

ALUMNI

Mr. G. L. Smith '13, who was the "Joke" Smith of "Red and White" while at St. Dunstan's has for the past two years been studying medicine at McGill, and is spending the summer in Fall River.

Mr. Henry Blanchard, B. A. '11, formerly one of the Professors at St. Dunstan's has for the past four years been Professor of French at Prince of Wales College, Charlottetown.

Mr. Lawrence Smith, B. A. '13 is Principal of Queen Square School, Charlottetown.

Sam Doyle '12 once star catcher for our base-ball team has for the past two years been attending McGill.

Andrew S. McDonald '14 has for the past year been Post Master at Cardigan, P. E. I.

Mr. J. Fraser another of the sons of St. Dunstan's who has answered the call to arms has lately been reported a prisoner of war in Germany.

Mr. D. McKenna '09 who was among the first to join the Colors of the Allies is wounded and is at present in a Hospital in France.

Mr. William S. Hughes, who volunteered with the Army Medical Corp, and sailed with the first Contingent, is in France at present. Billy left St. Dunstan's in '12 and went West.

Artists may produce excellent designs but they will avail little, unless the taste of the public is sufficiently cultivated to appreciate them.