

ALUMNI

Red and White wishes all the Alumni of St. Dunstan's a peaceful and joyous Easter Season.

Rev. Antoine Gagnon, '21, is now professor of English in the Seminary, Rimouski, P. Q.

We are delighted to have heard recently from our old friend, former Student, Dr. Aimé Morin, ex-'17. Dr. Morin is located at Kenogamie, P. Q., and wishes to be remembered to his former friends, and class-mates of old St. Dunstan's.

Richard O'Neil, B.A., '24, and Ralph Malone, B.A., '23, were ordained to the priesthood in Edmonton (Alta., December last, by His Grace, Archbishop O'Leary. These two young priests are now in the Archdiocese of Edmonton, the field of their future work.

Very Rev. Joseph F. Gillis, '93, is now in Burlington, Vermont. Father Gillis is Vicar General of that Diocese.

By the death of Dr. James Warbutron, one of the early students of this Institution, St. Dunstan's has lost a worthy Alumnus. Dr. Warburton was for many years a prominent figure at the Commencement Exercises of his Alma Mater, and his presence will be much missed in the future.

Another Alumnus of St. Dunstan's, James Murphy, '22, passed to his eternal reward at Regina, Sask., in November, '27.

St. Clair Trainor, B.A., '23, who studied law in the office of Mark McGuigan, B.A., Charlottetown, was admitted to the Bar in December, '27. He was the first member of the class of '23, to enter the legal profession.

P. J. Connelly, ex-'12, is now conducting a successful wholesale business in Sydney, N.S.

Ernest Corrigan, a former student of St. Dunstan's, is taking up Dentistry at Tuft's College, Boston, Mass. We wish "Bull" every success in his studies.

Leo A. Doyle, Valedictorian of Class '23, and also a member of last year's Graduating Class in the Faculty of Law, Dalhousie University, is now located in Windsor, Ont., having entered the firm of Rodd, Wigle & Whiteside, one of the oldest legal firms in that city. Mr. Doyle is also a member of the Bar of Nova Scotia, having been called there in December last; he is the second member of Class '23 to enter the legal profession.

John J. Gillis, M.D., C.M., '01, is now Mayor of Merritt, B.C.

John Keefe, '25, and Frank Shreenan ex-'24 are employed in Philadelphia, Pa.

Red and White extends hearty felicitations to Dr. Owen C. Trainor, '12, now of Winnipeg, Man; John Irving, ex-'21, now of Boston, Mass; and Benjamin Merchison, ex-'13, now of Buenos Ayres, S.A., who have recently joined the Benedicks.

Rev. J. B. Ward, '19, is now Parish Priest in Lakeville, N.B. Father Ward was, for some time, Curate at Sussex. Red and White wishes him every success in his new parish.

Percy Murphy, ex-'23, is at present studying Pharmacy in the Central Drug Store, Sydney, N.S.

J. MacPeake O'Brien, who left St. Dunstan's in '08, is engaged in the lumber business in South Nelson, N.B.

Vernon Smith, B.L., '24, is now on the teaching staff of Summerside High School.

Mark Dunphy, who attended St. Dunstan's during the first term of this scholastic year, is now employed by the C. N. R. in the Dept. of Investigation, Moncton, N.B.

Rev. George McCabe, B.A., '20, is now Pastor of Sturgeon Parish, succeeding Rev. Theodore Gallant, who has gone to Mt. Carmel. Father McCabe is the youngest Parish Priest in this Diocese. Red and White wishes him many fruitful years in the ministry.

James McCabe, '25, is taking a course in Dentistry at Dalhousie University.

Ten years have passed since the Class of '18 left St. Dunstan's, and we feel sure that many ex-Saints will be pleased to know where those fifteen graduates are at present, who went forth from the sheltering walls of their Alma Mater, to face the difficulties of the world. The following record of those men speaks for itself:—

Thomas Beagon, at home in Johnston's River, P. E.I.

Francis Beaton, B.A., a Dentist in Mattapan, Mass., U.S.A.

Andre Blacquiére, Grand Entry, Magdalen Islands.

Rev. J. J. Butler, now in Wichita, Kansas, U.S.A.

Charles Cantin, a lawyer in Quebec, P. Q.

Amedee Caron, B.A., a lawyer in Rimouski, P.Q.

Leo Casey, a Dentist in Boston, Mass., U.S.A.

Rev. H. A. Duffy, in the Diocese of Edmonton, Alta.

John Fraser, B.A., (President), a lawyer in Regina, Sask.

F. G. Kelly, Athletic Coach in Acadia University, Wolfville, N. S.

Rev. F. Mullally, B.A., on the teaching staff of St. Dunstan's University.

Joseph McEachern, B.A., (Twisty), employed with Ford Motor Co., Detroit.

Rev. R. V. MacKenzie, B.A., on the teaching staff of St. Dunstan's University.

Henry L. MacMillan (Valedictorian), now in Montreal.

One member, Rev. Stephen McQuaid, has been called to his Eternal Home.

Music should strike fire from the heart of man, and bring tears from the eyes of woman.

—Beethoven.

Fashion seldom interferes with nature without diminishing her grace and efficiency.

—Tuckerman.