the light of day in Charlottetown on October 19, 1930. After completing his primary education at Queen Square, he attended Prince of Wales College for two years and made his eventful appearance at St. Dunstan's in 1949. As Secretary-treasurer of the A.A.A. last year and as Business Manager of the Red and White this year, Jack has proven himself to be most efficient. Besides being a friend to all who knew him, he will long be remembered as being the only student on the campus possessing a sleek, tricolored Model A. We can rest assured that in his future work he will display his usual proficiency and Christian zeal. We all join in wishing this graduate happy motoring through life.

REGINALD LAWRENCE WHELAN—Arts.

"Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined."

"Duke" was born in Charlottetown twenty-three years ago on September 19th. He received his elementary education at Queen Square School and enrolled at St. Dunstan's in the fall of 1946. Since that time he has formed many lasting friendships and will always be remembered as a person with a keen sense of humor. His service in the C.O.T.C. has qualified him as a commissioned officer in the Reserve Army. As regards the future, "Duke" is still uncertain, but we feel confident that he possesses the qualifications which guarantee success.

Book Review

THE GOLDEN THREAD

by
LOUIS de WOHL

Philadelphia and New York Lippincourt 1952 254 pp.

In the sixteenth century practically all the Christian nations of Europe were at war with one another. French troops were invading Spain and laying siege to castles and towns. Turmoil and bloodshed were present everywhere, even in Italy and in the Holy Land.

The historical novel, The Golden Thread, deals with the life of Don Inigo de Loyola, or Saint Ignatius Loyola, who is known to us as the founder of the Society of Jesus.

The author of this book begins by relating the siege of Pompola, Spain, where a certain Basque nobleman received a severe wound in his leg which changed his whole career. The soldier in the French army, who was mainly responsible for wounding Inigo, was Swiss-born Uli von der Flue. Uli, who over-shadows Inigo a great deal in some parts of the book, was given the task of transporting Inigo