

admonitions contained in papal encyclical letters are of this nature. For the most part, they are clear and brief statements of the dictates of the natural and moral law and, as such, are binding on all endowed with right reason, although they are not strictly-speaking infallible teaching. May future peace conferences benefit from the counsel of the papacy, but let us remember that in this counsel there is no exercise of infallible power.

COLLEGE CHRONICLE

Red and White offers sincere felicitations to: Rt. Rev. J. A. Murphy, D.D., former rector of Saint Dunstan's and now pastor of Kinkora parish, on his having attained the silver jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood and wishes him many long years of health and happiness. Also, to Rev. R. R. St. John, Vice-President of the Catholic Church Extension Society, who was ordained with Monsignor Murphy twenty-five years ago. Congratulations.

The Canadian Officers' Training Corps of Saint Dunstan's College continues to function with the same staff as last year with the exception of Reverend F. L. Cass who has recently been appointed to the staff of officers with the rank of Prov. 2nd Lieut.

The third and fourth year members of C.O.T.C. have successfully passed examinations in accordance with the training policy N.D.H.Q. and have now completed local headquarters training for the year.

One feature of the C.O.T.C. activities of this year is the presentation of very entertaining and instructive movies which are held every two weeks. These are becoming more and more popular, not only to members of the C.O.T.C. but also to the remaining members of the student body. Many favourable comments have been heard concerning the splendid selection of pictures by Major Tierney in cooperation with the Film Library of M.D., No. 6.

Twenty-two of the cadets attached to the 17th Armoured Regiment are taking a special course in signalling. A great deal of enthusiasm has been shown by these boys and a large number is expected to qualify on examination.

ATHLETICS

HOCKEY

Because they saw the folly of entering two poorly-balanced teams in the City Hockey League, Coaches Bennett of P.W.C. and Father Cass of S.D.U. decided to amalgamate the best material from both Colleges. The result was a well-balanced, hard-working team, which, in the games played so far, have fought their way into the finals. Under the guidance of Johnny Squarebriggs, the Collegians were victorious over teams comprising such hockey stars as: Pete Kelly, formerly of Detroit Red Wings, Laberge, a star in Junior hockey circles in Montreal, and Bobby Dew, who starred with the Springfield Indians of the Canadian American League.
